Punch hero hack mod

Punch Hero (MOD Unlimited Money) is a fighting game released by Gamevil, free for Android and iOS. You could say it's one of the funniest and addictive boxing games I've ever played. The game was inspired by Punch-Out!!! - Classic series of boxing games and the latest arcade game series that Nintendo has ever developed in the 80s. Strong punches, boxers' screams, the warmth of thousands of spectators, bones broken,... There are things you can find out in this game. ContentsNamePunch HeroPublisherGAMEVILCategoryFightingVersion1.3.8 (Latest)Size89MMOD FeaturesUnlimited MoneyRequiresAndroid 2.3Those correctly. At first glance I think Punch Hero graphics are not very impressive. Despite the 3D graphics, it looks old and not as sharp as the current games. But the game is really fun and addictive. The style of boxers varied and I felt ridiculous. Many unique effects mean pain when attacking or knocking out an opponent, such as a face that bleeds or bruises. The sound of the game is also quite simple with the sound of punches, spectator screams and some music at the end of the match. Create your boxer After entering the game and naming, you can create a character and choose any style you want. A great boxer with santa claus beard? Nice guy with nice hair? Or even, you can create special characters such as pirate, robot, superhero, ... Gold is the main currency in Punch Hero. They will help you buy items in the store or upgrade your stats. Gold can be obtained by competing or buying gold packages with real money. If you're a shopping lover but don't have much gold, punch hero mod can help you. Mod version allows you to buy everything you want with unlimited money game provided for you. Please note that you must reach the required level to purchase in-game items. GameplayAs our mission in arcade mode is to control your character to defeat 18 other boxers. After defeating the guy, you can move on to the next challenge. Your opponent is very interesting, they can be a boxer, a pirate, a robot or even a soul. No matter who your opponent is, he has weaknesses. You have to find each opponent's strengths and weaknesses and knock him out. I feel satisfied with the punch hero control. Easy to play but hard to win, that's what I can say about this game. Swipe left to make a hook punch, swipe up to slit the cards if you want to punch your opponent in the face. In a defensive state, you can hold two fingers on the screen to protect your opponent's attacks. When you are defeated and the referee counts down, touch the screen repeatedly to return. You lose for more than 10 seconds. Upgrade your boxers While playing this game, you may think it's a game that emphasizes the player's skill, agility and reflexes. Hmm, not really. After some level, I met some boxers with great strength and great HP. At that time, the difference in strength Displayed. Even if you are an experienced player, your chances of winning are very low. This is the time, I think upgrading statistics is the best way. Some stats you can increase for boxers include Attack, Defense, Speed, Skill, HP, Mana, ... You can do this in the Gym Training Room. Zombie mode Approaching the 18 strongest boxers, Punch Hero also brings hundreds of zombies to challenge your bravery. This is a mode in which you can relax with unlimited attacks. How long can you survive in zombie mode? Why Do I Love Punch Hero? Overall, Punch Hero is a fun and addictive fighting game with many challenges. The game has a lot of interesting things that you can see. However, playing against AI sometimes causes players to feel bored. We hope that publisher Gamevil will update the online mode soon.
