Dansai bunri no crime edge emily

Emily Redhands (民ミ民一・民民ド, Emiri Reddohanzu?) is one of the secondary main characters from Dansai Bunri no Crime Edge, along with an anime adaptation. She is the owner of the Fresh Blood-Dismantling Opener and Iwai's adopted little sister. Contents[show] Look Edit Emily has pale purple hair and purple eyes. PersonalityEdit Emily has a rather sadistic personality due to being an author and having a rather different upbringing. Iwai mentions that if she lowered all her guns, she could be a pretty sweet girl. In anime and manga she is proven to be very protective of Iwai even though she is a ruthless killer she fears kiri as he has done very terrible things for her. StoryEdit BackgroundEdit RelationshipsEdit Main Article: Emily Redhands/ Relationships. Lady Violet Edit She seems to be on good terms with Lady Violet, as was shown when they were at the hotel talking about her father, despite Lady's Violet's calm and serious demeanor. EtymologyEdit Emily is the name given by Iwai's father when he found it. Redhands can be a reference to your red gloves. GalleryEdit Home Article: Emily Redhands / Image Gallery. Spoiled: In fact, she is a very strong killer, despite her young age, who also uses a Killing Goods called Opener of Blood Autopsy, consisting of 46 knives with different abilities that allow her to prevent the healing of the wounds she causes. She decides to go on the attack, but Kiri manages to join the two girls and decides to fight. However, he notes that his level is not what a little girl has, because she easily manages to touch him with her weapon. Then she says that she is certain to take revenge for her father because he was always sad when he thought about Iwai. So she wants to kill her and bring her father back to life in exchange for her murder. His plan is to kill Iwai on the anniversary of his father's death. Cyril decides to provoke her to defeat her by going to the cemetery to make her angry. The boy manages to do this, which causes the little girl a strong anger, which she is unable to hold back. In fact, we also learn that the man she considers to be her father is not really her father. This is, in fact, the father of Iwai, who took the little girl while she lived outside and was just changing places. Only her father gave her Killing Goods, hoping that one day she could cut her daughter's true hair. Therefore, she is one of three artificial killing goods, so she does not have the offspring of the killers. Then she laminated Kiri when he loses his mind during her struggle and she experiences great fear when he reappears before her eyes. In fact, Iwai decides to protect her from the boy by intervening, which saved her life. Finally, Emily refuses her activities as a murderer and decides to live with Iwai while approaching her.
