Officers and Chief Petty Officers (E-7 to E-9) will wear a new khaki service uniform with jacket. The wearer will align the ribbons on a ribbon bar in precedence. Wear military ribbons from right to left depending on the order of priority. Thread each ribbon on a ribbon bar from bottom to top by using the low-priority ribbon first. Line each ribbon in accordance with the uniform regulatory medals Order of Chart. Wear 1/4 inch-centered ribbons above your pocket. The ribbon bar as two landmarks with studs on the back bar to keep the bar in position. Align the bar above the pocket, pushing the landmarks into the jacket or shirt. Use pins to secure pinpoints. Once the fastening points of the ribbon bar have their studs secure, the bar will not move or fall. Wear ribbons on a woman's shirt centered on the left side. The placement of the ribbon bar should fall 6 1/4 cm down the front seam of the shirt. Measure from the shoulder seam down to put the ribbon bar centered and level. Once placed, the push bar is fixed to the shirt material and fastened with studs on the back. Wear ribbons on the khaki jacket of an officer or boss above the left pocket of the breasts. Center the 1/4 inch ribbon bar above the jacket pocket. Once placed, the push bar is fixed in the jacket material and fastened with studs on the back. This applies to both women and men.
