Bay of drowned wishes spot The Agonarch Abyss is one of the easier ones, perhaps not the easiest, but certainly not difficult, especially on a Titan character, but later on it. You have to do a little jumping, then defeat two taken tows and Bob's your uncle. Checkout: How to get Anarchy Destiny 2 How to complete Agonarch Abyss Ascendant Challenge To start this challenge, you went into the Dreaming City landing zone and head to the NPC vendor, Petra Venj. Petra could be in one of the zones of the card as the Dreaming City is on a three-week rotation. When you pick up the bounty for the challenge, read the little cryptic blur of Toland. You need a tincture of queensfoil to see the upcoming portal, so use one of your inventory. If you don't have it in your stock, you can pick one up on the way, at the bottom of the building, you find two ahankara skulls. The one called Huginn sells them for 50 baryon boughs a doll. You can stack up at 5, so I suggest buying as much as you can afford. Agonarch Abyss Ascendant Challenge After drinking the tincture of queensfoil goes back to the landing zone at divalian mugs, then turns around and jumps the rocks and head into the lost sector. Clear some of the gangs to make your life easier than embracing the rock wall to your right head after the entrance to the cave where the lost sector boss fight usually takes place. You have to look up because it's pretty high above, so it's easy to miss it by accident. Jump through it and then follow Toland as he leads you through several platforms to the bossy fight area. If you're on titan, you can get straight to small temple, if you know how to do it. It's very much especially if you do the time trial. Agonarch Abyss Ascendant Challenge d21 should mention that if you are after the lore and the eggs you need to do it the traditional way because the first egg is above you when you jump on the first circular platform on top of your right higher on top of a rock. There is a bone on the textured long platform behind the tree, and then the next egg is on the statues' head, and the last one is on top of the dome of the temple where the boss fight takes place. Read: Shattered Ruins Emerging Challenge While Following Toland, be extra careful when you need to slide down the platform and jump to the next. If you jump to a high the fall damage will kill you as it's a little buggy. When you jumped off to the temple two taken towner and a few gangs will spit. Try to kill them as quickly as possible as they hold spawning rust that will debug you with shade touched and slow you down and you can be killed like that. The chest will spawn and after you collect your booty your portal will spit on the other side. Video guide for objective, corrupt eggs and ahankara bone ----&gt; week's challenge is located in the Bay of drowned wishes lost sector. The sector is situated in the divalian mugs. Getting there all you have to do is spawn at divalian mugs, literally just turn around and you'll see the sector entrance. Once inside head to the boss as normal however when you're at the barrier door, instead of going in there looking at your right, the portal will be in clear sight in front of you (you have to be emerging, of course)Objective – The challenge is a short one. Most of it consists of a series of jumps going downwards on cliffs, plates and floating rocks that get slightly harder the further you go down. Once you descend to the bottom you'll reach an arena where you have to fight 2 taken wizard bosses and some shady thrall while surrounded by some taken rust. All you have to do is kill the two tows and the challenge completes automatically. Corrupt egg #1 from the initial spoutout point of the challenge, you're going to go the standard path and jump to the SECOND platform in front of you. To explain this, a pie plate from there will be right, looking up at the mountain from which you just jumped. The egg will simply be in sight. Ahankara Bone Lore Continues from Where You Only Have the 1st Egg, Keep Heading into the path from rocks until you reach the 'broken bridge' platform. If it is not obvious to you, see the for detail. When you're there, head upwards (instead of down as the challenge wants) look out for a tree on the right side of you, the ahankara bone will be behind this tree. Corrupt egg #2 - From where you jut the ahankara bone on the broken bridge platform starts again heading downwards as the challenge wants, BUT DOESNT JUMP OFF THE BRIDGE. instead stand at the edge and just look down. The 2nd corrupt egg will be on top of the head of the giant statue you can jump at. Just shoot the egg and move on. Corrupt egg #3 - The final egg in the challenge is located all the way to the bottom of the arena where you fight the magics. If you get closer to the end, the egg will become quite visible to you. It's literally on top of the arena and right there for you to shoot. Get good positioning on one of the floating rocks and snipe the egg and you're done with the collectibles in this challenge. Page 2 LoreDrop down on the broken bridge, (Toland will be there sometimes)Continue the bridge and the legs will be on your right side behind the tree.
