The bedford guide for college writers 11th edition

About the author: X. J. Kennedy is an acclaimed poet, children's author, university professor and textbook author. He taught first-year composition at the University of Michigan; University of North Carolina, Greensboro; and Tufts University. Since 1966, more than 2 million students have cherished his introductory texts to literature and The Bedford Reader, co-edited with Dorothy M. Kennedy and Jane E. Aaron, now in its ninth edition. Dorothy M. Kennedy is a writer and editor whose articles and reviews have been published in professional and academic journals. She has taught composition at the University of Michigan and the University of Ohio and, along with X. J. Kennedy, is a recipient of the NCTE Teacher's Choice Award for Knock at a Star: A Child's Introduction to Poetry. Marcia F. Muth teaches, writes and edits. She has taught first-year writing at Ohio State University and other introductory courses at St. Peter's College (Englewood Cliffs). His many writing workshops have been sponsored by Fordham University, the University of Colorado Colorado Springs, and currently the School of Education and Human Development at the University of Colorado at Denver. She is the author or co-author of numerous textbooks and compositional assistants, including The Bedford Guide for College Writers, The Concise Bedford Guide for Writers, Writing and Revising: A Portable Guide, Researching and Writing: A Portable Guide, and The St. Martin's Pocket Guide to Research and Documentation (all from Bedford/St. Martin's). His projects as a writer and publisher include Harold D. Lasswell: An Annotated Bibliography as well as numerous grant proposals, textbooks, props, reports and other publications. She continues to learn to write clearly and effectively from her students, editors, critics and fellow editors. About this title may belong to another edition of this title. Writer's Guide Part One: A College Writer's Processes1.
