Sort by: Home / Location / City / Tuba City located in the painted dessert, Tuba City is a great base for exploring both former hospital, Tuuvi, which has become friendly to the First Mormon sector. The Navajo has been living in the area since around 1892, refers to it as Nane Nane Dizi, which means tanglede, dispersed or drag water - a reference to the many water sources below the surface. Just five miles outside of town compare your shoe size to train dinosaurs preserved in sandstone that dates back 200 million years. Two remote canyons, Minor Coal and Hahonogeh, are reminded of the Grand Canyon, but without the crowd. Plan a visit during sunrise or sundown for sky hits. The Historical Trading City Trading Post, dated 1905, sells Native American sandpaints Indians, drugs, jewelry, and pottery for the serious collector and the souvenir shop. The Navajo Interactive Museum is an excellent introduction to the country, language, history, cultural, and life ceremony of the Navajo Interactive Museum is an excellent introduction to the country, language, history, cultural, and life ceremony of the Navajo people, as well as patriotism in World War II Code II Code. And while in town, don't pass the chance to try traditional dishes like mutton broth and fried bread. Tuba City lies adjacent to the hopi villages of Upper and Lower Moenkopi and both local shared restaurants, accommodation, and other travel services. On the downtown Tuba side, travelers can enjoy their usual fast food offerings alongside the Hogan Restaurant (located in the Tuba City Trading Post) and China Star Buffet, a Chinese restaurant located next to the Supermarket in Bashas' restaurant. The Upper Village of Moenkopi owns and operates Moenkopi Legacy's Nann & amp; Powder Suite, Experience Tours Hopi, a 24-hour restaurant and 24 hour Tuvil Travel Center on US Highway 160.
