Springfield, Ohio, June 4, 1942, as the youngest fraternal twins. She was the daughter of the late Jesse O. and Hazel M. (Carey) Morgan. Julia was the will miss her delicate goodness. Our favorites were her cakes, especially pecans and her Million Dollar fudge.
When her daughters were young, she would spend the summer enjoying the sun and swimming at the Sandpiper Swim Club. There have always been summer holidays: fishing in Canada and holidays in Florida. She enjoyed bowling, basketball and softball.
She and her late husband Whitt moved to Lake India, where they spent many joyous hours fishing and boating. She was a devoted animal lover, particularly concerned for the welfare of her Airedales and kittens. Her fur babies meant to her when her memory began to fade. Surviving are her twin sister Judy Mowery, sister Ellie (Jack) Crew, daughters Cindy
(Jim) McNamara, Cathy Hallam, grandchildren Nick (Ashlie) Dailey, Landon (Tayler) Hallam, Breanna Hallam, Stephen (Rosa) Ellinger, Amber Ellinger, Austin Roberts, Adalyn, Anabel Ellinger and several nieces and nephews She was continued to die by her loving daughter Connie Ellinger, sisters Ruth, Winnie, brothers Richard, Jesse O., Ray and nephew Jeff Smith. Many conversations about life and love were shared before she lost these abilities due to dementia. The one that resonated was that the love of her life was her daughter's father Richard C. Dailey, who passed in 2000. Julia has struggled throughout her life with mental illness and her daughters would like to bring awareness to everyone else out there that she is struggling with. There are people who care. home. He was a very special and memorable man whose loss leaves a huge hole in our hearts, but he gave us many wonderful memories. Howard was the best. As a young boy, Howard worked with his grandfather, from whom he learned so much, and told so many stories about. He was very respectful of him, as well as his whole family, that he felt so blessed to have. A very special and unique person, he will never be different than him. Howard was the eldest of ten children; will be greatly missed by four brothers, including Joseph (Sylvia), to whom he was particularly close, Steve,
Jim (Sue) and Tim (Joyce); four sisters Diane, Georgia, Hope (Bob) and Julie (Roger); three sons from his first wife Wayne (Sherry), Todd (Ann) and Eric; his current wife of fifteen years, Kimberly (Evans) Holland, and their three children Ashley (Henry), Kasey and Matthew; ten grandchildren Justin, Joshua, Jerod, Jacob, Erika, Nicholas, Andy, Kasey Jo, JohnnyLee, and baby Andrew; nine great grandchildren. He missed his son-in-rech, Henry Tessier of Alabama, who hasn't seen much in recent years. Howard was also close to some special friends who were more like family, Jeff McKenney, Dick Meeks, Cory Buntin (as son) and Tammy Peck (as daughter); brother-in-law Mike Evans, and many other family, friends and associates, especially Jason Crause. Before he died, he is preceded by his parents; Sister Kathleen; son Howard Wesley Holland, Jr., and his first wife Patricia. Howard had the opportunity to help write this obituary, and choose the music and pictures he cherished. At his request, instead of flowers, contributions can be made to his family or to a charity of your choice. Attendance will be Tuesday from 5 p.m. until service time at RICHARDS, RAFF & mp; DUNBAR MEMORIAL HOME. another golf scramble or trip to the River Trent in Canada, where a lot of the fish story reigns like a legend. Music has improved his life in the form of piano, trumpets and barbershop harmony with the Miami-Shelby Melody Men Chorus. His years of working at Northwestern local schools and at the Clark County Educational Service Center allowed him to create an atmosphere where children were encouraged to celebrate their accomplishments, and overcome roadblocks that rose to try to define them as less than they were created to be. His favorite event of the year has long been the Jan Van Gorder Scholar Reception at Northwestern High School, where he proudly celebrated a student of academic excellence that was his heart's wish. His collaborators remember him as a man of wisdom and integrity, ready with comic relief or a quick secret gift in difficult times, and as someone whose practical jokes can arise at any time to color normal days with a smile. John's life was defined by his Christian faith, he lived in principle and in action. He studied and served at Asbury United Methodist Church in North Hampton, Ohio during his vital years, and found great joy among his friends at Southgate Baptist Church after a car crash that has strapped him to a wheelchair for the past 22 years. His family has grown strong and faithful as a result of his love, his unflagging determination to overcome, his high expectations for himself and others, and his gracious example of one who believes in God's purpose and calling, regardless of circumstances. Jan and wife, Pat, have just celebrated 40 years of marriage, defined by the love of Jesus Christ and the strength that only faith can provide. His investment in the lives of others has been returned in decades willing to help the hearts surrounding the couple with the blessing of an unwavering friendship. Their children, Bethany (Greg) Morris, Josh VanGorder, and Rachel (David) Jensen have been a source of great pride as they pursue careers in education that use their God-given gifts and improve the lives of the students they touch. Their eight grandchildren, Michael, Madelyn & amp; Anna Morris, Joel & amp; Carson VanGorder and Isaac, Abrielle & amp; Isabelle Jensen, hold the promise of a legacy that continues to transcend and enforces the strong principles and beliefs of their grandfather. Please join us to celebrate John's life later. In honor of John, donations can be sent to the Jan Van Gorder Memorial Scholarship
