External Link Wow Classic WoW Classic General Discussion Hello, I forgot about this bug and I wanted to bring it forward. Not really sure if this is a bug or something that was later applied to a patch or XPAC. To speak, I remember the way back when, you used to be able to buy a bag of seeds from farmer Saldean and do/chicken while clicked on one of the chickens near him. When you did this gesture on more and more chicken, you'll eventually be able to rob him and then get the chicken as a pet. Was it implemented in a later detail or is it a bug that it was not working on a stress test? I saw in the stress test that it would not work. Pretty sure I saw people with pet chicken during the stress test. It worked in stress tests. Rejected by chickens and tell you if I was snubbed by chickens I wouldn't know anyone. I would just be like pfft why I want a chicken pet they are dumb and then I want to cry myself softly when no one was around. (I have no idea if it worked on stress tests, so I'll assume my top 2 people are right. Maybe your chicken was bugged.) So little off the topic like 1, I had no idea it was a thing back then. I remember going to Westfall and watching this male human warrior spamming/chicken over and over and over. . I lasted about 10 minutes before I put a dot on the chicken and killed him. The warrior was very upset with me and called me like trying to remember using 1 way back mechanics to share a name that would be inappropriate for me here. When I heard about chicken it was in tbc I guess? But, one thing I remember is how long it took me to do so. I complained about it on the vent for some giddi saying it should be broken. It just took a long time. Also created macros for this. I think they turn it into new expacks as it doesn't take almost as long as now. Just RNGsus at work. It definitely works, I got chicken myself, although it appeared to search 1 before using emot took a good 15+ minutes of chicken feeling quizzically on you. Perhaps you should inspect it? Eventually!!! 1 As it works, you just have to do it on a chicken that's not already on it. I got it. My chicken on stress test. /Chicken on any random chicken in the game, if after like 20/chicken it won't happen, think another chicken. It should work on first or second /chicken. Accept the search/cheer that chicken then you can turn into the search to get the egg Emilyanne: it lasted about 10 minutes before I put a dot on the chicken and killed her a DoT.. . Sadistic. Your time is near, chicken! It was awesome.. If this is the bucket I remember people punishing quickly/more. Gnomatter: I remember people punishing early/chicken macro for this purpose that was among the first things my friends told me. Many/chicken and a/s cheer for good measure.
