Search Similar Items by S&A Feedback Category SIII:Multiplae Ultratus Intro Screen Swords and Sandals 3 Multiplae Ultratus is an online multiplayer version of Ultratus Solo. People all over the world create characters, flatten them and pit their gladiators against others in real time battles. Contents[show] Difference Edit Swords and Sandals Multiplae Ultratus has the same character as Solo Ultratus. Automating character development is also available. From Ultratus Solo automaton boss has eyes lit up and mouth, this is changed in multiplayer version. Other characters still exist and only one character character has been added which is automaton. Gameplay Edit Game is very similar to the Solo version of Ultratus, however, in the original you fought with CPU gladiators and AI while here you fight with other players. You may lose gold, but you won't lose XP. You also have limited time to decide what actions you will take. The level and difficulty is not a problem here, unlike in Ultratus Solo. Even if only a few people are playing this at the moment, and you can't go any further than Level 13 in the demo version, what you can't do is attack the Champions Arena. Sometimes you go first, sometimes your opponent is first. EditPura's Strategy and Tactics is Solo Ultratus, and the best way to improve your character is to put skill points into Vitality, Strength or Intelligence. Bug Edit If you idle online for a minute or so, the game will act strange and crash. You'll need to refresh the page to play again. Unaddressed progress will be lost.
