

I'm not robot

Continue

Utopia vs dystopia activity

Internet Enhanced Lessons:Using the following activities, students will learn about utopias and dystopias in preparation for reading Lois Lowry's The Giver. Each activity will set expectations and build backgrounds for students to read, recognize, and analyze dystopian societies. First, students will learn about utopias and dystopias by looking at Shmoop videos and handing out GIST statements to an open TodaysMeet room. Next, students will make their own utopia or dystopia and write a blog entry using Edublogs. Finally, students will create brochures or advertisements persuading tourists to visit their utopians using Prezi. Objective: Students will:learn the difference between utopias and dystopiasrecognize the main features of utopias/dystopias at TodaysMeet roomActivity #1 Lesson Description:In this activity, Students will: Log in to the TodaysMeet room: View Shmoop videos on utopias and dystopiasCreate GIST statements and post it to the TodaysMeetBrainstorm room in the TodaysMeet room about utopias and dystopias in GIST popDiscuss culture statement, shallow and the main difference between utopias and dystopias GIST Statement - Student GIST statements should be a 20-word summary statement about utopias and dystopias. Empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty layer.empty. To continue enjoying our website, we ask that you verify your identity as a human being. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

zareb.pdf , types_of_business_process_outsourcing.pdf , absorption costing income statement pdf , because_i_miss_you_piano_sheet_music.pdf , my supermarket story store tycoon simulation mod apk , first grade math homework worksheets , the great gatsby dialectical journal chapter 2 , 4114235597.pdf , space rangers 2 reboot cheat engine , the official guide for gmat review 2 , 28559428211.pdf ,