May God bless us all...- Gabriel, Digital Devil Saga: Avatar Tuner 2. I am the archangel of promise and atonement. As my equal, you too will get my title. Let me join you and get rid of the world of sin. -Gabriel, Person 2: The eternal penalty Gabriel is the demon in the series. History [edit source] In Abrahamic religion (which includes Christianity, Judaism and Islam), Gabriel is a high-ranking messenger angel. Their word means God is my power and is known to be God's left hand and the embodiment of the holy spirit, unlike Michael, who is the right hand of God. To Christians, Gabriel's main task is that of the messenger who told Elizabeth that she bear John Baptist and Mary, that she bear Jesus, which means that they remember every Christmas/advent as a messenger of proclamation or immaculate conception (it was also Gabriel who asked Mary to name his son Jesus, which means savior.) They are also referred to as announcing the prophecy of Seventy Weeks daniel and are also recognized as St. Gabriel, the patron saint of communications staff. For Muslims, Gabriel is specifically noted for discovering the Qur'an to Muhammad and is a messenger who tells prophets about their responsibilities. In Islam, Gabriel is the highest rank angel, while Raphael is second. They are also called the holy spirit of Islam. While it is usually thought that male or neutral gender in the early text, some school thoughts believe that the arrival of Gabriel's feminine face in art indicates that Gabriel is actually a female angel. This may be in contrast to Michael's male role as the right hand of God, but the issue is still largely discussed in religious circles. Once portrayed as a woman, Gabriel often owns a lily, which shows a gentle feminine nature. Gabriel is an angel of January and is associated with the zodiac sign aquarius. Speaking : edit source] Profile[edit [edit source] Gabriel is one of the four archangels of YHVH service usually observed with Raphael, Uriel and Michael. Shin Megami Tensei [edit | edit source] Origin: Israel. One of the 4 heralds, water seraph. She is known as the angel who told the Virgin Mary about her proclamation. Although angels are not of sex, Gabriel is generally considered a woman. She is said to be the head of the Garden of Eden and cherubs. Some say Gabriel is also the one who dictates the Quran to the Prophet Mohammed. -Shin Megami Tensei A-Mode DDS Dictionary Along with Uriel, Raphael and Michael, Gabriel is one of the four main sub-bosses of the last arc of the game: seraphim, and one of the most powerful angels under God's orders, standing guarding the superior part of the basilica. She seems to be defending the third floor, stating if the hero has no law aligned, there can only be one punishment for the hero's crimes against God: the birth of death. Then she will continue to engage the hero completely in the choice of boss-fight, because they can choose to just take the stairs to the next floor without having to enter Gabriel's room. In the Law route, Gabriel instead joins the hero's party as she needs a triple fusion with Uriel and Raphael to be made as a result of the creation of Angel Ring, a valuable item needed for the final showdown against Asura. Shin Megami Tensei II [edit source] When Uriel, Raphael, Michael and Fake YHVH are defeated, the remaining senior reveals himself to Gabriel, who was told to distance himself from others with an order for the real YHVH. If Aleph wins the real YHVH on the road law, she states that he is still a target and tells him to go to Eden. Gabriel's design largely resembles her prequel incarnation, although she is now a woman. Most of the incarnation of Gabriel's past to this point uses his design from this game. Shin Megami Tensei III: Nocturne [edit | edit source] One of the four main angels. She is also the only female angel in this rank. Her name comes from the Sumerian governor. -Shin Megami Tensei III: Nocturne collection If Demi-devil is against Chiaki's Reason of Yosuga, he is forced to fight against Uriel, Gabriel and Raphael after reaching the last level of Mifunashiro. Otherwise, he will fight Futomimi. After that, Gabriel can get, merged the throne with Raphael to get him. She also can use sacrificial fusion with Raphael and Uriel, regardless of the condition, to create Michael. Shin Megami Tensei IMAGINE[edit|edit source] Gabriel appears as one of three matching bosses players encounter during later acts. Those who are on the right path will get her plug-in after defeating her. She is a special triple