Soon back graphic adventures for adults have been constantly released since the genre first appeared. Among the most popular ones we should undoubtedly mention is the Sierra Classic Leisure Larry suit, where it had to help a strange character run down to make it great in the clubbing world. It became a big hit at the end of the 80s thanks to its graphics that made the most of the VGA 256-color graphics cards, giving way to the prolific Larry saga. Those of us who were lucky enough to play point-and-click graphic adventures at the time and who have already been overtaken by genres and other styles in the world of adventure games, usually welcome any new game that is inspired by this same gameplay although the truth is that on Android it's not exactly the same because we can't use our mouse. A classic graphical adventure for good adults. Summertime Saga is funded by Patreon and that has come to revive those graphical adventures for adults in the title that we can download both in APK format for Android in versions for Windows and Mac computers. With a graphic that reminds us of Japanese Menga, although adapted to Western audiences, it's a story in which the protagonist character has to deal with the murder of his father while he lives a normal life at school. Well, not exactly normal, but she lives by half-naked women surrounded by curves that disobey the laws of physics, which is why it's for adults because there are a few situations that require points as 18+. It's very hard to see who killed your father with a lot of distractions according to the gameplay, we're talking about a point-and-click adventure with a first-person perspective where we can interact with different elements in the scenario (open, pick up, handle...) , talking to other characters from Judith, Roxy or Jenny, moving around the settings... At all, it's not the best graphic adventure in history (that honor probably belongs to monkey island secret or tentacle day) but it's perfectly decent. However, we can't be too happy with the fact that it's going to show semi-naked women to attract a possible audience. Audience.
