Free form jazz odyssey

Jazz Odyssey: Written by Derek, this instrumental premiered at themeland amusement park in Stockton, California, during 1982 tour although David was reluctant to do free-form jazz exploration in front of a festival crowd. Turns out only a sparse crowd was on hand to witness Tap's rebirth Sans Nigel. It's probably a good thing: Nigel's not a fan from jazz. Jazz, he said in 1992, was just a series error without 'oops.' (LT) Nigel has also been lambasted jazz guitarist to play so softly. I don't understand it. They use these strange tones on their guitars; It's like that. under the water bath. It's like plup-plup-plup-plup-plup, like Small speedboat. But I guess it's because they're parents, and they don't like noise. And of course they play soft, so You can't hear them. Then they go, 'Yes, I'm a great player.' Sure, buddy. I have to take your word for it. With me, I play Hard. My manhood is on the table. Check it, pick it up, If you want. (GP) Derek: Hopefully there's a little bit Jazz Odyssey in everything we play. I see you're going to have to Asked if the band will never record a Jazz Odyssey, Derek replied, To record it, I think, will imprison birds that must fly free.
