Dan and phil vday video

Here's a timeline I've put together, based on a lot of digging tweets and tumblr posts from that day. I haven't added a lot of receipts since it was a long time ago and I don't want to throw the spotlight on someone who was involved, who didn't want to be dragged into it. But if you want more details, feel free to pm me! (All times are UK time) About 12:45 p.m. - The video was private. As of 3 p.m., Deppy was still seemingly unaware of the shortage, as Phil calmly tweeted to another YouTuber about how some people seem to be having a subscription box of issues and he hopes that his will be resolved soon. 3:40 p.m. - The video was deleted from YouTube, so we can assume it's around when Deppy found out about it. Before 3:58 p.m. - Dan posted two responses to a Tumblr post containing a link to the video. His answers basically said that the video was made by troll people, but they decided not to upload. 3:57 p.m. - Dan tweeted something harmless about playing Mario Kart (presumably flooding people with timeliness responses so as not to debate the video). About 4:15 p.m. - Dan responded to a tweet about Voldy saying nothing is (though I don't understand what exactly he said, and he may have deleted that tweet pretty quickly). By 4:37 p.m. - Dan was dm'd person who downloaded the video, asking him to take down all the links and stop sharing. (So, while publicly he was tweeting the usual fun stuff while playing Mario Kart, he was privately tracking down who accurately downloaded the video and ensuring it didn't spread beyond.) About 5:30 p.m. - Dan tweeted another harmless tweet that said: Phil * breaks into the room * What's wrong?!! Dan:... I sang a ketchup song. About 9pm - Dan made his Truth or Dare video available to watch (it was uploaded some time ago, but apparently there was some problem where you could only check it out if you had an account? So he finally fixed that). About 9:15 p.m. - Dan went to Vyou and answered a bunch of questions over the next two hours. 10:04 - (six hours after Deppy presumably thought about deprivation), Phil broke his silence, so to speak, tweeting about the weird ad on Facebook: And he responded with five tweets - Submission: There was some discussion last night about what was said in exactly the Valentine's Day video and I thought I'd deliver a transcript. :D * Good valentinipäeva.ma know you said we weren't going to do anything for Valentine's Day, but you had to go to bed, leave me for five hours without doing anything. So, I've made this video because I love you, and I've never had Valentine's Day with anyone before. It's me who says, I love you. Plus, you brought me a lot of awesome birthday gifts, and I wanted to repay you somehow because it was The nicest anyone's ever done for me. When we first met, I was the most nervous person you could say, and I clawed at you and bit you, but it was just because I really liked you, and luckily you saw it. And then when we were on the big bike, I was like, I really hope he likes me, too. And then you kissed me and my heart did this flippy-over thing, and it never did that before, so... That was nice. And over the next few months, we saw each other a lot, and I slowly fell in love with you. And I thought I'd share my favorite memories I have of us together. So the first one is on a snowy day at all, when we walked through an abandoned hospital. And you had a hat on, you were lying in the snow looking at the stars. And I was lying next to you and kissing you and writing in the snow I love Dan. Endless coffee at Starbucks, caramel macchiato and our Starbucks couch... The week we spent together in our house was amazing, so I guess I fell in love with you. And when we looked at Wall-E on my couch and then cried. All the cuddles in bed and three-hour breakfast, more of them please. Lying on the couch watching movies, lying in my bed and in funny times in my bed. Also in the Halloween collection, when we realized that no other YouTubers actually eat, so we went and got food and then sat in the fountain. At that point, I kind of realized that I didn't really care about other YouTubers, I just wanted to spend time with you. And we held hands and then we kissed and looked at the stars. And if we can't be together, all the hundreds of hours of Skype calls we've had have made me eight million times happier. And when I woke you up and said, Mario! And all our Manchester days, and watching Avatar in 3D and kissing 3D glasses, and... So many other things that I'm probably forgetting, but these are just some that make me smile. Meow.and I want to say that I love you so much, and I'm so glad you're in my life, and... You're the best person in the world. So thank you for so amazing. I love you. Happy Valentine's Day, Dan.-----aw thank you! * Pheels * Valentine's Day Video (also known as vday vid or video that is not named) is a video that

Phil made in February 2010 with Dan on Valentine's Day Day. It uploaded privately by LessAmazingPhil on February 13 2010 and he and Dan both commented on it. The video includes Phil talking to the camera reading Phil's favorite memories of Dan so far and saying how much he loves him. On September 17 2011 the video was accidentally unprivated by a Youtube glitch and fans saw it and thought it was real. Dan and Phil then told everyone that they made a video of the prank and were planning to accidentally unprivate it on April 1st 2010 troll escorts and make them all think it was real and then they're going to release another video going haha we'll cheat on you!! But they decided not to go through this plan because they decided it was mean and that a lot of people probably wouldn't get a joke. Everything was pretty calm after that because there was nowhere near as many fans back then as there are now. But in October 2012, someone posted a video on tumblr tags without saying that Dan and Phil had said it was a prank and everyone started spreading and saying Phil was real and shit hit the fan because everyone went crazy about it. Dan responded to heaps of messages on tumblr saying it was a prank and blah blah blah and Phil got every copy of it that he could find, deleting the claim for copyright to it. After that, anyone who posted a video or other things that implied Phil was real, danisnotonfire, dan howell, amazing phil lester tags tumblr could heap anger on people saying: OMG THEY DONT WANT THIS ONLINE DONT BE SO RUDE PHAN ISNT REAL YOU'RE AN IDIOT!! and would basically get attacked and bullied for it. It all got pretty messy. Many of them ended up either getting reported on tumblr enough that they were shutting down, asking Dan to stop (and did) or were harassed by people so much that they decided to delete their accounts. Here's an example of Dan's explanation in the video: Here are my problems with this: 1. Who's going to april fools day prank 2 months in advance? I mean, really? I'm not planning an April day prank 1 day in advance, let alone 2 months. 