The swimming controls press the arrow up to jump and the diving down arrow. Use left and right arrows to move left and right. The climbing controls tap the left and right arrows to jump between the sides of the canyon. Prepare..... Quack! Set.... Quack! Move..... Quack! Duck Life 3 is a fun upgrade, strategy and skill-based racing game where your challenging goal is to coach cute little ducks as proficient and versatile athletes! In this hilarious and wildly eccentric sequel to the funny Duck Life series, you'll need to slowly increase your duck's running, climbing, swimming, and flying skills through a good performance in 4 different mini-games that serve as rigorous training sessions (while testing their quick reactions with skillfully tapping the keyboard). Once the determined duck is ready to take on the big boys, you can enter him in an increasingly test-competitive tournament race. As with physical fitness and athletics training, you can't expect immediate results. You can't actually control a small prodigy during competitive action, and this puts even more emphasis on quality training! Working really hard, absolute determination, excellent strategy, quality preparation are the main ingredients to unlock the potential of a humble duck. Finally, dexterity keyboard tapping technology and quick reflexes are tested to the maximum during the 4 taxable mini-games. Okay, let's coach, good luck! How to play: The ultimate goal is to transform a cute yellow duck from a novice athlete with low property levels to top-notch runners, swimmers, hikers and flyers. Once your duck's skills At the very end of the scale, you can participate in competitive races. To increase the duck's talent level, click the 'Train' option on the main dashboard screen. Here you can choose to play one of four mini-games: running, flying, swimming or climbing. In each side scrolling mini-game, surviving for as long as possible increases exp points/level-ups for certain talents. In 'Running Training', the duck jumps over a round edit as it approaches the right side of the game screen (tap the maximum arrow on your computer keyboard to jump). In 'climbing training', the duck must automatically climb a steep cliff face, leaping from one side to the other to avoid shelves and other obstacles (use the left and right arrow keys to jump from one side of the cliff to the other). In 'swimming training', the duck will automatically paddle but you need to avoid obstacles by diving underneath and jumping on top of it (arrow up). In 'Flight Training', ducks are fired through the air, and you'll need to be in the air for as long as possible using the up and down arrow Keys.At at the beginning of the game, and you can choose an already proficient duck (level 50) from one of the four disciplines. This gives you the opportunity to focus on the other 3 skills of training. When the duck reaches a good level overall, you can enter him in race mode (unfortunately, you can't control your duck's movement). Use coins from good race performances to buy 'seeds' on the main dashboard screen. These seeds increase the energy levels of the ducks, which means they can last longer in the race.
