[4] Gray's full-body appearance is the most prominent feature of Gray's spicy black hair. He has dark blue eyes, and his body is toned and muscular. [5] After a mission on Galuna Island, he received a scar on his forehead above his left eye partially covered by his hair. [6] He also had a cross-shaped scar on his lower abdomen received from using the SevenHirisan Dances: The Blood Version of Tenrou Island. [7] The expert setem is under his colar in his right pectoral muscle and is dark blue. [8] Unlike almost all other characters, Gray does not consistently wear the same type of clothing (i.e., when he wears several), although he is often shown wearing some type of white kot. [9] Still, the most consistent pieces of clothing are the necklaces, which resemble swords with stones inside, metal bracelets and chains attached to the coil of the belt on the right side of the outer. [10] After acquiring Ice Devil Slayer Magic from his father, he got a tattoo symbolizing Magic on his right arm. Following his entry into the Avatar cult, he seemed to put out his Fairytale sign, replacing it with the Avatar sign, but it turned out to be only on his black mark. [11] Gray's personality was re-presented, but it became serious when he called him. [13] He and Natsu have a friendly rivalry, and while they can often be seen fighting each other verbally or physically,[14] the two are actually somewhat concerned with each other. [16] Gray was somewhat appraised and was only as a child,[17] but over time, he has achieved a more cautious attitude towards life, and handled problems carefully. He is very worried about his friends and is completely loyal to his union, but tends to trash talk every now and then. [19] Also, he had a disturbing habit of unkindly removing his clothes (including the deepest) at inappropriate times. [21] Also, Gray is somewhat adept at acting as a bad guy, as shown in X792, when he infiltrates avatars at Erza's request, something that successfully prompts Briar to review Gray's desire for revenge against the E.N.D. both his soul and his skin. [22] Ais-Make Ais-Make Aisy Gray (氷の造古胎, アイスメイク Aisu Meiku): A form of Reference Magic that allows the user to create an ais at his permission and shape it into an object. In In case, he uses Static Ice-Make, which means he can shape his ice into a thing or an inantievous weapon. Ice Make is known as a very versatile form of magic, useful in combat, for offensive and defensive purposes, and beyond. Specializing in it and having been practicing it for years, Gray has extreme domination on it, capable of creating countless numbers of objects for various uses. Also, according to him, Ice-Make allows users to generate almost anything, giving users unmatched creation capabilities. [23] As an Ice-Make user, Gray is an individual who is resistant to cold and is therefore able to take damage from ice and snow-based attacks without suffering major injuries and is either completely immune to snow-based attacks such as Teamr Eve Snow Magic or more resilient to it than anyone else. [25] Gray can also freeze and reprimand Juvia, the current Water Magic user in its liquid form into various Ice-Made creations. [38] (Unnamed) Ice Make: Super Freezing Arrows: Using Geysers ice and stand on the resulting ice formation, Gray can rise to a high point to shoot his arrow; after shots, the arrow speed increases with gravity and air pressure, making these attacks far more dead than usual. [39] Ice-Make: Battle Axe (戦斧(バトルアックス) Batoru Akkusu): Gray created an axe from ice to a melee battle and swing it around. The first time he used this was against Juvia, but it wasn't effective. [40] Ice Make: Ice Swords Make: Swords: Gray creates swords from ice to melee battle. The sword is very durable, capable of cutting and queuing other weapons as if it were made of metal. [41] (Unnamed) Ice Make: Cold Excalibur (コールドエクスカリバー) Cōrudo Ecusukaribā): Gray creates a massive sword from ice to melee battle. Like its smaller version, the gun is very strong and sharp; In addition, the spark seems capable of leaving behind a huge wake of ice that can damage the opponents. [42] Ice-Make: Ice Bringer (氷魔剣(アイスブリンガー) Ice Buringā): Gray generated two ice swords in his hands and quickly moved them forward in the X-motion to slap his opponents. [43] Ice-Make: Ice Geysrer (氷欠泉(アイスゲイザー) Iceu Geizā): Freezing the ground in front of him, Gray created an