This patent task (hereinafter assignment) is made and entered by and between [Date of Insertion] (effective date): [Name of assignor] [Add assignor address] (assignor) AND [Add assignee name] [Add assignee address] (assignee) CONSIDERING that the determinant is the sole and lawful owner of certain ideas, inventions, their patent applications and patents (hereinafter collectively, patents) submitted in the exhibition annexed to this document; Whereas the inventor wishes to purchase or acquire the acquirer's right, ownership and interest in and in patents; WHEREAS the assignor and the investor are both duly authorized and able to enter into this task. Thus, for a valuable fee, the receipt of which is confirmed, the parties agree on the following: TASK 1. The assignor hereby sells, determines, transfers and transfers to the acquirer [Amount of Annex]% of his right, ownership and interest in patents granted to the assignee for the entire duration and re-issue or renewal of patents and for any patent, reprint or extension terms that may be issued from foreign applications, parts, continuations in whole or in part, or replacement applications in favour of patents. The law, title and interest involved in this task belong to the successors to assignee and assignee as fully and exclusively as it would have been and enjoyed by the determinant if that task had not been carried out. The Assignor authorizes the United States Patent and Trademark Office and other applicable jurisdictions located outside the United States to register the transfer of patent and/or patent applications filed at Exhibit A as recipients of assignee's right, ownership and interest. In addition, the assignor agrees: (a) cooperates with the investor in the protection of patent rights and in prosecuting and protecting foreign contractors; (b) complete, verify, recognise and hand over all such supporting documents, including patent applications and transfer documents; and (c) perform any other action that the investor may lawfully require in order to obtain or maintain patents and invention applications and registrations in any country. 2. WARRANTY. The assignor confirms that the assignor is the lawful owner of all rights, property rights and interests of patents, that the patents have not previously been pledged, assigned or encumbered and that this task does not infringe the rights of any person. 3. APPLICABLE LAW. This task is regulated and must be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the [Insert State]. 4. THE WHOLE CONTRACT. This task is the sole consent of the parties and replaces all oral negotiations and previous written topic here. 5. SEPARABILITY. If one or more of the provisions of this Task are deemed unenforceable under the applicable law, the Parties agree to renegotiate that provision in good faith. If the parties are unable to achieve a mutually agreed and enforceable replacement of such a provision, (i) such a provision shall be excluded from this assignment, (ii) the balance of the assignment shall be interpreted as excluding such a provision and (iii) the balance of the assignment shall be enforceable under its terms. 6. ADVISING THE ADVISER. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT, IN THE PERFORMANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT, SUCH CONTRACTING PARTY HAS HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO SEEK THE ADVICE OF AN INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVISER AND HAS READ AND UNDERSTOOD ALL THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN RESPECT OF ANY CONTRACTING PARTY AS A RESULT OF THE DRAWING UP OR PREPARATION OF THIS AGREEMENT. IN WITNESS, where the assignor and the investor have fulfilled the date of entry into force of this Agreement. TERMINANT: _____ [Add Determinant Name] ASSIGNEE: _____ Date: _____

Exhibition 10.1. 20120626 – EXECUTION COPY Agreement Reference No L126670 PATENT ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT (Agreement) with effective date and date as defined below, International BUSINESS MACHINES CORPORATION, New York Company (IBM) and ULTRATECH (BUYER), Delaware Company, WHEREAS IBM is entitled to the designated patents as defined below, whereas IBM, with a reservation of certain rights, has sought to transfer its ownership in designated patents and the buyer wishes to acquire such ownership in designated patents. Therefore, taking into account the premises and reciprocal agreements contained here, IBM and BUYER agree on the following: Section 1. Task 1.1 Taking into account all rights granted to others before Actual time and date, reservation of the right to the patent in Section 2 of IBM and conditions set out in section 3.1. IBM sell, transfers and assigns to the BUYER, in actual time and dates, all rights, property rights and interests and the patents and patents J granted by IBM from the date and date of entry into force, including the right to sue for an injunction and damages for any infringement of the designated patent, including, but not limited to, any damage stemming from an earlier infringement accumulated before the date and date of entry into force. 1.2 The Buyer shall be solely liable for all acts and expenses, including, but not limited to, taxes, lawyers' fees and fees of the Patent Office in any jurisdiction related to the perfection of the BUYER's right, ownership and interest against each designated Patent and its registration. In the case of designated patents pending or issued in the United States of America, IBM shall, at the time and date of entry into force, hand over to the BUYER by fax a copy of the completed document bearing the form and content of Exhibit D and its referenced Exhibits A and C (annexed in accordance with this Regulation and also titled Exhibits A and C). The execution of such documents by IBM and their timely transfer to the BUYER shall fully comply with IBM's obligations under this Section 1.2 in relation to designated patents pending or issued in the United States. In the case of designated patents pending or issued outside the United States, IBM BUYER shall, upon written request and at the buyer's expense, on the basis of IBM's current rate schedule for the employees concerned, complete all documents and instruments prepared by the BUYER and perform all legal acts that may reasonably be necessary to improve the buyer's right, ownership and interest in such designated patents and their registration, provided that no later than ninety (90) days after the effective date and no later than fifteen (15) days before the buyer's expected date of registration, the BUYER submits to IBM all documents requiring IBM's signature suitable for storage with conditions acceptable to IBM and substantially similar to exhibition D, except for any additional or different conditions that would be legally necessary, patent assignments of local jurisdiction. The BUYER shall provide IBM with an English translation of each such document at the same time. 1.3 The BUYER shall be solely responsible for all acts and expenses, including attorney's fees and fees of the Patent Office in any jurisdiction with a due date of entry into force or date and related to: (i) maintaining, if any, the enforceability of the patents and Exhibits J patents granted; or (ii) further prosecution of any designated patent, and J Patents, inventors of patents and Exhibits J granted by IBM shall not be obliged to assist in the prosecution or preservation of designated patents or J/23 exhibits J Patents, or to fill in or have completed additional oaths or declarations after the date and date of entry into force, unless this is necessary for the performance of designated patent applications or exhibited J patents, if any, with missing parts. 