Brigham's ice cream shop

Shaking 14 of 15 Virginia: Doumar's, Norfolk, Virginia First Lick: 1907 Fun Fact: It was at 1904 st. Louis World Fair that the first ever ice cream cone was invented by no one other than Abe Doumar a few years later, he opened his shop and installed his signature waffle cone machine and you'll also come across an 89-year-old Aldumar that has a unique flavor: they like to keep things simple at Doumar's with only six flavors — chocolate, vanilla, strawberries, pecan butter, orange sherbet, and lemonchert — help them do well. Try this recipe: Lemon Mascarpone Sherbet 15 of 15 Montana: Cole's Drug, Big Timber, MT First Lick: 1935 Fun fact: This little soda fountain retains the original interior and fixtures, including their first counter seat with red stools. It is the only original soda fountain left in Montana. Signature list: Sunday Huckleberry The sweet sauce and tart are made from northern fresh sauce, where huckleberries are doused over vanilla ice cream along with whipped cream, beans, and cherries. Try this recipe: Sunday berries with bitter chocolate sauce.