ice spike tower that implies opponents, very damaging to them. The copy is very similar to it, which is revealed to be made of ice only after a close examination, caution, and thus useful to avoid enemy attacks or to create a distraction for Gray to attack itself. [47] Gray has demonstrated the ability to form at least two copies at a time. [48] (Unnamed) Ice Blade: Seven Sliced Dances (氷刃・七連舞 Hyōjin: Nanarenbu): After creating an ice blade that roamed back from both of its forearms, Gray displayed his sword quickly plaguing his enemy seven times. This is often used as a finishing step, causing heavy damage to the enemy. [49] Ice Make: Fireworks: Gray was able to shoot a small beam of ice from his hands, forming an ice fireworks that looked like snow in the sky. [50] Ice Make: Gray makes a ladder out of the ice, so that he can get to that could not be achieved before this. The stairs, despite the nature of the materials that made them up, do not appear to have slipped at all. The first time Gray used this was to look for Lyon. (Not named) [51] Ais Buat: Slaid: Grey slide from the ice, so that he can reach places that were unachievable before. The first time Gray used this was to find Lyon. [52] Ice-Make: Rampart (城壁(ランパード) Ranpādo): Gray creates a very large, high wall from ice, which can prevent his opponents in their tracks, but uses a lot of Magic. The first time Gray used this was to stop the Riders. [59] Ice-Make: Fishnet: Gray unleashes an ice breeze from his hands, which takes shape like a fishnet, and allows him to freeze his opponent. [60] Ice-Make: Ice-Made Wall: An alternative version of Ice-Made: Ice Geysrer, which freezes opponents rather than their impaling. Ice Make: Cocoa: Gray surrounds his body with ice cocoa, which has jutting spikes out, to protect himself from enemy attacks. It has the same purpose for Ice-Make: Shields, but protects Gray on each side instead of one. It's unknown, though, if this spell is durable like its standard partner. [61] (Unnamed) Ice Make: Ocean: Gray, after joining both of his hands, slammed them on a large water body, freezing him completely within seconds. The long branch of the hand allows Gray to sneak stealing items, such as small bottles, without the inauguration of the owner. [66] Ice-Make: Platform: Gray creates an ice platform that can be used to maintain its feet. Various platforms can be made, and can also be used as a way to give itself the necessary momentum to perform follow-up attacks that are [67] (Unnamed) Ice Make: Cannon (砲撃(キャン) Kyanon): Kyanon's small cannon grey craft, decorated from ice, for which he could use nearby rubble as a bullet to extinguish the fire against his target; multiple cannons can be created and fired Ais-Make: Ice Cannon (氷雪砲(アイス・キャノン) Aisu Kyanon): After creating a large, bazooka-like hand cannon, Gray fires a cannon made of ice to deal great damage to his opponent. [70] Ais-Make: Silver (界(シルバー) Shirubā): Summoning Ais Syaitan Slayer Magic, Gray enhances Ais-Buat's power. [71] Gesturing with his right hand, he was then able to freeze a large area in front of him. This spelling allowed him to easily freeze and destroy Ajeel Raml's Sand Golem. [72] Ais-Make: Juvia Freeze (ジュビアフリーズ Juvia Furizu): Gray froze Juvia's liquid shape while she was part of the Metro agency to be incapable. [74] Iced Shell Ais Magic grey breaker (氷のぬ買꟯ Little is known about Ais Magic, as there are only a few spellings used so far. A magical treasure, Gray is able to freeze objects he comes into contact with. Gray, with great mastery of ice spelling, has proven himself capable of freezing despite burning things like Juvia boiling water and Fukuro fire, and freezing objects faster than Rosa Espada Sugarboy can soften. [76] [77] Iced Shell (絶対氷結(アイスシェル) Aisudo Sheru): Gray also has knowledge of this forbidden magic, is extremely dangerous and powerful, and has expressed certainty that he can use it, if he is coerced. [78] Lost Iced Shell (消失絶対氷結(ロスト・アイスシェル) Rosuto Aisudo Sheru): Gray began this spelling by forming an establishment that would later create a large amount of Magic power to surround it[79] before being stopped by Natsu from activating it. [80] Gray's Instantaneous Freeze Ice Devil Slayer Magic (氷の滅 [82] Like other Slayers, Gray was able to take an outside source of the ais to increase his strength and increase his power and at the same time immunized him. [83] This