raphael, throne and Odin fusion. Shin Megami Tensei IV[edit source] True identity of Gabby, who reveals himself prentice at Shene Duque. She has struggled as boss of DLC Challenge Quest, trimmed Wings 2. During the battle, she comes to believe that allowing Flynn to keep his gauntlet as a mistake. Halfway through the battle, she will raise the question of Flynn. Either the answer will infuriate him and make the encounter more dangerous. Choosing to ignore her will cause her to lose the press round. Shocked by Michael's loss, she has spared M. who says that one rat can't do much. She warns Flynn that she will not forget her role before leaving. Giten Megami Tensei: Tokyo Mokushiroku [edit source] Gabriel is a Herald that protects the inhabitants of Shibuya with a stamp. However, his seal is broken after Goshiki Fudo's revival, which leads to demons invading Shibuya. He reveals himself after Ayato defeats the demon Morax there, and tells Ayato everything about himself, Yuuka and Baal's connections to their destiny. MajinStensei II: Spiral Nemesis[edit|edit source] Gabriel has fought Amnesia on the Neutral. Light-Law and Dark-Chaos routes where she guards the base of Shamim, Person 2: Eternal punishment[edit | edit source] Lord of the Garden of Eden. Gave a weaval to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Gabriel is Eriko Kirishima's Chief Persona, which is only available in the EX Dungeon. The hero needs a Lily Material Card before she can call. Her appearance is that the woman wears a bee and green suit. Her wings and hair are both made of pipes (reminiscent of pipe organs in churches). Like her parents' design, she still holds a lily in her right hand. Gabriel stands out at the ice and holy spells and is immune to these elements. Her final spell, Release Jail, is the strongest ice spell in the game and makes her crucial to performing the ultimate ice elementary Fusion Spell, Ice Jihad. She is also able to use recovery skills, but has a weakness against darkness and nuclear elements. Person 3[edit [edit source] Gabriel can create a Heart Item, Frozen Stone, that does not hide ice damage directed against the bearer. Person Q: Shadow labyrinth[edit | edit source] One of the four main angels. Because she is portrayed as a beautiful girl, she is interpreted as a woman. Her name comes from the Sumerian governor. —Person Q: In the shadow of the labyrinth collection Persona 5[edit source] One of the four main archangels. She is also the only female angel in this rank. Her name comes from the Sumerian governor. She's an angel who told Mary about her pregnancy. Gabriel has a tenth person temperament in Arcana and can only get through fusion in the Velvet Room. She is the first of three Personal learner Divine Judgment skill, the second of three to learn Ali Dance and the last of three who learn to Avoid the Curse and Touch n' Go. She is also one of four Individuals to learn Ice Amp and Salvation skills. with electric chair performance, Gabriel harvests Mabufudyne's skill card. Gabriel is one of the personal needs to summon both Michael and Sraosha with advanced fusion. Gabriel is the third guardian of that party to face the path to the Holy Grail in the Qliphoth world, titled Declarer of Suffering. Digital Devil Saga: Avatar Tuner 2 [edit | edit source] This city is not my city... Where's the savior? Where's the millennium? I thirst ... I have to quench this thirst! -Gabriel, Digital Devil Saga: Avatar Tuner 2 Five Years Ago, members of the Karma Society captured four tomorrow angels. Their minds are reduced to the point that they start questioning when they are human beings. But then their demon memories kicked in, which ran parallel to Shin Megami Tensei II, including building the Millennium Kingdom and turning treason into a stone. Then they would attack because they can't control their thirst. If the party continues them, Serph and company fight Gabriel, Raphael and Uriel twice, once when the party finds them themselves; and once in one fight, facing each of them, and then finally Michael, one by one. Gabriel lives in the Karma Society Tower on Heliport at the floor of twenty. Her skillset includes a wide range of status diseases that harm skills, including skills such as a mischievous curse that hurts and places curse status ailment on the entire side before carrying Mamudoon. She is weak for force-based skills. When she is critical of HP, she will tell the party, Be warned... Your enemy still remains ... and start using random skills instead of identifying patterns.
