Students here are improving their learning below the annual average. ... Many of these schools have below-average results in serving disadvantaged students, and students perform below average on state tests. Large disparities in absenteeity exist at this school, which is worrying. Students at this school are making less academic progress than last year, compared to similar students in the state. Low progress with low test scores means... that students are starting from a low point and falling further than their colleagues. Parent tips Test scores at this school are lower than the state average. This suggests that most students at this school may not be performing at the grade level. Parent tips Noticed something lacking or confusing? Fairness Disadvantaged students at this school may lag far behind other students in the state, and this school may have a large achievement gap.