form of magic is very powerful and effective against Satan. [84] Gray was given his father's magic following his defeat and departure. [85] For some diplomas, it seems that Shaitan Slayers has the ability to defy the curse (or at least the Muktamad Memento Mori Curse). [86] He has also that Satan Magic is a very changing magic, and the learning is too fast and using its properties in rapid succession has had an adverse effect on Gray, causing him to become stupid black marks that have so far spread across half his body on two occasions[87] however, Gray himself says that with some help Porlyusica, can control it. [88] He has become skilled enough in this Magic to be able to embody the enemy in the elevated ice cocoa, rolling it across the enemy field and manipulating it into a huge burst of ice within seconds. [89] Gray can also use this Magic to increase his Ice-Make power. [90] One of the most effective aspects of this type of Magic is its ability to freeze everything in a large radius with sheer wrist flick. [91] In one instance, Gray, who recently inherited His Father Silver's Magic, was able to freeze various wisters from Tempester who were in Etherious Form. [92] In the X792 after training, Gray was able to freeze solid people, as he pointed out when he froze Gōmon, before he could harm Lucy. [93] Satanic Ice Rage (氷魔の激昂 Hyōma no Gekikō): Gray removes a large beam of cold air, ice and snow from his mouth, directing it towards his target. The number of simple beams dwarfs Mard Geer, but Gray's spelling power is unknown because Mard can avoid easily. [94] Zero Length Sword Ice Devil (氷魔零(ゼロ)ノ太刀(タチ) Hyōma Zero no Tachi): Gray created a long sword from his palm that he used to plague his opponents with, inciting a deep cut into his opponent's body that severely damaged them and had an additional effect of plaguing his opponents by, inciting a deep cut into his opponent's body that severely damaged them and had additional effects Gray is shown using this spell shown strong enough to beat Etherious members and Nine Demon Gates Tempester in his Etherious Form with a single strike. [84] Ice Devil's Zeroth Destruction Bow (氷魔零(ゼロ)ノ破弓(ハキユウ) Hyōma Zero no Hakyū): Gray creates a complicated submission made of ice and arrow fire from him at high speed. When the arrows make contact, it turns into a variety of spicy ice that spoils the target body. The spell was shown to damage Tartaros' pseudo leader: Mard Geer Tartaros. [95] Ice Devil's Zero Destruction Fist (氷魔・零(ゼロ)ノ破拳(ハケン) Hyōma Zero no Haken): Gray, After using Ice-Make to form ice from Invel's True-Ice Kamui, creating a pair of loudly damaging gauntlets with the same nature as the aforementioned spelling, and using it for the cruelty of its targets. [96] I!! Stop You (オレが止めてやる Ore ga Tomete Yaru): Gray creates an ice circle barrier, following up with an ice shark attack on [98] Unison Raid Unison Raid (Unison Raid) Yunizon Reido): Kelabu mampu menggunakan ini ini even though he only did it with Juvia until now. &amp;Water; Ice Make Spelling: Gray and Juvia are able to combine their Magic together, causing large amounts of water and ice needles to erupt across Magnolia City, while forever destroying the Daphne Lizardmen. [15] Shotto Gan's shotgun (ショットガン Shotto): Gray uses water provided by Juvia in conjunction with Ice-Make Magic to strengthen water, which is then intended for targets and is released as sharp and thick ice spears. [99] Nebula Water &amp;; Ice-Make: Ice Geysrer (水流昇轟(ウォーターネブラ)+氷欠泉(アイスゲイザー) Wōtā Nebura + Iceu Geizā): Juvia and Gray hold hands and combine spellings of Juvia Water and Gray-made Ice spellings to attack their targets. [100] Ice waves (氷結海嘯(アイス ウーブ) Ice Uēbu): Gray uses water provided by Juvia in conjunction with Magic Ice To strengthen water, create large waves of sharp ice spans, hit its targets and freeze it in the process. [101] Specialist Weapons Specialist: Gray has displayed great capabilities in widening weapons produced by Ice-Made spelling. He is very adept at swords with ice swords built of various shapes and sizes, and is also more than capable of surrounding other types of knife weapons. She has also shown to be a adept at marksmanship, using her ice bow to shoot arrows from a great distance with pinpoint accuracy. [41] Hands-to-Hand Battle Experts: Gray had great skills in hand-to-hand battles, first shown seriously when, despite his grieving wounds, he managed to overwhelm Lyon when the latter angered him in battle.