CSET art practice issues assess your knowledge throughout the field of art and expression, as well as history, culture and art theory. Part of your class is based on your art portfolio. What is a CSET art exam? The California Subject Exams for Teachers (CSET) were designed and conducted as a major step in the California state teacher credentials process. The CSET arts exam is specific to future teaching candidates who want to teach art in California public schools. The CSET arts exam, which consists of two partial exams, was designed to ensure California students receive a highly effective, high-quality education across the board. If you are trying to become an art teacher in the state of California, you may be required to pass a CSET Art exam. The CSET arts exam is just one part of the credential process for potential California teachers. To meet all the necessary criteria, check with the administrators of your state-approved teacher training program and the California Commission for Teacher Credentials before registering for the CSET Art exam. The CSET Art test consists of two sub-tests. You'll pay $133 for subtest I and $134 for Subtest II, or $267 if decide to submit both sub-tests. The cancellation of the tests must be completed at least 24 hours before the scheduled date of the test. Once you have submitted your withdrawal request, you will receive a full refund within four weeks of your request. If you do not cancel the test, show up or neglect to submit a withdrawal form, you will not receive a refund. What is the passing score for the CSET Art Exam? The passing score for the CSET art exam is 220 per subtest. In fact, 220 is the passing score for all CSET subtests. Your official score report will be available within 7 weeks of the scheduled test date. If you do not receive the score you need to pass the CSET Art exam, you can pass each subtest as many times as necessary. What does the CSET Art test cover? The CSET Art test consists of two sub-tests (140 and 141). Both sub-tests are computer tests (CBTs) consisting of 50 multi-choice questions and 4 constructed answers apiece. You will receive 2 hours and 45 minutes per test, a total of 5 hours and 30 minutes for the whole test (consisting of both sub-tests). It is important to note that Subtest II also requires the presentation of an artistic portfolio. Make sure you come prepared with high-quality photographic representations of your artworks to present at the test center on exam day. Each CSET Art sub-test refers to content relevant to standards relating to specific educational areas. Domains, number of multi-choice questions and constructed answers and basic content are as follows: Subtest I:Aesthetic valuation, 20 multi-choice questions, 1 extended built answer to questionsDeriving meaning, decision making informed judgments, etc. Cultural and historical context of fine art and artistic perception, 15 multi-choice questions, 1 short (targeted) built answer To the questionArt and society, world art, etc. Artistic perception, 15 multi-choice questions, 1 short (focused) built answer, 1 short (focused) art drawings, design principles, etc. Subtest II: Creative expression, 30 multi-choice questions, 1 extended (portfolio) built answer to a question, 1 short (focused) built-in answer, 1 short (focused) drawingCreation of original art, two-dimensional art and design, three-dimensional art and design, media, emerging art forms, etc. Connections, applications, relationships, 10 multi-choice questions, 1 short (targeted) built-in answer To questions and links between fine arts and external disciplines, visual literacy, art-related careers, etc. History and theory of learning in art, 10 multi-choice questionsTheories of learning in art, art and human development, etc. Test Preparation Now that you have a better understanding of expectations, and the basic structure of the CSET art exam, what's next?
