Unlocking the entire history content in Persona 4 Golden can be a minefield. One wrong move and you'll miss out on both extra story and gameplay. The problem is that if you start looking for this kind of thing, then it probably won't be long before you've ruined the surprises, and you may still be confused about exactly what you need to do (especially how many guides only cover unlocking for the PS2 version of Persona 4). So here it is, a spoiler free guide that will make sure you get the most out of Persona 4: Golden on your first pass. Before we proceed I'm going to outline different things that can be unlocked as it will be a bit confusing if you don't know that the true ending and epilogue are completely different things. Here are four basic things you probably want to do and don't want to miss: Hollow Forrest: By maxing out Marie's social connection you'll unlock an extra dungeon (which is super hard) as well as some extra stories. It's worth doing and all this content is exclusive to the PS Vita version of the game. True Ending: Right before the game ends you need to talk to everyone who has the social links you have maxed out. At this point you need to make some strange options (details below) that result in both a little more gameplay and an extended end. Super Secret Boss: It's only available on the second passage, and requires you to max out Margaret's social connection. The boss this unlocks by far is the most challenging task in the game and can be easily missed. To face it you will need to take the extra step while going down the way to the true end. Epilogue: Another exclusive for Persona 4: The Golden, Epilogue is an additional story that takes place after the true ending. To unlock this (and you really should, it's great), you need to complete both Hollow Forrest and reach the true end. You don't, however, have to fight the super secret boss, which is handy as it means you can do it on your first pass. So here's what you need to do: 1) Max out the right social connections. That means Marie for Hollow Forrest and Margaret for the secret boss. Marie's social connection can be unlocked on or after April 18 by talking to her in a velvet room. You can spend time with her on Wednesday and weekends, although you can't get the last rank of 5 until July 24 or after. This should be completed by the end of the year, but don't worry if you think you will be working out of time as it becomes available every day once you reach December. If you are going after Margaret for an extra boss you will need to be on the second pass, so already need to know what you need to do. 1.5) Or at max from one social connection. If you can't be concerned about Hollow Forrest but still want a true ending, then make sure you max out at least one one link or you won't be able to unlock it. It's pretty easy though and shouldn't cause you much trouble. 2) Complete Hollow Forrest. Most other guides seem to break it down into three or four steps, but there's really no need. As long as you max out Marie's social connection you have nothing to worry about. You won't miss this extra dungeon. There are a few extra scenes in January and then mid-February Margaret will call you... 3) Don't get a regular end. When you get near the end of the game the easiest mistake you can make is to go home as soon as you talk to everyone (which will help you regular ending). This happens on March 20 when you go to town and have to talk to everyone who has the social connections you have maxed out. Once you've done this the game will ask you if you want to go back to your house and prepare for tomorrow and you have to say NO 4) Search for the truth. Next go to June where you will be again told to return to your home. Pick NO, I'm not finished yet, and then yes. Finally chosen to eat something missing and watch the scene that follows. After that, go to the river bank and talk to the characters you will meet there. 5) Go to the velvet room (twice). Then go to the Velvet Room to get a special item from Igor. If you want to run into a super secret second-playthrough only boss, then once you leave turn around and return to the velvet room where Margaret will give you another item. 6) Talk to a woman. I'm not going to say who, it's going to ruin it, but at this point it should be obvious what to do next. 7) Super secret boss fight. Now this is the point where you can fight the secret boss. The point Margaret gave you tells you where to go. Good luck with that, you'll need it. 8) Search... Either after you've talked to a person or after you've fought a super secret boss you'll be ready for the final part of the game. Talk to Rise and chose Search.... The rest is a given. 9) Enjoy the extended ending. Seriously, this mind is blowing how much amazing content was hidden at the end of Persona 4: Golden. If you've followed these steps so far, then there's nothing to worry about, there's nothing you can miss now, so enjoy the rest of the game! And that's it.
