Exceptional interpretation! Your portrayal of the sane people was perfect. Wow! I have my first wow of the night. The lighting was excellent. The anger/acceptance of Mary (Mary Paola) was perfect... his interaction with Stephen (Emerson Jeffrey) was excellent. Dawn McAndrews, Artistic Director of Production, Theatre in Monmouth (100/100): I was impressed by the polishand professionalism of the drawings and the acting company. I really can't believe this was a student playing the part of Mary. The whole company used their bodies in a complete and expressive way throughout. Fury's transition to memory characters has been beautifully handled. The commitment of all the actors was impressive. The cast worked beautifully and subtly together All the design elements and production choices carefully and beautifully supported the style, and needs of the piece. The piece was presented simply and skillfully creating a compelling mood and concept. The blockage (the actor's movement) seemed natural and extremely organic. A really interesting scenography allowed the Furies to be present and intrusive, malevolent and unreal. The musical score was excellent and helped maintain tension. Amy Roeder, Director of Education, Penobscot Theatre Furies were a group, but the individual differences from Fury to Fury were so beautiful. Small moments made a huge impact. So many lovely choices at the micro and macro level. There was a beautiful vocal clarity, variety and emotion expressed throughout. The characterization was very well done. Perfect rhythm. A nice understanding of the script. All the technological elements were ingenious and adorable. The visual narrative was on point. The whole evoked an asylum without resorting to the cliché. I wish I could give you more than a 5 (out of 5) in sound design. ___O cast of Mount Desert Islander Mary Girard Mary Paola Fury #1/Warder Ethan Leonard Fury #2/Mrs. Lum Sammie Park Fury #3/Polly Kenton Thistle Swann Fury #4/Mr. Phillips Desmond Reifsnyder Fury #5/Mrs. Hatcher Sarah Soucek Steven Girard Emerson Jeffery Production Team and Crew Director Casey Rush* Technical Director of Lighting and Sound Grey Burkart* Technical Director of Scenic Design Carlene Hirsch* Costume and Stage Construction Manager Marilee Marchese* Julia Rush Lighting Design Christina Closson Lighting Operator Christina Closson Lighting Crew Eric Graves, Atty Brown, Aidan O'Connor, Mason Gurtler and Piper Charron Video Design Piper Charron, Rosie Avila and Mason Gurtler Video Operator Piper Charron Sound Design Ben Hagle, Jacob Sanner and Alec Fischella Composer , Steven's Theme Alec Fischella Sound Operators Max Corrman and Ben Hagle Scenic Design Max Corrman and Maev Rogers Chair Tranquilizer Design Max Corrman Construction Crew Max Corrman, Rosie Avila, Brianna Kerr, Maev Rogers, Anna Rogers, South Graves, Chelsea Thomas* Makeup and Mary Paola Hair Design The Soothing Hair C, invented by Dr. Benjamin Rush, is a device used for 'excitable patients' who were insane or believed to be. with leather straps to tie the arms and legs of the person sitting on it and ... a square wooden box that fits over the head. - Lanie Robertson Mary's Theme is based on Frederic Chopin's Mazurka in C-Sharp Minor, Op. 63, No. 3. This work is in the public domain. Synopsis: In 1790, Mary Girard is committed to an asylum. After Mary became pregnant with another man, her husband declared her legally insane. Now, Mary sits in a chair as the furies dance around and pass by people from her past. At the end of this haunted and highly theatrical play, she grew convincingly in her diagnosis. The Insanity of Mary Girard was first produced at The Painted Bride Art Center by theatre center Philadelphia on July 4, 1976.
