Addictive Games Best for: Single Player Games Adobe Flash: Required for select online game types of games: Online (computer browser), downloadable (desktop) and mobile (phone/tablet browser) Addicting Games website offers over 4500 games in several categories including action games, easy games, cute games, brainteasers & quizzes and card games. When you visit a website, you'll see ads on the home screen and sides of the page during the game. But at least for me, they had no noticeable effect on gameplay or user experience. You can switch to the Paid Pass games in order to access new games without ads and early access to new games, but this is not required to play what you see on the site. You can create a free account Track your high scores and favorite games. If you visit the site on your smartphone or tablet, you can play many of the same games without having to download the app. Nevertheless, some games are only available in the desktop version of the site. Pros: Cons: No account is required New games added weekly Large variety of games & categories Exclusive games available only to paying members Some ads Best for: Games available as apps; Adobe Flash MMO Games: Required for selected online games Game types: Online (computer browser) and mobile phone (App Store, Google Play) Armor Games is another great resource to find free online games in categories including MMO (Massively Multiplayer Online), Strategy, Adventure, Action, Puzzle and more. Many of the games you'll find online in Armor Games are also available as apps for iOS and Android devices, which means you can download them to your mobile device and continue playing away from your computer. I was impressed with the different games on this site. While you won't find many well-known games like blackjack or checkers, you'll find many unique and interesting games created by Armor Games and independent developers. You can create a free account on the website to track your high scores and favorite games, but the account is not necessary to play what is available on the site. Pros: Cons: Not much for any ads Many games are also available as 4 apps. Big Fish Games Best For: Adobe Flash downloads and applications: Required for selected online games Game types: Online (computer browser), downloadable (desktop) and mobile (phone/tablet browser, App Store, Google Play) Unlike other websites listed so far, you need to create an account to play Big Fish Games. Still, creating an account is easy and free. Just enter your email address and create a password. You'll find access to thousands of free online games in categories such as hidden object games, casino games, adventure games, puzzles, strategy games, card and board games, family games and more. Although many full versions are available for free, some games require a paid membership to get full access. Although there are ads on this site, most of the ones I've seen were for paid memberships that Big Fish Games offers as opposed to Google Ads. As I've played for several games on a website, I've never felt that ads interfere with gameplay or user experience. In addition to free online games, you will find games on PC, Mac, iPad & iPhone games and Android games available for download. Pros: Cons: Downloadable games are available New and classic games in different genres Several ads You need to create an account to play some games paid membership to access the full version 5. Free online games (FOG) Best for: Independently developed games; Mobile browser friendly browsers Adobe Flash: Required in selected online games Game types: Online (desktop browser) and mobile (browser for phone /tablet) Free online games (FOG) allows you to play games for free on your computer and mobile device without having to download any applications. Here you will find a selection of 3D games, action games, defense games, driving games, flying games, multiplayer games and more. While the most popular games on this site tend to be more action-oriented, you can still find classic games like sudoku and chess by searching for them using the search bar at the top of the screen. In addition, you can browse games by category in the More Games tab. During the time I spent on FOG, I saw some ads for other games on the site, as well as video ads during breaks in gameplay. Although I had to disable ad blocker to play, the ads I saw were not enough to be a major part of the experience on this site. If you want, you can create a free account using your email address, username and password to track your progress and rank on high rating boards. But it is not required to play games on the site. Pros: Cons: Mobile versions of games are available without having to download apps A large variety of games and categories Several video ads You need to disable ad blocker to play 6. Kongregate Best For: Independently developed games, applications and communities Adobe Flash: Required for selected online games Game types: Online (computer browser) and mobile phone (App Store, Google Play) Kongregate offers over 128,000 online games in many categories including action, multiplayer, adventure, strategy and puzzle. Like Big Fish Games, you need to create an account to play multiple games on this site. Still, it is completely free and easy to create. When you visit the desktop version of the site while playing games, you'll see ads at the top and bottom of the page, as well as a few of them on the home page. For me, they did not have a drastic effect on the overall experience. If you visit the mobile version of the site, you will be redirected to the app store to download games to your device. Independent game developers can also upload games to Kongregate, giving you access to thousands of unique titles. Pros: Cons: Chat with other players during gameplay Independently developed games All content is available for free with your account You need to create an account to play games must be downloaded as game apps on your mobile device 7. MiniClip Best for: Multiplayer; 1-on-1 games (one-on-one) Adobe Flash: Required in select online games Game types: Online (desktop browser) and mobile (phone/tablet browser, App Store, Google Play) If you're a fan of multiplayer games or you're going head-to-head to another MiniClip may be worth checking out. You can create a free account to track your high scores, get to the leaderboards and add friends, but you don't have to: You can play most online games as a guest without having to log in. As I played the game on MiniClip, a few popup ads popped up, but otherwise, the site wasn't littered with banner ads. When I visited the online version of the website, I could choose whether I wanted to play free games immediately or browse the available selection of apps for the device I was using. Pros: Cons: Mobile games available online and as apps Large selection of multiplayer games Some 8 pop-up ads. While browsing the available games, I discovered that some full versions were available for free, while other games were only available as free trials or pay-to-play options. You can click the Free tab online to filter the results. If your ads really annoy you, MSN Games is a safe place to play. By the time I was on this site, I didn't have to sit through any video ads. You can visit the website on your phone or tablet and play the available games for free in your browser, but the format was not the best for my iPhone. On a tablet or device with a larger screen, I think games will run much smoother. Still, many games were available as downloadable apps. Pros: Cons: No video ads Large selection of classic and new games Not required Account Some games are only available as free trials or pay-to-play Mobile site may not be formatted correctly for your 9 device. Although there were a few ads on the home screen and during gameplay, I was able to leave adblocker running for a few games before being asked to turn it off. Video ads appeared periodically during gameplay interruptions, but I didn't feel it took away from the overall experience. When the site is available on mobile devices, the Adobe Flash app is installed to play any of the games on that page. Pros: Cons: Online games and download There is no account required to play Some ads Very limited mobile experience Final Thoughts Finally, there are dozens of websites that you can visit to find free online games.