1.4 Except in the case of designated patents and Patents J, expressly provided for in this Agreement, no license, immunity, property right or other right shall be granted under the Agreement, directly or indirectly, with stoppage or otherwise. 1.5 Notwithstanding point 1.3, the Parties acknowledge that the prosecution of designated patent applications and Exhibits J patents after the effective date may require the assistance of IBM employees who are the inventors of such applications (IBM Inventors). If the BUYER wishes such IBM Inventors to provide such prosecution assistance, the BUYER will request it and describe in writing the assistance requested from IBM. Provided that such IBM Inventor has at its disposal relevant information which is not otherwise publicly available and provided that IBM Inventor is still working at IBM at the time such application is made, IBM will authorize such IBM Inventors to cooperate with the buyer on any designated patent application to which such IBM Inventor is the inventor, at the purchaser's expense, in accordance with IBM's then IBM Inventors Engineering Services Tariffs. The nature of the consultations shall be limited to the development of the details of the inventor's invention, the dates of the invention, the extent (if any) of the involvement of the joint inventors, the revision of the specification and the requirements for the accuracy and identification of the earlier art, which may need to be disclosed to the government body where the corresponding patent application has been filed (under the relevant disclosure obligations). Such aid in no way extends to matters which would require IBM's inventors to be disadvantaged to IBM's legal or commercial interests. IBM is not responsible for the correctness of the statements or information provided by IBM Inventors. Section 2. Reserved rights 2.1 IBM reserves and retains for its own benefit and for the benefit of its subsidiaries and its successors in title and determines irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully paid-in, royalty-free, statutory and licensed patents and Exhibits J patents to make, use, import, import, license, sell, lease and otherwise transfer any product or service, and practice and have practiced any method, such reserved right and license shall include the right to sub-license without prior notice accounting to the same or lesser extent: (a) any entry which, at the time of date of entry into force, or subsequently becomes a subsidiary of IBM or a subsidiary of one of IBM's subsidiaries, such sub-licenses, including the right of sub-licensed subsidiaries to sub-license and survive to their subsidiaries, where any such subsidiary is Spun Out and ceases to be a subsidiary of IBM; (b) any third parties in respect of which IBM or one of its subsidiaries has or will be obliged to grant or otherwise grant a license, immunity, non-appeal or similar right under any designated patents and Exhibits J patents, where such obligation or obligation is based on any agreement in force before the date of entry into force or on any promise, representation, action or action before the date of entry into force; but only to the extent necessary to fulfil an existing obligation or obligation; and (c) third parties to whom IBM or one of its subsidiaries transfers an unnamed product or a designated product at the time of entry into force or thereafter, where the designated product has: (a) existed for at least 3 (three) years prior to the transfer of that line, service line or subsidiary to a third party; or (b) IBM has reimbursed a third party for the action and IBM is liable for any costs, costs, court decisions, settlements or other remedial measures incurred by the third party in the event of an appeal by Ultratech. 2.2 IBM reserves and retains, for its own benefit and in the interests of its subsidiaries and their successors in title, and grants, free of charge, an irrevocable, non-adjacent, fully paid-in worldwide, royalty-free right to grant third parties protection against a suit under each patent granted and exhibit J's patent if: (a) the case is based on product 23 or services provided by IBM or its subsidiaries, or designs of IBM or its subsidiaries, (b) the suit is based on a product or service design created by IBM or its subsidiaries before the effective date and date, (c) the suit is based on a product or service design created by IBM or its subsidiaries under an agreement in force before and before the effective date, or (d) if such a suit is suitable if it is filed by IBM, IBM would breach a commitment or not to sue before the effective date. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in paragraph 2.2 of this Section 2.1 shall in any way prejudice the provisions of paragraph 2.1 of this Agreement. 2.3 IBM reserves and retains, in the interests of itself and its subsidiaries and their successors in title, and assigns all rights to past, current and future royalties and other fees granted or granted in exchange for rights in respect of any designated patent or patent of Exhibit J arising out of or accruing under agreements entered into by IBM or IBM subsidiaries before or before the date of entry into force. IBM's additional reserves and will maintain all royalties and other considerations resulting from the under any exemption, licence, sub-licence, immunity or other right granted by IBM or its subsidiaries in accordance with points 2.1, 2.2 and 2.6. 