Top growth markets include India (+30%), Brazil (+22%) and Eastern Europe (+22%). The company has sold a cumulative 75 billion cans since Red Bull's launch in 1987, and has developed a marketing strategy based on extreme events; Energy Drinks launched a new organic soda in 2018 with three of its four new decaffeinated beverages; Dietrich Mateschitz, inspired by functional drinks in the Far East, founded Red Bull in the mid-1980s. As well as new products, it has a unique marketing concept and launched the Red Bull Energy Drink in Austria on April 1, 1987. A whole new product category has been born - energy drinks. Foundation For nearly three years from 1984 to 1987, Dietrich Mateschitz worked with Red Bull, the formula for the brand's positioning, packaging and marketing concepts. Red Bull Energy Drinks are released in Austria on April 1, 1987. Energy Drink is a new product category. Employees By the end of 2019, Red Bull employed 12,736 people in 171 countries. In 2019, 7.5 billion cans of Red Bull cans were sold worldwide. That's a 10.4% increase over the year that was already successful in 2018. Group revenue grew 9.5 percent from €5.541 trillion to €6.067 billion. Sales quantities, sales, productivity and operating profit increased further, a record number in the company's history. The main reasons for this positive number are India (+37%), Brazil (+30%), Africa (+25%), Germany (+15%), Austria (+12%), and Eastern Europe (+12%) Such is the excellent sales development of the Red Bull market. And the U.S. (+9%), as well as consistent cost management and continued investment in that brand. In 2019, the company's global sales reached around €6.07 billion worldwide. Red Bull was the leading energy drink brand in the U.S. in 2019. Red Bull Red Bull GmbH operates in the drinks sector and is particularly famous for its famous energy drink Red Bull. The company was founded in 1987 and is now headquartered in Fuschl am See, Austria, close to Salzburg. The company operates in more than 166 countries around the world. Energy Drink Red Bull is a functional beverage containing caffeine, taurine, B-group vitamins, sucro, glucose and water. In addition to the traditional Red Bull, the portfolio includes Red Bull SugarFree, Red Bull Total Zero and Red Bull Red, Silver and Blue Editions. The drink is sold in cans carrying 8.4 fluid ounces (250ml). In addition to selling and selling beverages, beverage companies are known for their involvement in extreme sports and motorsport sponsorships. In 2013, the Red Bull Racing team won the Formula One Instructor Championship for the fourth year in a row. In mid-2014, Red Bull bedde to the media for its advertising slogan, 'Red Bull Gives Wings', which has since been used by law firms. Twenty years. some disappointed U.S. consumers argued that functional beverages did not provide wings and did not help speed up performance or reaction. They filed a lawsuit against the U.S. government accusing the company. class misleading and false advertising claims.
