Fall for Kids Fall Let Autumn Lesson Plans Autumn Math Fall Play Fall Puzzles Fall Understanding Fall Science Project Autumn Word Finds Autumn Writing Find More Teaching Resources I'm so excited to have a set of hidden autumn picture worksheets to share with you! Hidden images are a favorite here at Hill House, and this fall set has been coming a long time. In fact, most of it was completed last fall, but I never got to publish it. After my favorite editor, almost 8 years old, checked the set of worksheets for errors, they're finally ready to go! This autumn hidden image spreadsheet package was written for preschoolers, Kindergartners and young first graders. Each image in this 13-page package has a different drop-themed configuration. Your children will find 10 small items in each worksheet, including numbers, letters and everyday images. While your kids won't need a magnifying glass to find the little photos, it would be a fun bonus added!♥ We've had this set of magnifying glasses for years and use them almost weekly for something! That's my affiliate link. Use these hidden image worksheets in your centers, for the first finishers, and even funny sheets to get into a backpack. If you use them at home, they're perfect for your younger students while working with seniors. Either take a set for the kitchen table while you make dinner, or put a few in your bag for a waiting room. Note: There are no Halloween images included in this set. In this set of autumn hidden image worksheets, You'll find: → bank of the fallero park out of town → Pick apples in an orchard → patch of sunny sunflower → Scarecrows and pumpkins on a hillside → Tractor with hay bales → Boy Boy in pumpkin patch → Boy and girl doing a scarecrow → Boy and girl having an autumn picnic → Fall on the farm → Autumn trees on a city street → pumpkin patch by a dirt road → Windy, autumn scene with 'Autumn' sign word art → pumpkin patch in front of an old barnNote that this package is for personal use or classroom use for 1 teacher only. Hidden Pictures Online Games by Highlights Kids I know it's not autumn yet, but I'm looking forward to it so much that I thought it's never too early to start celebrating the most beautiful season of the year! These pages of hidden autumn image activities are super cute and have fun autumn artwork like squirrels, foxes, hedgehogs, and lots of kids raking leaves. These worksheets are ideal for preschoolers and kindergarteners who can get frustrated by more difficult hidden image puzzles. They can color the entire page when all the elements are found, or simply color the shapes as they find them. Our hidden image puzzles are some of the most popular of all time on our site. They teach attention to detail, shape recognition, and help develop fine motor skills in preschoolers. We have more like this in our Hidden Pictures for Kids PDF package!