2. If they made the decision not to go through the prank (sometime between February 13, 2010 and March 31, 2010), why don't they delete the video so nothing like this happens? Or even after 1st, why didn't Phil delete it at some point at that time? 3rd In the answer above, Dan says how you have to think Phil would upload that amazingphil - he didn't load it amazingphil he uploaded it to lessamazingphil, which is where the prank idea starts to seem strange. When the video was made to prank subscribers, did it have uploaded it to amazingphil - its main channel, which was hell on many more subscribers - instead of the less astonishing phil, where the video was actually uploaded, and much fewer people would have seen it? 4. Also in Dan's response, he says he thinks Phil would upload that amazingphil if he wanted it to be private - he didn't want it to be private, which is why he set the video private and why the video remained private until over a year later, in September 2011, when you glitched and caused it to unprivate. The reason he uploaded it to private. is simply sending a video of Dan in person or giving him a card or telling it to him personally on Valentine's Day was because at the time, Dan was in India on a family vacation so they didn't see each other or exchange cards/gifts in person. The reason he needed to put it on youtube to send it to him was because back in early 2010 sharing video over the Internet, especially mac (like Phil's) windows (like Dan's), without Youtube, was almost impossible. There was no such thing as Dropbox or Google drives to share videos and the video file would have been too big as an attachment to the email from Dan. Youtube was the only way he would successfully be able to get a video of Dan without a problem and it still surprises. He could have given her a usb before he left telling her to watch it on Valentine's Day, but then there is no guarantee that Dan would listen and wait, and it takes away the surprise video, because then obviously it has nothing to do with Valentine's Day. Also in the video, Phil says he decided to do it because Dan had to sleep and left him for 5 hours to do something. In other words, it was a spur of the moment thing and because of the time limit for having it up before Dan woke up on Valentine's Day, he needed something he knew would do it right away, so he decided to trust the youtube privacy settings (and they held a fine for over a year) and just in case he uploaded it to lessamazingphil instead of the amazing phil so if nothing did happen and it leaked, a lot less people would see it if it was his main channel. 5. The video itself has so many details that are built out of the real things, the things that actually happened. Almost every thing in that video is connected to a dailybooth or a tweet or video where they mentioned things that happen in the video. In addition, Phil went to the trouble of even drawing his clothes to match the clothes they wore every day he was talking in the video. their clothes ffs. If it was just some silly little prank troll escorts, then he wouldn't bother going that many details because hardly any people watching would have even noticed. Only because we're analyzing it will we notice such little details. 6. Since Dan was in India at the time (and had been a little while earlier), that means the whole video was Phil's way. He had to hand it, film, edit it, draw pictures for it, and then put it all together and export it. It's a lot of trouble for some prank that they don't even bother going through. And for me, it doesn't feel like Phil's style. Under Dan's influence, I saw Phil go along with it, but Dan would be the one who would make it happen. But Phil on his own, I just. to see him as the kind of person who'd prank his subscribers like that. 7th If it's a prank, and they always planned for it to be a prank, and they filmed and upload it 2 months in advance, you'd think that if they were filming the video, they would also film HAHA to cheat on you! video at the same time (or at least soon after) that people would believe them it was a prank (because the date would say that the video was uploaded on the same day). However, this video does not seem to exist anywhere and never has. 8th There is also the fact that they are constantly trying to destroy something that is in the video or is proof the video is real. There was another blog, called Phanlentine's, which went into extreme detail about all the things associated with the Valentine's Day video.. but the blog was removed by Phil (gee Phil, why so eager to keep all this buried?). However, before removing it, I saved the page as a PDF file because I was worried that it would be removed. So if you want to see it, click here. This was done in August 2013 when the blog was first finished, so there were some things that were changed and updated between me recording and blog deleted, but it's better than nothing if you're curious. (Don't click content page links in PDF because they will take you to a deleted blog) If you want to watch the video, I'm sorry, but I no longer have it on my blog due to ongoing copyright issues and Phil having to remove it. Remove.