2.4 The BUYER shall not interfere with: (i) agreements or contractual relations between IBM and its Licensees in relation to the patents and Exhibits J patents granted (but only in respect of those agreements and contractual relationships which entitle the Licensee to the status of Licensee) or to obtaining any right or any obligations or obligations imposed by or between IBM and its Licensees patents and Exhibits J patents (if such right, obligation or obligation exists from the date of the Agreement or arises from any rights held by IBM under this Agreement or granted to IBM) and (ii) any benefits received by IBM or the IBM licensee through such agreement or contractual relationship, the acquisition of any right or the fulfillment of obligations and obligations arising therefrom, provided that a claim for infringement of the conduct has been brought against a third party, which is not licensed or otherwise immune under a contract or agreement, for the purposes of points (i) and (ii) of paragraph 2(4) of this section, the relationship under point 2.4 (i) and (ii) of this Section shall not be considered as interfering in such a contract or contractual relationship; THE BUYER agrees not to challenge the validity and enforceability of such contracts, obligations or obligations for itself and its subsidiaries and their successors in title on the ground that they were not registered or that the BUYER, its subsidiaries or its or their successors in title were not aware of, or otherwise unaware of, such contracts, obligations or obligations. The BUYER shall assign all rights and assignments granted in respect of patents and Exhibits J patents designated by the BUYER to subjected licensees and other rights reserved by IBM under this Agreement and to contracts, rights, obligations and obligations between IBM and its Licensees. 2.5 The licensees and other rights reserved by IBM, the BUYER's obligations under this Agreement (except for the payment obligation set out in clause 3.1) and the agreements between IBM and its Licensees, with regard to rights, obligations and obligations, the BUYER agrees to compel its successors in title and to grant each designated patent and Exhibit J patent in order to comply with the same conditions as the terms of this Agreement and to ensure that IBM and its Licensees are designated as third-party beneficiaries in relation to these terms and conditions for the rights and assignments related to each designated patent and exhibit J patent, subsequent transfer. 2.6 IBM reserves the right to license or re-license licensees who, by law or for any other reason, the rights granted under patents and patents J of exhibits shall be lost as a result of the transfer or assignment of the rights of any designated patent and Exhibit J patent, due to this, where the rights granted under such a license or re-licence do not go beyond the original rights lost. 2.7 With regard to the patents and Exhibits J granted by Japan, the BUYER agrees, at its own expense and immediately after registration of the assignment of such patents in Japan, to complete and register with the Japanese Patent Office a non-exclusive license document in the form attached to Exhibit E, which IBM may amend if necessary to comply with Japanese law. 3/ 23 2.8 The BUYER shall complete all documents and instruments and perform all lawful acts that may reasonably be necessary at IBM's request to record or improve the reserved rights of IBM and its Licensees under this Agreement. All operations performed by the Buyer under this Section 2.8 only shall be carried out at IBM's expense. 2.9 If the Buyer or any designated patent or the issuer of the patent of Exhibit J submits a patent application which claims or has the right to claim the priority of any designated patent or Exhibit J patent, such patent application and its issue shall be deemed to be granted as a patent, but only for the interpretation of the buyer's obligations and rights and licenses under this Agreement (including its successors and assignors), reserved, granted or otherwise intended for IBM under this Agreement (including those rights and licenses reserved under this section on behalf of its subsidiaries, successors in title and assignors). In no case may this Section 2.9 be interpreted as extending the rights conferred on the BUYER by this Agreement. 2.10 The period of validity of the rights and licenses reserved herey is from the date and date of entry into force until the expiry of the last patent. Section 3: Payment and Communication 3.1 As a consideration for assignment to the Buyer under this Agreement, the BUYER shall pay IBM eight million dollars (8,000,000,000.00) upon signing this Agreement, some of which will not be refunded. If IBM does not receive the total payment set out in this Section 3.1 before 15:00 EDT on 29 June 2012, IBM shall be entitled to cancel this Agreement by notifying the Purchaser in writing. Payments shall be made by bank transfer to: International Business Machines Corporation PNC BANK 500 First Avenue Pittsburgh, PA 15219 Bank Account Number: 1017306369 ABA Route Number: 043000096 3.2 Each party shall pay all taxes imposed by the government, including any political subdivision thereof, in any country where the party operates, as a result of the fitting-out of that political party. Where such a tax is payable in the form of a sub-license granted by a party to any subsidiary, that party shall be liable for it. the fixing and payment of the amount of such tax or the payment of that sub-licensed subsidiary. 3.3 Notices and other notices relating to this Agreement or to any designated patent or Exhibit J patent shall be sent by fax, registered or certified mail or reputable courier to the following address. Notifications and other communications sent by fax shall take effect upon dispatch if they are followed by a confirmation sent by post within 24 (24) hours. Notices and other notices sent by post or courier shall take effect upon deposit with the postal service or courier. 4 of 23 IBM: BUYER: Licensing Chief Financial Officer IBM Corporation Ultratech, Inc. This number should be included in all telecommunications and bank transfer payments. Section 4: Other 4.1 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to confer the right to use any name, business name, trade mark, commercial trade name or other name in advertising, advertising or other promotional activities of either Party or its subsidiary. Each Party agrees not to use this Agreement or its provisions or to refer to any provision of promotion without the express written consent of the other Party. Notwithstanding the above, the Parties have agreed that the Buyer may publish a press release with the form and content of Exhibit G. IBM will authorise the publication of a press release at Exhibit G on Thursday, June 28, 2012, after the BUYER has made a payment to IBM in section 3.1. If, for any reason, the BUYER does not publish the press release on Thursday, June 28, 2012, the BUYER shall notify IBM at least two (2) working days in advance before the press release is published. 4.2 Between IBM and the BUYER, and subject to the above restrictions, OSTJA, as the acquirer of IBM's right, ownership and interest, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over each dispute arising out of or under this Agreement, including any action or action by a third party for infringement of the patent or Exhibit J patent granted, or to defend any action or specific challenge or concerning the validity of any designated patent or Exhibit J patent. 