How does God give joy and reward to the followers of Christ today? Day 3: Matthew 20 Read: 1-16.7. A. Summary of passage: Isaac was 40 when he married Rebekah. Isaac discovered Rebekah when he was barren and God gave his twins. The Lord told him that he did two nations, one would be strong and would serve the younger of the older. Eso was born first (his name means hair. He was also called adom for which red means he was the red head. The second born Jacob came out of the class-a-side and his name is grasps or is he a fraud. Isaac was 60 years old at his birth. Questions: 3a) 20 years b) Yes C) Personal question. My answer: We say that god's work can be demonstrated in this way and so he (Isaac and Rebekah) will learn god's destiny so that he can sustain them. It is estimated that 12-15% of women cannot have children, are pregnant, or have difficulty carrying a child in the term. He could have been one of those couples. d) Personal question. My answer: They prayed and the Lord answered in his time. 4) Two nations are in your belly this means how Eso will be the father of The Edomites (born 36) and the child of Israel. Hazrat Ibrahim (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) was promised in 17:4-6 that many nations would come down from him and Sarah. The fact that you will be separated by two people means they will remain separate. 1-Sultan 11:14-16 shows how the Edomites fought against Israel and lost. One person will be stronger than the other, the other will be stronger. Older age will serve the younger will know how The Edomites will be the subjects of Israel. 2-Samuel 8:12-14 discusses how David Killed The Edomites and In their power. 2 The 21:8-10 revolt against the power of Judah speaks of how The Adom. The small book of Abdiah is a prophecy of The Lord about Adom and Israel, basically saying that Israel will disappear from the last one standing and the first one will be in front of the earth. The last people of Adoom were destroyed by the Romans in AD 70 when they took Jerusalem and destroyed the temple of the Lord. Results: I'm not quite happy about the upcoming book we've already visited for the whole week. And the total is Hebrews-once again. Help. I didn't like 3b. It was duh for me. Appear. Isaac Was the choice of God to establish his people. And how is he going to do this ? I thought we'd pick up at 28:10. No matter what, I'm not looking forward to this week. For me, this is another fuller lesson. Or I'm too patient. All year I've been looking forward to Joseph. I'm ready. Let's go! End Note: Just being honest with these of you here, I'll be sure how bad I have and how I should leave or what-some of you have suggested. I do not know. I'm not a psychologist). How do I feel about this lesson? And I make no excuse for saying so. But look at this post. I'm still feeling about it. Because I believe god is something for me here that I see it or not or whether I feel like learning it or not. Summary of passage: 25:27-34: Eso stayed at home while he became a hunter. Isaac loved Rebekah, while Jacob loved him more. Eso sold his birth right for food, and he denied his birth right. Hebrews 12:11-17: The discipline is never pleasant but it creates a crop of righteousness and peace. Strengthen yourself. Do every effort to live in peace with others and be clean , that they may see the LORD with you . Make sure there is no suffering and bitterness, nor is there any sexual indecency or eso , because you were not holy . For Eso did not inherit his blessing after he had rejected him . Questions: 5a) Because Isso Isaac will bring the wild game. b) Personal question. My answer: It's hard to say because it's everything that is recorded by Isaac's love. Based on what we know, indirectly. If this is the only real reason, Isaac preferred, then he would be sorry to God (as we do). Maybe he wasn't approving his logic but we are human beings. We all make our choices whether we accept it or not. When we know we have a favorite, then what do we do. g) Such external actions did not appear. Show more love towards the undesirable. Made their best effort to play favorites and treat all sorts. d) Personal question. My answer: As c. It's not hard Play your favorites with your kids. As soon as you'll like the other shower with others. If children recognize the favorite, try extra to prove them at least otherwise. 6) In this case, you have received the promise of Hazrat Ibrahim that the nations have to bow to you, become the Lord of your brothers and all your relatives and others, and those who hate you will be given you blessings. The exception says that the first born should get a double part and is a sign of her father's power, God's mercy and mercy to bless them , which He chooses . [Note: I think it's a type in the parts. It should probably be Romans 9:14-15 but I will read all the Romans 9 for Eso and Jacob especially from 8-18.] 7a) No B) Highly likely. Abraham is rich , and there were many servants . I'm sure one of them was cooking something at the right time as well. Snacks? I'm sure some snacks were lying around. Or I believe that Eso ate his food or saved something. That is why they knew their birth right as a right . They took the easy route. a) He's a great man. He didn't care enough. He declared his birth right to hunger immediately. Seriously? If it's not hate, I'm not sure what that is. d) God knew everyone with this choice that Eso would make and that's why he promised Jacob that he was worthy of it. Isso is called The Daerea in 12:16. God himself says that he hated Eso, and he turned the mountain of Eso into Ausso into Austland, and left the legacy of Eso on The Jackalus (Malachi 1:3). This wheel is repeated by Paul in Romans 9:13. Lesson learned : God knows our hearts and he will give us what we deserve. The Romans say that, all things are through God's mercy and empathy, not our effort (Romans 9:15-16). Eso was not worthy of the right of birth, although he was right for it because of birth, so God took him from him. We must be able to be in God's eyes to receive his bravery. We should not have a heart for God and for ourselves. We have to choose in line with God's will and word. We should look for it and we don't need to be clever. God's needs. Not ours. Results: I don't know about you, but I don't want to hate God, as Wasso was. Can you imagine? We are said to hate anyone as little children. But God hated . So do we allow it ? Well hate is really rejected in this context. God loved or chosen Jacob. And he denied Esau . Our human emotions are not the same for God. I think that's not correlate with forgiveness and compassion though. We can hate someone but we still forgive their oppression and when the opportunity arises they feel compassion. But we don't like them or approve them. Because And he also gave blessing to Esau, who became the father of the Edomites. 33:9, 36) Despite his hard heart. As we should. Emotions are different from the knowledge of God's will. Great lesson for me! Like the great explanation of God's love and the way i hate here, of course, I have my son right on my girls. Because he is the youngest. I did it with all my kids who came together with him. But I'm conscious of it and I try all possible lye to hide it from my kids and shower my girls with extra attention. For I love them most . And I bet over time that my son becomes less needed it will change. End Note: Please read Romans 9. I think this lesson will be of greater value to you and you will know more that if you do, you are being tried by THE BSF. Last End Note: See ? I got something from this lesson, I didn't mention my doubts from yesterday. So just keep plugging away. God will show you what you need.
