Following the launch of the new CR-V SUV at the end of July, the new Honda City 2021 is now considered the name that supporters of Japanese automakers are waiting for. This model debuted globally in Thailand earlier this year with lots of attractive improvements. Currently, some Honda City 2021 and have received deposits. Most likely, Honda City 2021 will be introduced in Vietnam as early as October and assembled to support a 50% registration tax for customers. Entering the new generation, Honda City has been replaced by a new chassis platform with dimensions (DxRxC) of 4,553 x 1,748 x 1,467 mm + base length of 2,589 mm with a roaring range of 135mm, 15 mm lower than the older generation. The Honda City 2020 may have a shorter base length than the old version (2600 mm), but it's still slightly better than many competitors in the B-class sedan segment. Meanwhile, the interior space is arranged appropriately, bringing spacious, comfortable for both drivers and passengers. Notable interior features include an 8-inch advanced touchscreen with Apple CarPlay and Siri Voice Control, a multi-information display (MID). Honda City has for the first time a new version of the RS, sportier and more advanced. The RS has a glossy black front thermal grille with rs logo, sports front bumper, LED headlights with LED light stripe, LED fog lamp, integrated cement electric mirror, shiny black rear wing with RS logo, 16 inch alloy sports bike. The cabin also has differences with suede seats with red lines and a red exterior designed for the RS version. The vehicle will use a 1.0L DOHC 3-cylinder VTEC TURBO engine, for a maximum power of 122 horsepower at 5500 rpm, a maximum torque of 173 Nm at 2000 to 4500 rpm, a maximum torque of 173 Nm at 2000 to 4500 rpm, a maximum torque of 173 Nm at 2000 to 4500 rpm. This engine is not only stronger than the previous 1.5, but the fuel consumption is also very impressive 4.2 liters / 100 km. City 2020 is also more environmentally friendly in meeting EURO 5 emission standards and CO2 emissions of only 99 g/km. In addition, driving at the wheel also helps to bring emotions to the driver. City 2020 has advanced safety technologies including G-CON (G-Force Control) body design, 6 airbags, ABS brakes, electronic EBD brake force allocation, VSA body stabilization, horizontal HSA departure support and multi-angle rear camera. The price of Honda City 2021 according to dealers revealed about 580 million - 620 million of the regular version on the RS. Kienthuc This event has not yet begun. Stay tuned!
