About the Ministry of Youth and Sport: Minister of State-MoS (Independent Charge)- Kiren Rijiju AC Team The Professional Corporation have received two more nominations in the Sports Business Awards in the new Innovation categories Coronavirus. It was announced in May that the William Hill World Darts Championship had received recognition for the fourth consecutive year with preselection in the Best Sporting Event of the Year and Best Business Team categories. The unique conditions around the sporting world in 2020 led to the introduction of further categories in relation to the Covid-19. The PDC Home Tour has been pre-selected in the Coronavirus Innovation Award: Communication category, having run in three months during the lockdown to provide live streaming competitive darts from players' homes. The ADC Summer series, held in July in Milton Keynes as the PDC returned to the competition in person with five one-day Players Championship events, has been pre-selected in the Coronavirus Innovation Award: Protection category. The winners of the Sports Business Awards will be announced on Wednesday, December 16th during a virtual awards ceremony. PDC has previously received the Best Business Team award in 2018 and the Best Match (or Game) Day Experience in 2019 to recognize the success of the World Championship at Alexandra Palace. The deadline for submitting applications is 11 March 2020. All the information you need for each of the four categories, including what the judges will be looking for in Category 1 – Outstanding Achievement Performance In This SVG Europe recognises a sports production that has provided excellent live coverage for viewers and/or media partners and has crossed the line of sports broadcasting. Estimates include the overall quality of production and storytelling; innovative use of new technologies; and lasting impact of new production techniques. The event could be a multi-day tournament or event, a season championship or a single match, contest or contest. This category covers all sports related to live programming, regardless of the size, type or frequency of the sport. *Qualifying period: The sporting event, tournament, championship or match must have taken place between 1 January 2019 and 31 December 2019 and have been publicly broadcast by a broadcaster or internet service. Proof tests of the idea or development tests will be taken into account where necessary, but coverage of the main event, championship or match must be made available to a general viewing audience. Key Criteria A sporting event, championship or match held within the qualifying period and aired live on a broadcast channel or online service coverage that can demonstrate both excellence and impact in the wider industry Prerequisites Judges would like to see a clip (or clip) of the broadcast that best records the achievement of the production or achievements. Submit only one clip (or clip) up to 15 minutes, cumulatively. If you submit more than that, please be aware that judges will only watch the first 15 minutes. Highlights or sizzle reels will only be accepted if they show achievement or achievements clearly and obviously. In addition: When submitting video clips, please note any third party details or participation that are not part of your participation. E.g. a host or a global food. The judges will look for entries that: demonstrate how innovative or different the coverage was compared to the existing industry production show how the coverage or techniques used have (or will) help transform sports production, distribution or viewing describe the challenges or problems faced by the parties involved and how they were overcome in order to provide viewers with Category 2 coverage – Excellent OTT Experience The OTT Exceptional Experience Award is awarded to an OTT sports or streaming service, a function or application that in the opinion of the judges takes advantage of digital and personalization to offer a viewing or user experience that is more interesting than the traditional broadcast alone. Estimates include the design and ease of use. improvements in production; innovation in visibility or engagement. Fitness period: The service, feature or application must be available between 1 January 2019 and 31 December 2019 and be publicly available. Proof-of-concept tests or development tests will be taken into account, where appropriate, but the main service, service, or the application in the entry must have been made available to a wide viewing audience. Basic Criteria A digital sports service or app that was publicly available within the qualifying period and provides an experience that exceeds standard pre-required TV views Judges would like to see a clip (or clip) from the service or feature that best captures achievement or achievement. Submit only one clip (or clip) up to 15 minutes, cumulatively. If you submit more than that, please be aware that judges will only watch the first 15 minutes. Highlights or sizzle reels will only be accepted if they show achievement or achievements clearly and obviously. If you want to provide reviewers with temporary access to the service, feature or app so they can see the experience firsthand, please specify this in your submission and provide all appropriate links and login details. In addition: When submitting video clips, please note any third party details or participation that are not part of your participation. E.g. a host or a global food. Reviewers will look for listings that: include tangible evidence of the impact the service or app has made demonstrate how innovative it is compared to existing offers on the market, which could be embarrassing for the wider sports TV industry *Please provide the most appropriate metrics or metrics for the service, operation or experience you propose. Category 3 – One Planet Sustainability Award in Sports Television The One Planet Award recognises and rewards individuals, companies, projects or initiatives from across the sports broadcasting and production sector who can demonstrate an important contribution to the transition to a society of net zero carbon and zero waste. Applications are called that cover all aspects of the sports television sector, including the technology we use, our production and operation practices and the editorial content we bring to the public. Participations may come from individual companies/organisations or collaborative projects among a range of stakeholders. Key criteria An initiative, programme or campaign that goes beyond industry rule Judges will look for entries that: provide a vision for a truly environmentally sustainable sector that demonstrates a strong impact on the sector or society as a whole, include concrete evidence of the impact or progress made in Category 4 – SVG Europe Women Award for Diversity in Sports TELEVISION The Diversity in Sport Award an organisational programme that has successfully encouraged diversity in the sports production and media industry. The assessments could include an effective initiative that addresses the public and encourages diversity and inclusion; tangible changes that have improved the diversity of an organisation and/or wider industry; both and industry leadership. This award covers all types of inclusion and diversity, including race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender, socio-economic status, age, ability, religious and political beliefs (or other different ideologies). Participations may come from individual companies/organisations or collaborative projects among a range of stakeholders. Key criteria An initiative, programme or campaign that goes beyond industry rule Judges will be looking for entries that: show a strong impact on a company, sector or society as a whole include concrete evidence of the impact or progress made provide a long-term vision to help create a truly diversified sector +Important+ For the One Planet Sustainability and SVG Europe Women Diversity Awards, while judges welcome participations that are cumulative in their success and have been developed or implemented for an extended period, perhaps even years, the pace of change in our industry means that projects, programmes and initiatives that took place live more than a year ago are unlikely to make the list. However, if the scheme is long-term but achieved significant success in the calendar year 2019, this would be appropriate. Please make these achievements clear in your submission. Submission.