4.3 The BUYER shall indemnify and keep IBM harmless for all damages, expenses and costs (including attorney's fees) arising from the BUYER's activities in connection with the protection, enforcement or licensing of the specified patent or Exhibit J patents. Where the BUYER lodges or maintains a claim under any designated patent or Exhibit J patent for any third knowing that such third party is the Licensee, the BUYER shall indemnify such third party for any resulting damages, costs and expenses. If the third party against whom the Buyer claims infringement of the designated patent or exhibit J patent, claims that IBM has licensed or otherwise immunised it on the basis of the patent or Exhibit J patent granted for the conduct on which the claim for infringement is based, IBM agrees that, upon written request from the Buyer, which contains a detailed description of such activities and all the documents on which such a third party relies in order to support its claim if the law or contract form does not prohibit it, it will review such description and documents and submit to the Buyer, on the basis of information provided only by the Buyer, a confidential written statement of IBM's position as to whether it agrees with such a third party. The buyer agrees to reimburse IBM for all out-of-pocket costs (including lawyers' fees) it bears in connection with such a review and agrees to pay IBM tariffs for IBM's consultancy services in connection with such a review. IBM shall have the right to request additional information if it reasonably considers that the information provided by the Buyer is not sufficient to enable IBM to determine its position with regard to the third party's claim. If the Buyer does not provide such additional information or cannot provide it, IBM is under no obligation to provide IBM's position to the Buyer. IBM shall not be obliged to accept confidential information. 4.4 IBM represents and guarantees that: (a) it has full right and right to assign its rights in each of the patents granted in accordance with point 1.1, 5/ 23 (b) Michele Baumgartner-Bonanno, Director of Patent Licensing and IP Programs (but without the personal responsibility of such a person), based solely on a bona fide search of IBM's corporate patent portfolio database File, does not comply with a court order to which IBM is a party that would undermine the ownership, validity or enforceability of the patents granted. (c) Knowledge of Michele The Director of Patent Licensing and IP Programs (but without the personal responsibility of such a person), based solely on a bona fide search of the Company's Patent Monitoring Database (WPTS) and file from the actual time and date, neither IBM nor its affiliates own or verify any patent or patent application, except for a designated patent filed with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, which has applied for priority from a designated patent; (e) With the knowledge of Michele Baumgartner-Bonanno, Director of Patent Licensing and Intellectual Property Programs (but without personal responsibility attributed to such a person), based solely on a bona fide search of the FILE database of IBM's corporate patent portfolio, neither IBM nor its subsidiaries have granted patents or licenses granted to any person or entity; and (f) Michele Baumgartner-Bonanno, Director of Patent Licensing and IP Programs, (but without personal responsibility) attributed to such a person), based solely on a bona fide search of IBM's Corporate Patent Licensing Database (LFMS) on 20 June 2012, using the list of company names provided by the BUYER to IBM, neither IBM nor its subsidiaries: (1) have complied with the patent licensing agreement with the third parties listed in exhibition F1, under which IBM explicitly licensed the patents listed in Exhibits A, B and C; 2) performed a patent licence agreement with third parties specified in exhibition F2 on the basis of which IBM granted the patent licence expressly on the basis of the designated patents listed in Exhibits A, B and C, which have a priority date after the date listed in exhibition F2, or 3) performed the patent licence agreement with the third parties specified in exhibition F3 on the basis of which IBM granted the patent licence on the basis of the designated patents listed in Exhibits A, B and C, which have a priority date before the date listed in exhibition F3. The above statements shall not apply to a licensee or other granted on the basis of patents granted: (i) by law or contract, (ii) indirectly, (iii) the sale or other transfer of products or services, (iv) grants granted by a third party or through a third party, including, but not limited to, grants granted by an IBM standardisation body or licensee, (v) annexes to development, service or technology licensing agreements, or (vi) to a company not mentioned in exhibition F1, F2 and F3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM does not represent any of the applications set out in section 4 of this Section in respect of any specific expired or pending IBM dock, USPTO and/or foreign patents, or US and/or foreign patents listed in exhibition J, DOES NOT PROVIDE ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR CONTRACTS, IS NOT DIRECT OR INDIRECT, NOR IS IBM LIABLE FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OF PATENTS OR OTHER THIRD PARTY RIGHTS BY THE BUYER. 23 4.5 The Parties shall not be bound by this Agreement or any patent that IBM has signed it or has signed it on its behalf. No amendment or amendment therein shall be valid or binding on the Parties, unless it is made in writing and signed as mentioned above. 4.6 If the competent authority finds that any part of this Agreement is invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in any way for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such Part in any other respect and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue as long as the Agreement still expresses the intentions of the Parties. If any of the rights reserved by IBM is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, this Agreement shall be reconsidered at IBM's choice. 4.7 This Agreement shall be interpreted and the legal relations between the parties shall be determined in accordance with the law of the State of New York of the United States of America, since this law applies to contracts concluded and fully performed in that State, without taking into account the principles of their conflict-of-laws rules. As part of the fee set out below, each party agrees to the jurisdiction of the New York State Court in New York County and the United States Federal Court in the Southern District of New York. All parties: (i) waive all judicial rights granted by the jury; (ii) dismiss all objections to the New York venue for each of the actions set out below; and (iii) agrees to the granting of legal and fair exemptions which the aforementioned court considers appropriate. 