[102] and was generally displayed in a comic way during his scuffles with Natsu. He was able to wrap up strong shots and twists, and he often used unsynced battles in conjunction with Ice-Made spells to get the upper hand in combat. Gray was able to defeat the Lord Thunder faction in his own unsold battle. [103] Enhanced durability: Gray has also displayed incredible resilience during the battle. He managed to keep fighting after being beaten by boiling water, he survived the stolen fire attack Fukuro, and endured several dozen energy explosions from the Bickslow doll before exiting. [104] [105] [106] He also took an explosion from four lightning runners from the Thunder Palace, despite having just recovered from a previous injury. [107] Enhanced Agility: Gray has shown on different occasions to be very fast and agil. During a battle with Bickslow in the hallway, he displayed enough acrobatic speed and strength to move a few metres in the air by jumping from one wall to another. it is also able to avoid some racer attacks although the speed is overwhelming. [108] Gray was able to defeat the Lord Thunder faction in quick succession and quick enough to move behind Bickslow and Evergreen before he noticed. [109] Enhanced Gray has proven himself to have great physical strength, having been shown capable of lifting large amounts of large wooden beams all of his own, although later crushed underneath due to disorder. [110] He was also able to lift Lucy while the two were trapped in traps like quickly and threw them a few metres in the air.[111] as well as breaking the stone wall section with a single punch side. [112] Gray was able to gain substantial increase in his strength enough to defeat the Lord Thunder Faction. [113] Miniature Communication Lacrima Equipment (小型通信魔水晶(ラクリマ) Kogata Tsūshin Rakurima)[114]: Gray uses this device to communicate with Erza while performing an undercover mission. [115] Former Artificial Keys Equipment: Red Shoes: Gray had to wear it so he took part in a dance battle with Cancer. [117] Loves Trivia Gray including interesting things. His discrepancies include Natsu. [1] Gray boxers are longer in the anime, and usually always black, unlike manga. [5] When Gemini turned into Gray and the Angels gathered information about Lucy from his mind, Lucy's Gray opinion was as follows: Newcomers to the association, pretty damn cute, possessed some skills. More naive than he appeared, and the wizard of the celestial spirit. [119] He was seen smoking in the first few chapters of manga. [120] This is not seen or mentioned in the anime. Gray is ranked first on Meredy's Most Important People to Kill list. [122] Hiro Mashima has admitted that he forgot how he named Gray. [123] Attacking Power 4/5 Defensive Power 4/5 Speed 4/5 Intelligence 3/5 Nudity 5/5 In Volume 32 supplementary Content, Mashima provides battle statistics for 31 of the 40 X791 participants in the Great Magic Games. The statistics, however, were given not from a mashima standpoint as a writer but from the point of view of the Sorcerer Magazine reporter, Jason. That explains why some of the statistics are missing and why others might not be accurate. According to Jason of Sorcerer Magazine, during his participation in the Great Magic Games X791, Gray's statistics are:[124] Gray stated that since he bears the Mark of Fairy Tail, he has never lost to the same opponent twice. [125] A wreath grey dress was supposed to be Rave. but after bouncing around Gray's idea of becoming the 10th Lord of Rave among others, Mashima eventually rejected the idea. [126] Gray was originally planned to become Ice Dragon Slayer, but it was eventually rejected. Around tenrou Island arc, Mashima toyed with the idea again before finally settling in Gray becoming Slayer Devil's Ice shortly before she started writing the Grand Magic Games. [127] Quotes (To Kageyama) Everything does not have to be decided by life and death, think about the future for once. [128] (To Erza) I'll do what I want until the end. Cut me if want to. [129] (For Lucy) I don't care where I get hurt, while my injuries can be seen. [130] (To Juvia) Sorry, but no matter if you are a woman or even a child. [133] (For The Edolas) Expert) Don't be a glum, you can't have a guild without the Magic you say? As long as you have friends, you will always have a union.
