It has a low difficulty level and can be played by people of all ages, such as features fun minigames for adults and children. Get ready for the party! Visuals and animations, another application is lying, this game has a very interesting appearance and brings slaves of all kinds and sizes. At first, an animation is shown with an English narration (subtitled) and fans of their slaves can enjoy pure adventure with these characters in a few seconds. It's no exaggeration to watch this game start and say it's worth downloading so you can enjoy a well-made view of the entire island. It's all so fun and colorful and dynamic, like these characters were playing in a movie. This requires a lot of processing power from the phone, so it is normal if your device slows down a bit or starts to warm up. Control of the game is done with simple touches all over the screen and you just need to click on the balloons, make what is shown and wait for the results. Minigames may need to jump to the rhythm of music or even use an alligator as a surfboard, but all these simple touches are done on the screen. Game DevelopmentThis is a small game of time management and simulation, so it's almost endless: you need to unlock various games and fields in this tropical paradise, and it takes a long time. Each mission has an expedited waiting time with gold coins; If you want to buy more, however, take care and as the cost of real money is difficult. The difficulty doesn't increase much - that is, they have more slaves and spaces to manage, but skill challenges or even if you need to work hard to complete it do not bring tasks. In general, this is a very interesting hobby for any age, as long as the child already knows how to read or has someone to help them. It is worth downloading and start playing this game. Since the gold coins used to speed up this process are expensive, there are tasks to expect, so it is good to be patient. However, this small game emerges as one of the best options for managers and those who enjoy simulation and just want to have fun. Fun.