4.8 The titles of the sections shall be inserted solely for the sake of convenience of reference and shall not be intended to form part of this Agreement or to influence its meaning or interpretation. 4.9 Each Party may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the fact that IBM assigned the patents and exhibits J granted to it to the Buyer. Either Party may use similar terms in other agreements. However, subject to the exceptions provided for in this Agreement, each Party agrees not to disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party (other than its subsidiaries) until the expiry of the last patent and exhibit J's patent without the prior written consent of the other Party. This obligation is subject to the following exceptions: disclosure is permitted: (a) if required by a government or court order or otherwise by law or applicable stock exchange rules or regulations; (b) where necessary for the enforcement of rights under this Agreement; (c) each party shall, on a confidential basis, inform anyone who has been reasonably identified by the publisher as having a legitimate need to know, (d) to the extent necessary to record the assignment of the patents of Exhibits J and the reserved rights and licences contained therein; (e) by IBM to any third party to whom IBM has an obligation not to appeal, immunity or any other right under any designated patent or patent of Exhibit J. 4.10 This Agreement and its Exhibits and their Annexes embody the parties' full understanding of the patents granted or patents of Exhibits J and shall incorporate any prior discussions between the Parties. Neither party is bound by any condition, definition, guarantee, understanding or representation in the present case, except as expressly provided for in this case. 4.11 The Parties may perform this Agreement in one or more counterparts, each of which is original and each of them together constitutes the same document. 4.12 UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL IBM BE LIABLE TO THE BUYER FOR (I) ANY BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF INFRINGEMENTS OF POINT 4.4(a), INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, BREACHES OF THE ASSURANCES AND GUARANTEES SET OUT IN POINT 4.4(b), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1, (II) FOR ALL BREACHES OF THIS AGREEMENT IN CLAUSE 4.4(a), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL FEE PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM, AS SET OUT IN POINT
3.1. THE CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF IBM FOR ALL 23 REASONS FOR ITS ACTIVITIES UNDER POINTS 4.12(a) AND (II)7) SHALL NOT EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1. EXCEPT IN THE CASES SET OUT IN POINT 4.3, NEITHER THE BUYER NOR IBM SHALL BE LIABLE FOR THE CONTRACT, THE NON-CONTRACTUAL CONTRACT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY) OR OTHER SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE STEMMING FROM THIS TITLE, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF PROFIT OR GOODWILL, INTERUPTION OF BUSINESS AND CLAIMS BY CUSTOMERS, EVEN IF THEY HAVE BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE. 4.13 Nothing contained in this Agreement or made under this Agreement shall constitute the parties to the conclusion of a joint venture, a partnership or form other party representing the other Party for any purpose or in any sense. 4.14 The last signing of this Agreement will be made by IBM in the United States and the Parties agree that the Agreement has been fulfilled in the United States of America. 4.15 Neither party shall be considered the author of this Agreement for the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. 4.16 Unless a patent-based suit or threat of patent infringement has been filed against IBM, its subsidiaries or any third party, IBM will not bring an action against Ultratech in any patent office, court or other applicable court in any country to confirm that the patents granted are invalid or unenforceable. For the avoidance of doubt, IBM shall not be prohibited from providing facts concerning validity or enforcement in any proceedings, nor shall that obligation preclude the laws of any country. 4.17 IBM's liability for the patent granted for infringement of point 4.4 is limited to an equally large part of the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to such a patent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM's liability for infringement of point 4.4 for each of these patents is fifteen (15) times higher than the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to the patent granted. IBM shall not be liable for a specific target product or service on the basis of the representation and warranty provided for in section 4.4, unless the BUYER would have been able to obtain damages or an injunction for such infringement in a patent infringement action against such product or service. 4.18 IBM shall be liable under Section 4.4 only as long as the benefit of patents and Exhibits J patents determined by the BUYER does not exceed the fee paid in section 3.1. 4.19 On behalf of it and its subsidiaries, IBM grants Ultratech and its subsidiaries a non-us patent number 7324224, fully paid-in and worldwide license to manufacture, use, import, import, offer for sale, lease, license, sell and/or otherwise deliver products and services. The above license includes the right of Ultratech to sub-license to third parties of the same scope. Each Party acknowledges that this Agreement, including its Exhibits and Annexes, has been reviewed and approved by its Legal Adviser. 