Directory of Tax Collection Staff: Terence Graff, TaxMan Priscilla Meyer, Supervising Treasurer The taxman is responsible for collecting, collecting, reporting and executing municipal taxes for the City of Ocean City. Tax bills are emailed annually in July. Real estate taxes are due on 1 February, 1 May, 1 August and 1 November. A non-refundable tax bill does not exempt you from paying taxes or interest on delinquent taxes. The city of Ocean City is allowing a 10-day delay. Keep on the advice that the state of New Jersey does not allow the taxman to recognize postage stamps, therefore taxes must be received in our office on January 10, 2017. If the 10th falls on a weekend or legal holiday, you'll have until the next Labor Day to pay. Payments can be made by cheal, cash or cash order. As a legal officer for the state of New Jersey, the taxman is required to follow all state statutes regarding property tax collection, including collection, due dates, interest collection on delinquent taxes and tax sales procedures. No one has the authority to forgive interest on delinquent taxes. Tax due dates: 1st 2nd quarter due to 1st quarter due to 1st quarter due to 1st quarter due to 1. Each tax quarter has a grace period of 10 days, after which interest will be estimated. Interest rate: The city of Ocean City adopted an 8% interest rate for the first $1,500 delinquency by resolution, and 18% for any delinquency above $1,500 as permitted under the N.J.S.A state statute 54:4-67, as permitted as a penalty of 6% at the end of the year on any balance owed as of 31 December 2014. Any unpaid delinquent taxes due from the previous year, which are still in debt, may be subject to TAX SALES. Tax sale is the enforcement of collection on the property by setting a seductive right to the property for all outstanding utility fees due at the end of the calendar year (December 31st). Municipal fees include, but are not limited to: property taxes, special taxes on districts for improvement (S.I.D), added/omitted estimates, property maintenance inertia. Tax Sales Process Explained New Jersey Property Tax Act State of New Jersey Property Tax Relief Programs: The State maintains various property tax relief programs available to New Jersey homeowners from the state. Annual deduction for veterans: Annual deduction up to $250 from taxes due on the actual or personal property of qualified war veterans and their unseeded surviving spouses/surviving civil union partners/surviving domestic partners. Annual property tax deduction for senior citizens, Persons with disabilities: Annual allowance of up to $250 from property taxes for homeowners aged 65 or over or people with disabilities who meet certain income and residence requirements. These (2) benefits are managed by the local municipality. Eligibility requirements, returns and assistance with these deductions are available at the Tax Assessment Office. Asset Tax Refund (Elderly Freeze Scheme): The state-funded PTR programme compensates qualified applicants for property tax hikes that can occur each year from the basic year. The base year is the first year that the applicant is eligible for eligibility. It is important to understand that the taxpayer pays taxes as they mature and then the increase is reimbursed next year. Deadline for submitting the PTR application for 2017 For up-to-date information on changes to the 2018 Elderly Freeze Program, see the Department of Taxation website @ Homestead Benefit Program: The deadline for applying for homestead 2016 compensation was November 30, 2018. Household allowances for 2016 are expected to increase by 1.5% in 2017.
