P4 confidant guide

With the release of our beloved Persona 4 Golden on PC through Steam, we've come up with a guide to help people in need choose the best possible answer when interacting with your Social Links. Each social link has very specific days they can be accessed with a certain amount of points needed to let you progress further in their great stories. Some are heartbreaking, some are heartwarming, but in the end you help them overcome something in their lives to better understand themselves. There are about eighteen Arcanas you can level up, but there are two completely alternative paths depending on the school club you choose. This guide does not include social links related to extracurricular activities, such as persona a collaboration for Margaret or Judgment, Fool and Star conducted through the evolution of the story. Persona 4 Golden allows players to create social links in the game. This is how they work and how they can benefit their players in Persona 4 Golden. Social connection is essential to building relationships in Persona 4 Golden. This guide will explain how they work and the purpose of finding them. Persona 4 Golden is half JRPG and a life simulator. Players will spend most of their time balancing their social lives and spending time in the tv world. The neat thing about the game is that each half of the title is intertwined. What players do while trying to build relationships can affect players' stats and abilities while in other worlds. There are several characters that players can build soulmates. This is how social links work and why players should definitely look for them. Continue scrolling to continue reading Click the button below to start this article in quick view. Starting now In the game, players will have some opportunities to build relationships with friends and each other. Through social links, players can date, join games, complete missions, and learn more about behind-the-scenes stories for these characters. The neat aspect around building these relationships is the ability that goes along the way from crafting them. These abilities can help players in the TV world by providing support in combat, increasing indicators or stronger Personas. The social links of certain characters are connected to specific Persona. So if the player has a specific Arcana that suits the character, the relationship will build even faster. Social Links Explained in Persona 4 Gold This is how players can unlock every Social Link in the game for each character. This will also explain which arcana is needed to promote ties faster. One of the biggest gameplay elements of Persona games is the friends you make along the way. In Persona 4, party members, close NPCs and even some more distant characters represent the protagonist's social connections. By leveling them through the story, you will not only learn more about these characters but also power up team members, gain the ability to unlock powerful Persona and even lead to jail Persona 4 Golden. Each social link is laid out by the characters and Arcana that they represent, there are 28 social links in total. You can level up the To rank 10th when you play through Persona 4 Golden. Below we'll go through each arcana name, the protagonist, when social links start, Ask for Ratings, and when they're available. If there are any additional requirements for any ratings, we'll also list them. Before you get too far into planning out who you want to meet and when though it is important to know a few things: You will only go up a rank with your social affiliate if when talking to them, you get a message saying you feel you will grow closer to this person On days where you cannot meet anyone you can pray at the temple for a random bonus for a social link of your choice You get extra points if you have a Persona of Arcana social link with you.
