It is the southernmost of the three high schools in the city run by Peoria Public Schools. Manuel opened in 1909 and moved from his Lincoln Avenue site to a new building at 811 S. Griswold in January 1963. Manuel's nickname is the Rams and the school colors are orange and black. In the 1950s and early 1960s, Manuel was a central powerhouse in Illinois football. Manuel was undefeated in 1958, 1959, 1960 and 1962 in the mid-state conference eight. The highlight of the season was the traditional Turkey Day Thanksgiving match against Peoria High School, often attracting 10,000 to Peoria Stadium (where all Peoria High School home games were played). During those years, there were no state football playoffs. Ken Hinrichs was the football coach and is in the Illinois Coaches Hall of Fame. His record of winning at Manuel over 17 years was 121-40-7 ( 75%). This record is the strongest ever compiled by a sector coach with a mandate of more than ten years. Manuel won the IHSAA State Boys Basketball Title in 1930 and four consecutive Class 2A titles in 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997. The 1994 team was coached by Dick Van Sycoc. The 1995-97 teams were coached by Wayne McClain. Former textbooks are numerous and are involved in all walks of work in Peoria and elsewhere. In recent years, Manuel increases student enrollment. In the years that passed enrollment got as few as 450 students. Now he's back to what he was in the past with 1,200 students for the next school year. Manual High School improved its test results during the year 2009-2010 to respond to the federal safe harbor. A centenary celebration of the meeting weekend of the meeting centennial meeting took place from Friday to Sunday, September 11 to 13, 2009.
