Ups pay scales 2015 chart

Today we will discuss how to calculate the base wage in the upcoming revised salary tables 2015 (RPS 2015) for Andhra Pradesh and Telangana employees. You know that the new PRC 2015 will enter into force from 1.7.2013, so it should be called PRC 2013, but due to its delay it is called PRC 2015. Before you prepare the table for the estimated revised base wage in the revised 2015 wage scales, you should know the calculation method for determining the new base wage according to your current basic as of 1.7.2013. Remember that your base on 1.7.2013 is the basis for New Basic in the new PRC 2015. Follow the steps one at a time: First, take your Basic Pay as on 1.7.2013 Add Your DA - 63.344% as on 1.7.2013 to your Basic Pay (Basic+DA) Add Fitment to the Basic as on 1.7.2013. The sum of the above three will be fundamental. Your new basic will be above the ground in the new revised salary scale for 2015 (Basic + DA@ 63.344 + Fitment@30%) For example, suppose the adjustment is 30% and calculate the New Base in RPS 2015. Basic as on 1.7.2013: 12910 DA at 63.344 (Basic as on 1.7.2013) 8178 Fitment - 30% (assumption) (calculated on Basic) 3873 Total 24961 New Basic will be above this sum and fixed in the next stage of the RPS 2015 Master Scale.
