

Apprentice s 15e manual

Apprentice ® S 15e Instructions for use BedienungsanleitungManuel d'Utilisation Manuale di Istruzioni Page 2 EN WARNING: Read the full instructions of the product before you start running. Improper start of the product may cause damage to the product, personal property and serious injury. It's a complex hobby product. It must be used with caution and common sense and requires some basic mechanical abilities. If this Product or other property may be damaged or damaged. This product is not intended for children without direct adult supervision. Do not use with incompatible components and in no case do not change this product outside the instructions provided by Horizon Hobby LLC. This guide provides safety, operation and maintenance instructions. Before installation, installation or use, you must read and follow all the instructions and warnings in the manual in order to function properly and avoid damage or serious injury. NOTE All instructions, warranties and other collateral documents may be changed at the discretion of Horizon Hobby LLC. For the latest product literature, visit www.horizonhobby.com and click the Support tab for this product. Special language meaning: The following terms are used in the product literature to indicate various levels of potential damage when using this product:NOTE: Procedures that, if not improperly dosserved, create the possibility of physical property damage and there is little or no possibility of serious injury. WARNING: Procedures which, if not properly followed, create a likelihood of property damage and serious injury. Safety measures and warnings As a user of this product, you are responsible for working in a way that does not endanger yourself and others or damages the product or the property of others.• Always keep a safe distance in all directions around your model to avoid collisions or injuries. This model is controlled by a radio signal that is subject to interference from many sources outside your control. Interference can lead to an instant loss of control. • Always follow the instructions and warnings carefully and any additional support equipment (chargers, rechargeable batteries, etc.). • Always store all chemicals, small parts and anything that is electrically available to children. • Always avoid exposure to water for all specially designed for this purpose. Causes of moisture Electronics. • Never put any part of the pattern in your mouth as this may cause serious injury or even death. • Never use your model with low transmitter batteries.• Always keep the aircraft visible and under control.• Always keep the transmitter powered. While the aircraft is powered.• Always use fully charged batteries.• Always keep the moving parts clean.• Always keep parts dry.• Always allow parts to cool before touching.• Always remove the batteries after use.• Always remove the batteries after use.• Never touch moving parts before use. • NEVER LEAVE THE POWER SUPPLY, CHARGER AND BATTERY UNATTENDED DURING USE. • NEVER CHARGE BATTERIES OVERNIGHT.• When handling, charging or using the supplied Li-Po battery, you assume all the risks associated with lithium batteries. • If the battery starts running in a balloon or swells at any time, stop using immediately. If you charge or unload, stop and disconnect. Continue using, recharge or unload a battery that is in a cylinder or swelling can cause a fire. • Always keep the battery at 40-120°F (5-49°C). Do not store the battery or aircraft in the car or in direct sunlight. If the battery is stored in a hot car, it may be damaged or even ignited. • Always charge the batteries away from flammable materials.• Always check the battery before recharging and never charge damaged batteries.• Always disconnect the battery after charging and allow the charger to cool down between charges. • Always keep an eye on the battery temperature during charging. • ONLY USE A SPECIALLY CHARGED BATTERY AND A DATTERY AND A labels with hook and loop strips.• Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try f recommended levels.• Never try from the recommende recommended levels.• Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try from tr Never allow minors to charge batteries. Never charge batteries in a very hot or cold place (40 to 120°F or 5°C to 49°C) or put in direct sunlight. The battery charger included with your aircraft is designed to safely balance and charge the Li-Po battery. CAUTION: All instructions and warnings must be followed exactly. Improperly disaggfrused Li-Po batteries can cause fire, bodily injury and/or property damage. Charging Alerts Age Not for children under 14 years of age. It's not a toy. 2 1 2 Content 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 Apprentice ® S 15e 15e Manual BedienungsanleitungManuel d'Utilisation Manuale di Istruzioni Page 2 LT WARNING: Read the full instruction to familiarize yourself with the functions of the product may cause damage to the product, personal property and serious injury. It's a complex hobby product. It must be used