

I'm not robot

Continue

Ipod mini manual download

Ipod are music players from manufacturer Apple, which are very popular with music fans. They are quite easy to use, convenient and, of course, high quality. 1000 songs in your pocket / a thousand songs in your pocket. iPod classic iPod mini shuffle iPod iPod touch User Guide to Series and Models: iPod: Model: Year: Models: Scroll wheel October 2001 and March 2002 M8541 with touch wheel July 2002 A1019 with dock connector April 2 003 and September 2003 A1040 with control wheel July 2004 Photo A1059 (color screen) October 2004 and February 2005 A1099 iPod U2 October 2004, June 2005, June 2006 and September 2006 A1059, A1099, A1136 video support October 2005 and September 2006 A1238 classic September 2007, September 2008 and September 2009 A1238 Ipod mini: Ipod shuffle: iPod nano: iPod touch: Model: Launch year: models: touch 1st generation September 2007 and February 2008 A1213 2nd generation touch September 2008 A1288 3rd generation touch September 2009 A1318 touch of the 4th generation September 2010, October 2011 and October 2012 A1367 touch of the 5th generation October 2012, May 2013 and June 2014 A1509 play 6th generation July 2015 A1574 7th generation touch May 2019 Apple's iPod instruction A2178 posted on our website has become a very successful Apple product because it uses flash memory or, in some models, a hard drive. Thus, the sound on the iPod is very clear, high quality and clean. One of Apple's founders, Steve Jobs, in connection with the launch of a new series of players, appeared with a slogan for him - 1000 songs in his pocket, which translates into Russian as a thousand songs in his pocket. iPod russian instruction to which you quickly With our site, it has several models, it is modern nano, touch, mix, and mini series old, photo and classic. Thanks to the use of flash memory, these devices are miniature dimensions. They sound of very high quality, and of course, visually they look very elegant and beautiful. In iPod instructions for which they are published on our website in Russian, you can officially download music only using the iTunes app, which is available for Mac OS and Windows operating systems. If you need to find an iPod guide, you can find a manual for any model of this device on our website. Apple iPod Instruction Guide to using apple player can be found on this site. All manuals are presented in PDF format in good readable quality. iPod instruction in Russian language will help users use their features correctly, teach them how to use the device correctly, and more. The iPod instruction will be necessary for any user, as it will help to use this device in full program. How to download the iPod guide To download the manual to your computer or tablet, you can use the search site, where you just need to specify the model name of your device. And then, find a pdf document that can be called the iPod instruction player. Click on this file and save to your personal computer or on another device as an iPod player instruction. In addition, you can download the desired manual by going to the Apple section on the site and find your player there. Click the PDF file with the model name and save, for example, as a guide iPod. We hope our site has helped you find quickly and effortlessly what you were looking for. Read the iPod instruction before you start using the Apple player and use the device with pleasure. Title InstructionsPage 1 of 64iPod nano Operating Instructions Page 2 of 64iPod nano Chapter 1 iPod nano: basic iPod nano layouts: Brief dating using iPod nano controls using iPod nano Menu connecting and disabling iPod nano Chapter 2 16 16 17 21 22 26 33 34 Music features What is iTunes? Import Music to Computer Page 3 of 64Head 6 57 57 59 Security and Attention Important Security Information Important Information about Operation Chapter 7 61 Additional Information, Service and Support Content 3 Page 4 of 64iPod nano: highlights 1 Congratulations on purchasing iPod nano. Read this section to learn about iPod nano functionality, its controls, and more. Place music, photos and other files on your computer, and then upload them to iPod nano. Page 5 of 64iPod nano: Briefly familiarize yourself with the iPod nano controls: Change the Hold Button Next Menu Button/ Peter Button Previous/Rewind Button Home/Pause Click Wheel Serial Number (on the back) Dock Port Link 6 of table 64lined below contains information about the actions of the iPod nano controls. To press any button. Appear the iPod nano Click and hold Start/Pause (). Turn on rear light, click any button or Click Wheel. Turn off the iPod nano controls (on 7 of 64To the following Fast The Song Forward or Back Click and hold down the Next/Fast Forward () or Anterior/Fast Back () button. Add a song to the On-The-Go playlist, select a song, and then hold down the center button until 8 of 64 To remove the previous lyrics, choose the back arrow button or Previous/Rewind. 3 Select the Ready Menu item to see the list you can search for. The songs in the list found appear without icons. Other items contain an icon indicating 9 of the 64Thirty iPod nano if you are carrying an iPod nano in your pocket and want to avoid accidentally turning it on or activating its controls, turning them off using the Hold switch. m Move the Wait to HOLD switch (before the orange plate appears). The pause icon (1) appears when the song is suspended. The lock icon lock appears when the Hold switch (at the top of the iPod nano) is installed on 64Trading 11 and disabling the iPod nano iPod nano must be connected to your computer to synchronize music, photos, files, and battery charging. When you're done, turn off your iPod nano. iPod nano Connection To connect iPod nano to your computer: m Connect the iPod Dock Connectortrap from Do not disconnect the iPod nano when you see the message Do not disconnect. It can damage files on iPod nano. If you see such a message, you should remove the iPod nano before disconnecting it. If you have a main menu or a large battery icon, you can disconnect the iPod nano. Page 13 of 64 iPod nano contains a built-in pre battery that cannot be replaced by the user. If you're using an iPod nano for the first time, let it charge for about three hours or until the battery icon is 14 of 64 To recharge the battery using the iPod's USB power adapter: 1 Connect the connector to the power adapter (they can already be connected). 