8/ Section 23 Section 5 Definitions of designated patents, means patents listed (subject to point 2.9), patent applications awarded, patents issued from designated patent applications and patents which may be assigned to or after the date of entry into force. Designated patent applications refer to patent applications listed in Exhibition C which are still pending at the current time and date. Due date means the latest date on which a payment can be made or taken without payment of a penalty, surcharge or other additional payment. The effective date and date means 11:59PM Eastern Time on the day IBM receives the total payment mentioned in section 3.1. Specified product(s) means a product line, service line or subsidiary that competes (such determination on the basis of facts available at the time of delivery made by Ultratech) with an existing Ultratech product or service or with a product or service that Ultratech can demonstrate is intended to be released within 18 months of spin out. Exhibited J patents means all patents listed, issued or re-granted in the patents or applications listed in Exhibition J, including their continuations, extensions or continuations. Exhibit J patents Exhibit J shall remain a patent only for as long as it and its claims are subject to all IBM rights granted and/or reserved for patents granted and/or reserved by IBM under this Agreement. Licensee means any third party (including IBM subsidiaries) to whom IBM: (i) has granted, or is obliged to grant, licences, immunities, agreements or other rights deriving from a designated patent, or (ii) reserves the right under this Agreement to grant licences, immunities, contracts in order to not sue or other rights arising from the patent. Patent granted by Japan means a designated patent issued, granted or pending in Japan. Patents listed means patents listed in exhibition A or B of this Regulation. A patent listed by one country may or may not have a match in another country that is listed as a patent. This patent means either US patent numbers 6268660 or 6593644. Undefined product means any series of products, service lines or subsidiaries that are not specified products. Spin Out or Spun Out means after the effective date and date, IBM or its subsidiaries (the transferring party) either: (i) transfers a product or service line to a third party without transferring the subsidiary to that third party; or (ii) spins a subsidiary (by transferring it to a third party or otherwise reducing ownership or control in such a way that the subsidiary of the transferring Party is no longer the transferring entity); and where such transfer or spin off involves at least one marketed product or service on a product or service line and tangible assets with a net worth of at least USD 10 million (or USD 10,000,000), after written notification by the transferring party to either: (i) by law or contract, (ii) indirectly, (iii) the sale or other transfer of products or services, (iv) grants granted by a third party or through a third party, including, but not limited to, grants granted by an IBM standardisation body or licensee, (v) annexes to development, service or technology licensing agreements, or (vi) to a company not mentioned in exhibition F1, F2 and F3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM does not represent any of the applications set out in section 4 of this Section in respect of any specific expired or pending IBM dock, USPTO and/or foreign patents, or US and/or foreign patents listed in exhibition J, DOES NOT PROVIDE ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR CONTRACTS, IS NOT DIRECT OR INDIRECT, NOR IS IBM LIABLE FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OF PATENTS OR OTHER THIRD PARTY RIGHTS BY THE BUYER. 23 4.5 The Parties shall not be bound by this Agreement or any patent that IBM has signed it or has signed it on its behalf. No amendment or amendment therein shall be valid or binding on the Parties, unless it is made in writing and signed as mentioned above. 4.6 If the competent authority finds that any part of this Agreement is invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in any way for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such Part in any other respect and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue as long as the Agreement still expresses the intentions of the Parties. If any of the rights reserved by IBM is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, this Agreement shall be reconsidered at IBM's choice. 4.7 This Agreement shall be interpreted and the legal relations between the parties shall be determined in accordance with the law of the State of New York of the United States of America, since this law applies to contracts concluded and fully performed in that State, without taking into account the principles of their conflict-of-laws rules. As part of the fee set out below, each party agrees to the jurisdiction of the New York State Court in New York County and the United States Federal Court in the Southern District of New York. All parties: (i) waive all judicial rights granted by the jury; (ii) dismiss all objections to the New York venue for each of the actions set out below; and (iii) agrees to the granting of legal and fair exemptions which the aforementioned court considers appropriate. 4.8 The titles of the sections shall be inserted solely for the sake of convenience of reference and shall not be intended to form part of this Agreement or to influence its meaning or interpretation. 4.9 Each Party may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the fact that IBM assigned the patents and exhibits J granted to it to the Buyer. Either Party may use similar terms in other agreements. However, subject to the exceptions provided for in this Agreement, each Party agrees not to disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party (other than its subsidiaries) until the expiry of the last patent and exhibit J's patent without the prior written consent of the other Party. This obligation is subject to the following exceptions: disclosure is permitted: (a) if required by a government or court order or otherwise by law or applicable stock exchange rules or regulations; (b) where necessary for the enforcement of rights under this Agreement; (c) each party shall, on a confidential basis, inform anyone who has been reasonably identified by the publisher as having a legitimate need to know, (d) to the extent necessary to record the assignment of the patents of Exhibits J and the reserved rights and licences contained therein; (e) by IBM to any third party to whom IBM has an obligation not to appeal, immunity or any other right under any designated patent or patent of Exhibit J. 4.10 This Agreement and its Exhibits and their Annexes embody the parties' full understanding of the patents granted or patents of Exhibits J and shall incorporate any prior discussions between the Parties. Neither party is bound by any condition, definition, guarantee, understanding or representation in the present case, except as expressly provided for in this case. 4.11 The Parties may perform this Agreement in one or more counterparts, each of which is original and each of them together constitutes the same document. 