DarkHorrorGames is a website dedicated only to horror online games. We don't care about zombies or monsters unless they bring in the atmosphere of pure evil and a sticky sense of blood and absolute horror. Online games give you a glimpse at what older rated console games are. So, what makes a horror game scary? Online horror games are slightly more popular now because they are severely understaffed in the PC and games console world. Horror games are almost no existence because most horror buildings are co-opted into action games. Apparently, hunting aliens or genetic mutations is no longer a topic for scary games, and is simply used as an excuse for another action game. There have been some scary games in the past. Silent Hill 1 and 2 were frightening, as were the early Resident Evil games, with Resident Evil 4 winning all the prizes. Dead Space has its moments, just like Manhunt. What's so scary about horror games? With games like Manhunt, it's probably the pure violence. With Slender (the 3D versions) it's the eerie feeling to be followed. With the Resident evil games, it's the silent arena that makes those scary moments more shocking. Plus, most of the Resident evil games put you up against increasingly difficult enemies with less and less ammo. Silent hill 1 and 2 were the scariest, partly due to the difficult handle controls, the feeling of isolation, the very scary sounds and music, and the general lack of visibility. Other games have tried to revisit this by not allowing the user to see the floor, but it didn't recreate what Silent Hill 1 and 2 managed to achieve. Are scary online games hit and miss? Yes, they are. But, it always seems to be the ones that show you too much that the biggest losers are. Even with a point-and-click game, if you only show a quick flash of possible something, then it's better than the severed head in the paper basket. The pop-up scary jokes in the games are okay, but they get tired for the more hardcore horror gamer. It's the ones that tease you more that are the best, like if you click on a picture to take a look, and you think you'll see the little girl in the photo blinking. WARNING: Some images in games on this website may be disturbing to you. However, there is no risk or personal/emotional investment, so if you see something you just close the window. UPDATE: As a result of the increased in the escape games I decided to start a new project entitled Cool Escape Games, which contains not only horror, but also all other types of escape games, such as house, prison and room escape Play @ schools: Because schools block access to flash gaming sites I decided to start experimenting project with https://unblocked-games-central.com/ which hopefully avoids school servers restrictions Spēlēt šīs interesantas briedžošu aizbē spēles.