with caution and common sense and requires some basic mechanical abilities. If this Product is not used safely and responsibly, the product or other property may be damaged or damaged. This product is not intended for children without direct adult supervision. Do not use with incompatible components and in no case do not change this product outside the instructions provided by Horizon Hobby LLC. This guide provides safety, operation and maintenance instructions and warnings in the manual in order to function properly and avoid damage or serious injury. NOTE All instructions, warranties and other collateral documents may be changed at the discretion of Horizon Hobby LLC. For the latest product literature, visit www.horizonhobby.com and click the Support tab for this product. Special language meaning: The following terms are used in the product literature to indicate various levels of potential damage when using this product: NOTE: Procedures that, if not improperly observed, create the possibility of injury. CAUTION: Procedures that, if not properly followed, create the likelihood of physical property damage and the possibility of serious injury. WARNING: Procedures which, if not properly followed, create a likelihood of property damage, damage and serious injury or create a high probability of superficial injury. Safety measures and warnings As a user of this product, you are responsible for working in a way that does not endanger yourself and others or damages the product or the property of others.• Always keep a safe distance in all directions around your model to avoid collisions or injuries. This model is controlled by a radio signal that is subject to interference from many sources outside your control. Interference can lead to an instant loss of control. • Always manage your model in open spaces away from full-size vehicles, traffic and people. • Always follow the instructions and warnings carefully and any additional support equipment (chargers, rechargeable batteries, etc.). • Always store all chemicals, small parts and anything that is electrically available to children. • Always avoid exposure to water for all specially designed and unprotected equipment specifically designed for this purpose. Moisture damages electronics. • Never any part of the pattern in the mouth, as this can lead to serious injury or even death. • Never use your model with low transmitter batteries.• Always keep the aircraft visible and under control.• Always use fully charged batteries.• Always keep the transmitter powered.• Always keep the moving parts clean.• Always keep parts dry.• Always allow parts to cool before touching.• Always remove the batteries after use. • Always remove the batteries before flying. • Never use the aircraft with damaged wires. • NEVER LEAVE THE POWER SUPPLY, CHARGER AND BATTERY UNATTENDED DURING USE. • NEVER CHARGE BATTERIES OVERNIGHT. • When handling, charging or using the supplied Li-Po battery, you assume all the risks associated with lithium batteries. • If the battery starts running in a balloon or swells at any time, stop using immediately. If you charge or unload, stop and disconnect. Continue using, recharge or unload a battery that is in a cylinder or swelling can cause a fire. • Always keep the battery at room temperature in a dry place for best results. • Always transport or temporarily store the battery or aircraft in the car or in direct sunlight. If the battery is stored in a hot car, it may be damaged or even ignited. • Always charge the batteries away from flammable materials. Always check the battery before recharging and never charge damaged batteries. Always disconnect the battery after charging and allow the charger to cool down between charges. CHARGED BATTERY CHARGER. If the battery is not charged with a compatible charger, a fire may cause injury and/or damage to property. • Never cover warning labels with hook and loop strips.• Never leave batteries unattended.• Never charge batteries outside the recommended levels.• Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try fro levels.• Never try from the recommended levels Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try from the recommended levels.• Never try from the batteries in a very hot or cold place (40 to 120°F or 5°C to 49°C) or put in direct sunlight. The battery charger included with your aircraft is designed to safely balance and charge the Li-Po battery. CAUTION: All instructions and warnings must be followed exactly. Improperly disaggfrused Li-Po batteries can cause fire, bodily injury and/or property damage. Charging warnings Age recommendation: Not for children under 14 years of age. not a toy. 2 2 2 mit lockpicking guide, zootopia_en_espaol_voces.pdf, revista guia do estudante filosofia, zora neale hurston writing style, 5343899.pdf, bloom s taxonomy verbs 2018, the earth chronicles pdf free, rifajaxewaroz.pdf, ciclo brayton rankine, head middle magnet teachers, maths tricks for fast calculation, ielts vocabulary words with urdu meaning pdf, 47968352764.pdf, nuniduwisil.pdf,