Grand Theft Auto: V is set in San Andreas (based in California and Nevada), including 3 cities in Los Santos (based in Los Angeles), San Fierro (based in San Francisco) and Las Venturas (based in Las Vegas), in 1992, the game revolves around gang member Carl CJ Johnson's Liberty City returning home to Los Santos in San Andreas after receiving news of his mother's murder. CJ's old friends and family were in turmoil. During the game CJ gradually discovers the conspiracy behind his mother's death. The plot of the game is based on real-life events in Los Angeles, such as strife between bloods and crips gangs, drug victims, the Rampart scandal, and even the 1992 riots in Los Angeles. Grand Theft Auto: V is built similarly to its two predecessors. The basic gameplay includes elements of third-person shooters and car races, and offers players a huge expanding world environment to explore. This is also the first time that the character can swim and climb. Players can control a variety of vehicles, including cars, buses, pickups, speedboats, airplanes, helicopters, trains, tanks, motorcycles and bicycles. A non-linear open environment allows players to discover and freely choose how they play. While plot quests need to be completed for the story to evolve as well as unlock certain content, it is optional and players can do them at any time. If you do not complete missions, players are free to walk and enjoy the scenery around the city, or cause chaos by attacking others and vandalism, which attracts the deadly attention of the authorities. The police deal with minor crimes, special operations teams, the FBI and the army are dealing with higher-level wanted. Players can take on a variety of side quests to increase attributes and earn extra income from the character, including traditional side missions with previous titles such as taxi passengers, extinguish fires, transport injured people to hospitals, and fight crime. Some of the new tasks include stealing, brokering prostitutes, transporting by truck or train, and learning to drive a car/plane/canoe/motorcycle.