4.12 UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL IBM BE LIABLE TO THE BUYER FOR (I) ANY BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF INFRINGEMENTS OF POINT 4.4(a), INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, BREACHES OF THE ASSURANCES AND GUARANTEES SET OUT IN POINT 4.4(b), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1, (II) FOR ALL BREACHES OF THIS AGREEMENT IN CLAUSE 4.4(a), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL FEE PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1. THE CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF IBM FOR ALL 23 REASONS FOR ITS ACTIVITIES UNDER POINTS 4.12(a) AND (II)7) SHALL NOT EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1. EXCEPT IN THE CASES SET OUT IN POINT 4.3, NEITHER THE BUYER NOR IBM SHALL BE LIABLE FOR THE CONTRACT, THE NON-CONTRACTUAL CONTRACT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY) OR OTHER SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE STEMMING FROM THIS TITLE, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF PROFIT OR GOODWILL, INTERUPTION OF BUSINESS AND CLAIMS BY CUSTOMERS, EVEN IF THEY HAVE BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE. 4.13 Nothing contained in this Agreement or made under this Agreement shall constitute the parties to the conclusion of a joint venture, a partnership or form other party representing the other Party for any purpose or in any sense. 4.14 The last signing of this Agreement will be made by IBM in the United States and the Parties agree that the Agreement has been fulfilled in the United States of America. 4.15 Neither party shall be considered the author of this Agreement for the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. 4.16 Unless a patent-based suit or threat of patent infringement has been filed against IBM, its subsidiaries or any third party, IBM will not bring an action against Ultratech in any patent office, court or other applicable court in any country to confirm that the patents granted are invalid or unenforceable. For the avoidance of doubt, IBM shall not be prohibited from providing facts concerning validity or enforcement in any proceedings, nor shall that obligation preclude the laws of any country. 4.17 IBM's liability for the patent granted for infringement of point 4.4 is limited to an equally large part of the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to such a patent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM's liability for infringement of point 4.4 for each of these patents is fifteen (15) times higher than the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to the patent granted. IBM shall not be liable for a specific target product or service on the basis of the representation and warranty provided for in section 4.4, unless the BUYER would have been able to obtain damages or an injunction for such infringement in a patent infringement action against such product or service. 4.18 IBM shall be liable under Section 4.4 only as long as the benefit of patents and Exhibits J patents determined by the BUYER does not exceed the fee paid in section 3.1. 4.19 On behalf of it and its subsidiaries, IBM grants Ultratech and its subsidiaries a non-us patent number 7324224, fully paid-in and worldwide license to manufacture, use, import, import, offer for sale, lease, license, sell and/or otherwise deliver products and services. The above license includes the right of Ultratech to sub-license to third parties of the same scope. Each Party acknowledges that this Agreement, including its Exhibits and Annexes, has been reviewed and approved by its Legal Adviser. 8/ Section 23 Section 5 Definitions of designated patents, means patents listed (subject to point 2.9), patent applications awarded, patents issued from designated patent applications and patents which may be assigned to or after the date of entry into force. Designated patent applications refer to patent applications listed in Exhibition C which are still pending at the current time and date. Due date means the latest date on which a payment can be made or taken without payment of a penalty, surcharge or other additional payment. The effective date and date means 11:59PM Eastern Time on the day IBM receives the total payment mentioned in section 3.1. Specified product(s) means a product line, service line or subsidiary that competes (such determination on the basis of facts available at the time of delivery made by Ultratech) with an existing Ultratech product or service or with a product or service that Ultratech can demonstrate is intended to be released within 18 months of spin out. Exhibited J patents means all patents listed, issued or re-granted in the patents or applications listed in Exhibition J, including their continuations, extensions or continuations. Exhibit J patents Exhibit J shall remain a patent only for as long as it and its claims are subject to all IBM rights granted and/or reserved for patents granted and/or reserved by IBM under this Agreement. Licensee means any third party (including IBM subsidiaries) to whom IBM: (i) has granted, or is obliged to grant, licences, immunities, agreements or other rights deriving from a designated patent, or (ii) reserves the right under this Agreement to grant licences, immunities, contracts in order to not sue or other rights arising from the patent. Patent granted by Japan means a designated patent issued, granted or pending in Japan. Patents listed means patents listed in exhibition A or B of this Regulation. A patent listed by one country may or may not have a match in another country that is listed as a patent. This patent means either US patent numbers 6268660 or 6593644. Undefined product means any series of products, service lines or subsidiaries that are not specified products. Spin Out or Spun Out means after the effective date and date, IBM or its subsidiaries (the transferring party) either: (i) transfers a product or service line to a third party without transferring the subsidiary to that third party; or (ii) spins a subsidiary (by transferring it to a third party or otherwise reducing ownership or control in such a way that the subsidiary of the transferring Party is no longer the transferring entity); and where such transfer or spin off involves at least one marketed product or service on a product or service line and tangible assets with a net worth of at least USD 10 million (or USD 10,000,000), after written notification by the transferring party to either: (i) by law or contract, (ii) indirectly, (iii) the sale or other transfer of products or services, (iv) grants granted by a third party or through a third party, including, but not limited to, grants granted by an IBM standardisation body or licensee, (v) annexes to development, service or technology licensing agreements, or (vi) to a company not mentioned in exhibition F1, F2 and F3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM does not represent any of the applications set out in section 4 of this Section in respect of any specific expired or pending IBM dock, USPTO and/or foreign patents, or US and/or foreign patents listed in exhibition J, DOES NOT PROVIDE ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR CONTRACTS, IS NOT DIRECT OR INDIRECT, NOR IS IBM LIABLE FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OF PATENTS OR OTHER THIRD PARTY RIGHTS BY THE BUYER. 