Click here to try your brower to register for the OPI/OPIC/WPT/iWPT exam: Allow up to three weeks for the registration process and up to six weeks for the entire exam process! Once you are ready to register for the exam, follow these steps: Before you do anything, you should remember that the time blocks you sign up for must fall within normal opening hours of Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The ILRC director, Mr. Daniel Meyers, serves as a university proctor in addition to his normal duties, and is unable to manage exams on Saturday or Sunday. Click this link to start the process of submitting your application: . If this is the first time you've run an LTI test, select the SIGN UP button in the New User block. Otherwise, sign in with your email address and password from your previous LTI subscription. If you are taking the test for a teaching license in ohio state, make sure you select YES. Make sure you choose OHIO for your state and then MIAMI UNIVERSITY OF OHIO For your foundation! If you choose another institution, your college won't be able to find you in the database that the state of Ohio pulls for a license. Then you will choose your language: Now you will choose the types of tests you will need. Your department suggests that you sign up for the OPIC and iWPT exams. OPI - An oral competency interview where you will speak personally with a natural speaker of the language in which you will be tested. OPIC - An oral competency interview done electronically via computer. WPT - A written proficiency test where you write naturally in a test booklet. iWPT - A written proficiency test done electronically via computer. You will need to select a test level. For most cases, you'll want to choose either option 4 or option 5. If you're testing up to the Advance Low level, we recommend Option 4. If you are testing at the Superior level, you must select Option 5. Now you need to appoint a person responsible for managing the exams. You can choose to have a web-proctored exam at an additional cost. You will need an internet connection and a webcam enabled on your computer if you want to go this option. If you want to be tested with a man, check the button for MIAMI UNIVERSITY... and the check box for USING THE SAME PROCTOR FOR ALL TESTS. You will need to insert two time blocks into the form fields. Remember that these time blocks must fall within the normal working hours of the 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Make sure you also have the correct time zone that is procreed at the top of the screen! Fill in the balance of the form and submit your payment information to complete the entry. WHAT HAPPENS NEXT? If you selected an OPI, LTI will find a controller and will e-mail both you and Mr. Meyers when the exact test date and time is scheduled. If if you and opic or iWPT, login details will be sent directly to your proctor. The manager will contact you to schedule an exact day and time to complete your exams. On the day of the test, you will arrive at Mr Meyers' office (Irvin Hall 47) at least five minutes before your test. If you get an OPI, you will connect with your researcher by phone from the test controller, a brief introduction will be given, and then your test will begin. If you are taking an OPIC or iWPT, your proctor will help you in recording and and taking the exam. If you are taking a WPT, your proctor will sit you in a quiet area in which you will be writing your exams. You may not have objects in your possession during the test. Any items must be placed in a closed bag and placed away from you in the test room. All personal electronics must be accepted Once your test assessment is complete (usually within 1-2 weeks), your score will be sent to the language education program and the Ohio Department of Education. Each test is converted to a permanent record in the ACTFL test file. If an appointment needs to be rescheduled: Log on to the LTI test site and display your scheduled test(s). Click CANCEL to cancel any of the tests you cannot encounter and contact Danie Meyers to reschedule your test times for a future date. -OR- Contact the LTI Test Coordinator immediately (800-486-8444 extension 14). There is no charge for appointments rescheduled before one business day before the scheduled appointment. For missing, canceled, or rescheduled appointments within 24 hours of the test, there is a rearrangement/cancellation fee. There is a charge for cancelled applications, which will be deducted from the refund if an application is cancelled.
