Plains, IL 60016Client Time: Tuesday 12:30 - 3:00 p.m. and Saturday 10:00 a.m. - Noon Registration time: At least before the time, we close the time. Donation drop-off time: Monday and Tuesday from 9:00 to noon, Saturday 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. view a larger map on the New Location tab. Our new address is 769 Holiday Lane, Death Plains. It's about two miles west of the old location -1 block north of Algonquin Road on Elmhurst Road - right behind a grey car repair point. Our phone is the same: 847-375-1443. While we prepare the interior to welcome customers back, we will be open for food donations and DRIVE-UP services for food. We do not accept clothing donations at this time while settling. Thank you for your patience. Note on donations: Don't leave donations outside the door because they attract squirrels, possums, raccoons, and more. Put the donation down on the gray door towards the street. Knock on the door loudly and wait for the volunteers for the time above or drop something that doesn't rot in the red barrels around the village. We are just dispensing food. strengthen services. - Park in the church parking lot across the street. You will receive the number. Volunteers will take you to a small parking lot when it's your turn. Volunteers will ask for your name and address, and volunteers will assemble groceries and load them into your car. Always stay in the car. If you're new to the pantry, let us know. The clothing closet is closed. We do not distribute clothing. We do not accept donations of clothing, coats or household goods at this point. Customers and volunteers should stay home if they don't feel good. We work with a small volunteer staff and appreciate your patience when we make further adjustments. Know that you are doing your best to help those in need during this difficult time. Food donations are always appreciated, and monetary contributions will allow us more flexibility at this time of year. If possible, please send only one representative. Please only come during the drop-off time. If you give up a monetary donation, cash, check, or gift card to a grocery store, you will be evaluated. For more information, visit the Donations page and use your secure PayPal account to donate. Other meal distributions for those in need visit the Main Township High School District 207 website to provide information about free meals for the community.
