Every year, a magic Super Bowl Prop betting sheet appears on Reddit, and every year I quickly catch it for our readers. This super bowl printable party game is perfect for office pools and friendly gatherings for the big day. My wife and I print this super bowl prop bet sheet and distribute it to our annual Super Bowl party. However, since we had a couple of children (3) the party has changed considerably - lol. Back in the day, our Super Bowl Party would be a house full of drinkers with a lot of money on the game, now it's a house full of exhausted parents with all their kids huddled in the one-room playing room while adults in each other exchange terrible stories and tips for feeling human again lol. What there is to know about this game This game is very simple. It's perfect for anyone at a Super Bowl party, even those who aren't the biggest fans. The game is a multiple choice quiz with a place to score the score at the end of the game.
