Halo reach killstreaks names

Stronghold Captured 2,837 Have you ever wished you had access to high-res versions of the Halo 3 medals? (These are being posted the week before Halloween, 2009; what a perfect template for carving!) Tom 'WaywardSpleen' Pratchios whipped up the high-resolution vector version of these images a long time ago... but never got around to release them. Ask, however, and you'll get: b0anerges wonder if these files exist – which makes it clear that there is no current version out there. A quick question to the spleen has goodies that you can use. (Small Caveat: There are two medals missing in this collection. Infection Spree! (5 people in a row as a zombie) and Mmmm Brains! (10 people in a row) is never returned in high resolution. Sorry.) Update: Thanks to SK CRISIS, PNG versions of the two missing medals are now available. If you have Adobe Illustrator (or any app that can read illustrator files), you can download a single 1.7 mb . The AI file contains all 54 medals in vector format. If you have an app that can handle EPS files, but not Illustrator files, you can get this document instead - it's larger (3.9 mb), but contains the same information. If you have no way to read vector files, or if you only need one or two images, you can use the 'download' link next to each thumb below; they result in 24-bit PNG files throughout 1000x1000 which you can then modify as needed. Mousing on a thumb will show you a slightly larger picture, if you are having trouble deciding which one you need. Thanks to Tom for all the work, to b0anerges for the motivation to create this page, and for anyone who uses the material here to create cool things the community can see! Perfect! Weapons medal spree has been given a significant overhaul in Halo: Reach. While in previous games, they were only awarded for consecutive kills with the same weapon, in Halo: Reach, players simply accumulated the number of kills without dying. These are the medals awarded in Halo Reach. General player medal [edit | edit source] Request the name of the legendary Medal Destruction icon!
