Almost like a clockwork, this time, right between summer and autumn, has tons of sales from the stores ready to rid their shelves of summer items and replace them with dainty autumn alternatives. But unlike sundresses and tank tops, the jeans that are marked around this time are perfect for wearing all year round. The first of many jeans sales is underway – and it could be the cheapest of the year. At the moment at Old Navy, you can find jeans halfway and as low as 15 dollars (that's two Chipotle burrito bowls). Not only are they affordable, they are also perfect in style for this autumn. Better yet, Old Navy men's and women's jeans come in virtually any size, including large and dainty sizes for women and large and large sizes for men. Whether you're boot cut and durable for workdays or flared and trendy for special occasions, these jeans are perfect for autumn weather. (Photo: Old Navy) Darkwashed jeans are an essential tool for autumn fashion. As you can see in the photo, darker jeans make brown shoes and white shirts pop, and they are the perfect compliment to flannel shirts. The straight fit of these jeans makes them comfortable yet flattering and shows the shape of your legs without clinging to them. For colder days, the straight-legged jeans have a perfect boot cut, making it easy for the floor to stick or hang without getting wet with rain or snow.