23 4.5 The Parties shall not be bound by this Agreement or any patent that IBM has signed it or has signed it on its behalf. No amendment or amendment therein shall be valid or binding on the Parties, unless it is made in writing and signed as mentioned above. 4.6 If the competent authority finds that any part of this Agreement is invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in any way for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such Part in any other respect and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue as long as the Agreement still expresses the intentions of the Parties. If any of the rights reserved by IBM is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, this Agreement shall be reconsidered at IBM's choice. 4.7 This Agreement shall be interpreted and the legal relations between the parties shall be determined in accordance with the law of the State of New York of the United States of America, since this law applies to contracts concluded and fully performed in that State, without taking into account the principles of their conflict-of-laws rules. As part of the fee set out below, each party agrees to the jurisdiction of the New York State Court in New York County and the United States Federal Court in the Southern District of New York. All parties: (i) waive all judicial rights granted by the jury; (ii) dismiss all objections to the New York venue for each of the actions set out below; and (iii) agrees to the granting of legal and fair exemptions which the aforementioned court considers appropriate. 4.8 The titles of the sections shall be inserted solely for the sake of convenience of reference and shall not be intended to form part of this Agreement or to influence its meaning or interpretation. 4.9 Each Party may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the fact that IBM assigned the patents and exhibits J granted to it to the Buyer. Either Party may use similar terms in other agreements. However, subject to the exceptions provided for in this Agreement, each Party agrees not to disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party (other than its subsidiaries) until the expiry of the last patent and exhibit J's patent without the prior written consent of the other Party. This obligation is subject to the following exceptions: disclosure is permitted: (a) if required by a government or court order or otherwise by law or applicable stock exchange rules or regulations; (b) where necessary for the enforcement of rights under this Agreement; (c) each party shall, on a confidential basis, inform anyone who has been reasonably identified by the publisher as having a legitimate need to know, (d) to the extent necessary to record the assignment of the patents of Exhibits J and the reserved rights and licences contained therein; (e) by IBM to any third party to whom IBM has an obligation not to appeal, immunity or any other right under any designated patent or patent of Exhibit J. 4.10 This Agreement and its Exhibits and their Annexes embody the parties' full understanding of the patents granted or patents of Exhibits J and shall incorporate any prior discussions between the Parties. Neither party is bound by any condition, definition, guarantee, understanding or representation in the present case, except as expressly provided for in this case. 4.11 The Parties may perform this Agreement in one or more counterparts, each of which is original and each of them together constitutes the same document. 4.12 UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL IBM BE LIABLE TO THE BUYER FOR (I) ANY BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF INFRINGEMENTS OF POINT 4.4(a), INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, BREACHES OF THE ASSURANCES AND GUARANTEES SET OUT IN POINT 4.4(b), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1, (II) FOR ALL BREACHES OF THIS AGREEMENT IN CLAUSE 4.4(a), EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL FEE PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1. THE CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF IBM FOR ALL 23 REASONS FOR ITS ACTIVITIES UNDER POINTS 4.12(a) AND (II)7) SHALL NOT EXCEED 50% OF THE TOTAL REMUNERATION PAID BY THE BUYER TO IBM AT THE TIME OF THE INFRINGEMENT, AS SET OUT IN POINT 3.1. EXCEPT IN THE CASES SET OUT IN POINT 4.3, NEITHER THE BUYER NOR IBM SHALL BE LIABLE FOR THE CONTRACT, THE NON-CONTRACTUAL CONTRACT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY) OR OTHER SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE STEMMING FROM THIS TITLE, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF PROFIT OR GOODWILL, INTERUPTION OF BUSINESS AND CLAIMS BY CUSTOMERS, EVEN IF THEY HAVE BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE. 4.13 Nothing contained in this Agreement or made under this Agreement shall constitute the parties to the conclusion of a joint venture, a partnership or form other party representing the other Party for any purpose or in any sense. 4.14 The last signing of this Agreement will be made by IBM in the United States and the Parties agree that the Agreement has been fulfilled in the United States of America. 4.15 Neither party shall be considered the author of this Agreement for the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. 4.16 Unless a patent-based suit or threat of patent infringement has been filed against IBM, its subsidiaries or any third party, IBM will not bring an action against Ultratech in any patent office, court or other applicable court in any country to confirm that the patents granted are invalid or unenforceable. For the avoidance of doubt, IBM shall not be prohibited from providing facts concerning validity or enforcement in any proceedings, nor shall that obligation preclude the laws of any country. 4.17 IBM's liability for the patent granted for infringement of point 4.4 is limited to an equally large part of the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to such a patent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM's liability for infringement of point 4.4 for each of these patents is fifteen (15) times higher than the amount set out in point 3.1 attributable to the patent granted. IBM shall not be liable for a specific target product or service on the basis of the representation and warranty provided for in section 4.4, unless the BUYER would have been able to obtain damages or an injunction for such infringement in a patent infringement action against such product or service. 4.18 IBM shall be liable under Section 4.4 only as long as the benefit of patents and Exhibits J patents determined by the BUYER does not exceed the fee paid in section 3.1. 4.19 On behalf of it and its subsidiaries, IBM grants Ultratech and its subsidiaries a non-us patent number 7324224, fully paid-in and worldwide license
