Number Patterns, Sequences & Numerology In the ancient art of numerology, numbers are believed to be carriers of pure, divine energy and contain an immense amount of archetypal wisdom. This is wisdom that crosses time and space, it is Universal and applies to all of us: collectively and personally. This is also one of the reasons why the Spirit Kingdom uses numbers to communicate with people – numbers are unique and, once you speak their language, unmistakable. Numbers are also everywhere. Our paths are plentiful with them (how often do you check your phone every day!?) So it doesn't take much hard work for our Angelic and Spirit Guides to shape them into strings and sequences carefully designed to get your attention. Think about it. These sequences of numbers, which you see again and again around you, were used there to break the grip that the matrix has over you! These synchronicities are designed to draw your attention to the present moment. All you have to do is figure out what they mean... Why do people call them angel numbers? Angels are the messengers of the Spirit (or God, the Goddess, the universe, no matter what word you feel happy with). So when certain number codes appear, they are actually sacred characters. Repeated sequences of numbers are like prayers from above, pleas for attention and intent from the angelic kingdom. One of the first to publicly interpret the meanings behind number sequences was bestselling author Doreen Virtue. She was given the gift of interpreting the divine guidance of angel numbers so that the knowledge could be applied by many. And if you know some basic numerology, you can do so! (Check out our free gift to help you get started!) Many other people use number patterns and sequences to regularly connect with Spirit Guides and even Guardian Angels. We were all born with guardian angels - yes, even – and these divine beings work tirelessly, acting as a kind of intermediate way, bridging our reality with the realm of universal consciousness. It is not difficult to start a relationship with your angels. And see how you're here, it's like number sequences are the way they decide to connect with you.
