Tequesta trace middle school dress code

Pines Middle School is committed to creating a safe environment where the focus is on academics. It is the intention of the school program that students are dressed and cared for in an appropriate manner that will not interfere with, or prejudice, the educational process. Studies have shown that a uniform dress code policy will promote safety, improve discipline and improve the learning environment. Visitors to campus will be clear, students will not compete with each other with designer clothes, and the focus will be on academic achievement. Parents/guardians can apply for exemptions for their students to participate in the mandatory uniform dress code policy. Provision will be made for students who are unable to comply with the policy due to financial difficulties. I.D. Badges The safety of students is paramount. All Pines High School students and staff are required to wear their school I.D. badges all day, every day. The consequences are issued for non-compliance. NOTIFICATION TO PARENTS/GUARDIANS REGARDING EXEMPTIONS - RULE 3. SCHOOL BOARD POLICY 5309 Parents/Guardians: An application for exemption can be obtained from the school. The application for exemption must be completed in full and must be submitted to the headmaster within 10 days of registration. The school principal and/or the school's uniform dress code committee shall inform parents to discuss the uniform dress code policy and the nature of the request for exemption. The purpose of the communication includes: ensuring that parents/guardians understand the uniform dress code policy and its intent, and verifying the accuracy of the information on the application for exemption. The decision of the committee of the school's uniform dress code in this regard shall be sent to the parents/guardians within ten calendar days. Exemptions will be granted when the above procedures are followed. The consequences for dress code/ID violations will be progressive. We follow the SBBC Discipline Matrix regarding Dress Code. Students who have more than 5 dress code/ID violations in a school year are not allowed to participate in reward activities, such as a dance, a Rewards excursion, end-of-year trip, etc. DRESS CODE 2018/2019 Pines Middle School is committed to creating a safe environment where the focus is on academics.
