The big bamboozle pdf

From the perspective of a Boeing 767 captain and former special activities contract pilot, Philip Marshall straps the reader into the cockpit of hijacked commercial planes to tell the story of the most sophisticated terrorist attack in history. Based on a comprehensive ten-year study into the killings of his fellow pilots on 9/11, he explains how hijackers, novice pilots in control of large-scale guided missiles, were able to beat United States Air Force fighters to iconic targets with advanced maneuver, daring speed and a kamikaze finish. But, as Marshall points out, the strategic plan was so precise that it was car-bombers and shoe-bombers known as al Qaeda, KSM and Osama bin Laden. Then again, who was it? That's what you're about to learn. Backed by the official NTSB, faa and black box recordings, Marshall finds the most competent and most documented group of conspirators buried deep within a congressional investigation report and retraces his work in gripping detail. Fastening its seatbelt--- the sad truth is that all of the concrete evidence points to a dark cooperation between members of the Bush administration and a secret group of Saudi government officials. It's a game changer that will eventually set a record straight on the most horrific crime in U.S. history. The book is a compilation of official reports that dispute the Bush administration, the Bush intelligence community and the U.S. media's account of the 9/11 attack. Congressional joint investigation of United States Senator Bob Graham revealed in 2002 that Saudi Intelligence agents met 9/11 hijackers in Los Angeles in January of 20, harbored them and led them to 18 months of flight training in Florida and Arizona. Marshall followed reports from FBI field agents that George W. Bush's administration warned that a cadre of individuals of investigative interest were engaged in flight training in the Arizona desert in the spring of 2001. Marshall identifies three top federal investigators who complained that Dick Cheney obstructed justice by denying access to suspects who supposedly confessed to committing the biggest crime in U.S. history. None of the federal investigators were ever allowed to verify the confession of Khalid Sheikh Mohammed who had been boarded more than 180 times at the Guantanamo detention facility. The book disputes Osama bin Laden's videos and media confessions and points out that none of the Bush administration's allegations have been substantiated. Marshall claims the Saudi government was the true executioner of the 9/11 attack and implicated his enemies while cia special operations set up an elaborate decoy named Osama bin Laden to divert attention from the Saudi campaign. He follows hijackers to flight training airports and finds that Saudi agents led hijackers to the Arizona desert where boeing 757 and Boeing 767 airliners were parked A deserted CIA-powered airport. CIA airport operators detected suspected insider stock trades on two airlines, United Airlines and American Airlines, used in the 9/11 attack. Marshall broke the tactical flight plan used by the kidnapers and chronicles the actions of Condoleezza Rice, Donald Rumsfeld, Prince Bandar bin Sultan of Saudi Arabia, Dick Cheney and George W. Basuh to find that his account of the attack was seriously flawed. Three top investigators wrote that Dick Cheney had obstructed the investigation and reimplied the involvement of Saudi government agents employed in California by the Saudi Civil Aviation Authority. Congressional investigations have pointed out that Saudi agents had seemingly unlimited funds from Saudi Arabia and had detected hijacker financial support to Prince Bandar through a Riggs bank account. Finally Marshall chronicles the media trial that allowed Bush and Cheney to derail U.S. justice by trying the 9/11

One is BS was fed to uncover about Americans and the world to cover bush's true facts — saudi made the 9/11 event, and all Malarkey fed us later about Bin Laden. Strangely, I have my first impression of deception when finishing a book completely unrelated to the subject.. I Inside the kingdom: My life in Saudi Arabia was done by Carmen bin Laden, who was married to one of Osama's 45 brothers. Which is a wonderfully sweet, but ultimately tragic love story of her and her husband, and because of how paranoid Muslim culture where male relatives control all aspects of their lives should their husbands die, she knew she wouldn't be able to live with the bill controlling her and her daughter's life, so she left her husband and took her daughters out of Saudi Arabia while she still had his Swiss passport. There's very little about Osama in the book, but in the end after 9/11 he tells how strange it is that many bin Laden family members were in america and when our own planes were based, the Saudis were allowed to fly out! Now you don't think that if you had the man's family members believing your responsible for such an act, that you'd keep them here, at least for questioning? They were allowed to leave, because Osama had nothing to do with 9/11! The government murdered this writer and his family, like they had opened up other whistleblowers who had their ~ Jim Kieth, William Cooper, Danny Casolaro, and the Washington madam who was about to testify about her clients on the Hill! This is an eye-opening book for those who haven't researched these claims before, and there's a lot of evidence, even for those who have. ... Highly recommended. ... The film, written and directed by Eric Stacey, explores the case of Philip Marshall, who was found dead at his home in California early last year, along with his two teenage children. Authorities determined that Mr. Marshall had shot his children and then himself, but since he wrote Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror and another Sept. 11 conspiracy was at work on the book, doubts arose in some quarters. Randall Paul portrays the main character, who has been named Marshall Phillips for the film. Dennis Fitzpatrick is an investigative journalist who is suspected of the official explanation (Wayne Madsen, also renamed). The movie is titled The Story of an Airline Captain because Mr. Marshall once was a pilot, an experience that has helped him find the September 11 attacks. Mr. Stacey is skeptical of the knitting version accepted in his dramamizing of recording the voices of Mr. Marshall and others, but the acting is so clumsy and shoestring budget filmmaking so terrible that the film never establishes credibility that this kind of alternative narrative.
