As soon as planting is taken care of, it's time to think about the spray. We upgraded the spray this year, but we have time to learn about the new machine as the fields dry up once again. Dad does all the spraying and it's usually happening as we sort and transport cattle to summer pasture. I'm going to let the corrals dry up another day and then we're going to go in and we're going to take all the cattle to the grass. knopnews2.com — By NORTH PLATTE, Neb.
