Sonic cd trophy guide

We recently saw the release of the first two Sonic games on Playstation 3. They have been described by many as extremely difficult. Most of them were due to the requirement of no death, in addition to very quickly beating the game. This made it much easier for many of them to quit. Sonic CD changes the rules a bit. With easier requirements, but adding much more tedious tasks. Although there is no way to avoid all tedious; This guide should make it much simpler for everyone! Bronze88 mph travel in time. When you run through a sign of the past or future, you will be able to travel back in time. This is done for a long period without interrupting and getting a few flashes behind you. If you do this long enough without being detained, you will travel. This should happen by accident, although you can check out our First Five video for more information. All you need is one hug from Amy. This can be obtained in several places, although most of them are quite cumbersome. The last place is during the fight with the boss Metal Sonic. Here you will 100% get a hug and a trophy. Paradise Found Complete zone in Good Future. Each zone has 3 acts. The first and second include Metal Sonic projectors and teleporters in the past. These elements lead to the doom/gloom of the future can be seen in boss battles. However, if you destroy these items in the past, it will bring a good future. The game will also say it's a good future. If you do this for the second act, the boss fight will change. Beyond gloomy it will turn into a very lively scene. It gives you a trophy. Additionally, getting a stone every time automatically gives you a good future, no matter what you do. Take the High Road Pass top signpost in Collision Chaos 2. At the very end you will see a huge ramp. This is seriously seconds from the literal end. In any case, if you have enough speed (run with X + Up), you can get serious air. Ideally you'll get enough to go past the red spring and the top of the platform above. Statue of the Savior Find a statue of an angel in a Wacky Workbench. In the past, there are some things that are different. One thing is that there is a hidden room in the middle of the map. This room is located at the bottom and is a normal ground. If you run up the ramp here, you will find a statue. It is also important to remember how constantly entering the room gives rings. About four trips will give you 200 rings. Heavy Metal Defeat Metal Sonic without injury. Your goal is quite simple, but still difficult. The best way to do this is to always have an edge and wait for it to run. This will usually remove any problems besides making it predictable. At the end of the floor will change. This is your signal to go on the next ch back. Here you can get serious from above. If everything is done well, well, Dr. Eggman Got Served Destroy Dr. Eggman's final machine. Just beat the campaign. No time stones or anything fancy is required. SilverKing rings collect 200 rings. There are two methods for this and both use the past. You can destroy the opponent's teleporter. It will destroy every enemy on the map and give you time to find everything or you can find a secret statue. More information about the monument can be found in the Statue of the Savior. All stages clear! Complete the game. It's the same as Dr. Eggman Got Served, but here are some tips though. Each boss has a hidden 1 out you can get once in a lifetime. This makes it impossible to fail on the boss. The steps set in the past are easier. You're in no hurry, so take your time if you need to. Besides, Sonic CD is extremely easy to do. Just in time! Complete time attack mode in less than 25 minutes. Okay this is a trophy breaking game. Personally, I found doing a solid run on the first attempt was almost as much. After that I just reworked two areas for my trophy. As a general rule, it is to move forward and know what to expect. It sounds harder than it really is. The best thing to do is compare the times. Below you can find my pathetic times. Planet Savior Destroy all robot teleporters and Metal Sonic holograms in the past. It needs to be done in one cycle and can be very annoying. The general idea is to go back to the past and find these items, but most of them are in very obvious places. If you have problems, just check zone :0. GoldTreasure Hunter collect all the stones of time. It's so simple that it's almost ridiculous. First you need to get 50 rings, which can be difficult, but in no way impossible. In general, if you don't do this by the time you see the goal sign, just close and try again. After that you will need to destroy each UFO on the stone. It can be difficult because water will destroy your time. The overall thumb run is to play until you're down to 15 seconds. If you're sure you can't win, close. This will allow you to try again endlessly. Keep in mind that the stones are fine, but the order does not change from your failures. So if you miss stone 5, it will go 6 > 7 > 5.
