Page 2 11x11 BLOXX is an entertaining puzzle game played on a board with 121 tiles arranged in an 11x11 grid. Your task is to position groups of three colored stones so that they form horizontal or vertical rows. If you manage to build a full row, this row will be cleared. You will also receive points and coins. The longer the match lasts, the bigger and more complex the stones you can get. Always make sure you leave enough space for long L-shaped stones and large squares! For coins, you'll get boosters to help you in seemingly hopeless situations: Replace the stones with a new set, remove one tile, a larger area, or all tiles of a certain color. The game ends when you can no longer place the stones. Reach the target score to open more levels with more complex layouts. Can you complete all levels? Play 11x11 BLOXX now for free and find out!
