Here are what other countries call Santa Claus Remember that Christmas is not about Santa, or whatever name it goes by, as mentioned below, but it's about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Jesus was born, died, and rose from the dead so that we could live. Christmas is about the birth of our Savior. Remember that our God never changes as you can see Santa Claus changing depending on where you live, like his appearance, but the God who sent his Son for us never changes. In the United States, he's a fat guy in red. In another country it is slim and green. I'm glad my God doesn't change like this fictional character known as Santa Claus. I have even read in some Asian countries, wearing blue. Just a message, we also heard Santa called Kris Kringle that is German for Christ's child. Also Santa in Spain means Saint. Plus St. Nick or St. Nicholas is the real person and who we get Santa Claus from. He was a religious man, a bishop. The man behind the man's bee, St Nicholas Both Canada and Finland say they are the homes of Santa. Check out this list of over 70 santa names worldwide. #SantaClaus Click on christ's tweet from Christmas Yes, today it seems to be Christ from Christmas, with things like Santa Claus and stuff. We are losing the true meaning of what Christmas is all about... the birth of our Savior. Born of a virgin, he lived a sinless life. Jesus Christ dutifully died on the cross to save us from our sins. He got up, a few days later, and now he sits at the right hand of the Father interceding for us. Christmas Story Some Country Santa arrives December 24, Christmas Eve or early morning on Christmas Eve on December 25. In other countries comes January 6, the Day of Revelation of the Lord. I even read where in Serbia comes to CHRISTmas Eve. The Day of Revelation of the Lord (The Three King's Day) The name is not mentioned? See the name for Santa Claus that's not mentioned?