2 Connect the iPod docking station connector - USB 2.0 to the power adapter, and the other end of the cable - to the iPod nano. 3The5 of the 64If iPod nano is connected to a power supply, the battery icon changes to point out the battery charging process or that the battery is fully charged. Battery charge (lightning arrow) The battery is fully charged (fork plug) You can disconnect and use iPodStrion 16 from 64Syl 2 With the iPod nano you'll always be accompanied by your favorite music, wherever you are. After reading this section, you will learn about downloading and listening to music on iPod nano. You can import songs, audiobooks and podcasts (radio-style programs) into your computer, and page 17 of 64iTunes also has a number of other features. You can create CDs that are played on your own CD players (if your computer is equipped with a write drive); Listen to the internet radio; Watch videos and TV shows Create song ratings for your own taste, as well as 18 of the 64 Intheutual Surveys and download podcasts using the iTunes store, as long as you have internet access you can buy and download songs, albums and audiobooks online using the iTunes store. You can also subscribe to podcasts - radio style programs - and page 19 of 64To buy a song, album or audiobook: 1 Click the iTunes store on the Sources tab and select the item you want to buy. With a double-click on a song or other object, you can listen to a snippet of the selected item. 2 Click Buy a song, Buy an albumPage 20 of 64 How to import music from audio-CD on iTunes Follow these instructions to import music from your CDs into iTunes. Import audio-CD music into iTunes: 1 Inserts a CD into your computer and opens iTunes. If you have an iTunes connection, 21 of 64Thos add the lyrics to the song, you can add the lyrics to iTunes in text format. This way you will see the letter on your iPod nano while you play it. To add the lyrics to iTunes: 1 Select a song, and then select File > Info. 2 Click Lyrics from the song. 3Trad 22 of 64 Download music and podcasts on iPod nano Once the music is downloaded and organized into iTunes, you can easily download it on iPod nano. MENU To determine how the music will be downloaded to the iPod nano, Connect the iPod nano to your computer, and then 23 of the 64 pages are removed from the iPod nano and replaced with songs and items on your computer. If you don't agree, you can download songs to iPod nano manually, and none of the songs on iPod nano will be deleted. iTunes features the iPod nano 24 sync feature of 64Xronize music from its selected playlist on iPod nano Setting iTunes to synchronize selected playlists on iPod nano is of interest if your background doesn't fit into iPod nano. Only the music from the playlists you select will be synchronized on iPod nano. If you manually remove a song or other iPod nano item, it won't be removed from iTunes. To create a new playlist on iPod nano: 1 In iTunes, select the iPod nano in the Fonts tab and click Add (z) or select File > New Playlist. 2 Enter the title Page 26 of music 64Voil After downloading in iPod nano music or other audio files, you can start listening. With Click Wheel and the center button, you can search for a song, audiobook, or podcast. Note: You can see menu objects for podcasts or audiobooks, if you can change the volume with Click Wheel. You can press the center button several times if you have the Now tag executed on the screen for more information and options, such as song sorting and page 28 of the 64Thos of On-The-Go playlists on the iPod nano. called On-The-Go playlists on the iPod nano when the iPod nano is not connected to your computer. To create an On-The-Go: 1 Select a song playlist, and then hold down the center button until the song's title is 29th in the 64-song rating, you can create a rating for any of the songs (1 to 5 stars) to indicate how much you like it. You can use song ratings to automatically create smart playlists on iTunes. To create a song rating: 1 Start playing the song. 2 When 30 of the 64 people appeared on the page, a maximum volume limit was established. Note: The volume of songs and other audio materials may vary depending on how audio is recorded and encoded. Watch Tune Songs with the same volume level on page 31 to get a 31-part 64Trads melody on songs with the same iTunes volume level can automatically change the volume of songs so that they are played at relatively the same volume level. You can customize your iPod nano to use iTunes volume settings. To view 32 of the 64 album covers on iPod nano, iTunes is set to display the album cover on iPod nano for iPod. If you have a cover, you'll see it on your iPod nano while playing the album music. To configure iTunes to display versions of the iPod nano album: 1 Open Page 33 of 642 Select release to play. Information on the transmission, release and date, as well as the expiration and the rest of the Click the center button to see more information about the podcast. If the podcast is covered, you can also watch it. Tap and hold the center button until the speed menu appears, and then with Click Wheel, select Faster or Slower. SpeedTrad 35 configuration of 64Photos 3 You can import digital photos into your computer and upload them to the iPod nano. You can see your photos on iPod nano individually or as a slideshow. In this chapter, you'll learn how to import and view photos. Import photo Digitalter 36 of 64Ys can be imported as part of the iLife package on www.apple.com/iife website. iPhoto can already be installed in the Program folder on your Mac. If you don't have iPhoto, you can import the photo using the Image Capture program. To import photos to page 37 of 64, to synchronize photos from your Mac or Windows PC to iPod nano using the photo processing program: 1 Open iTunes, select iPod nano on the Fonts tab and click on the photo sheet. 2 Select Sync Photo From: On Mac Select iPhoto on Page 38 of 64 To upload high-resolution photos to iPod nano: 1 Unlock iTunes, select iPod nano in the Fonts tab and click on the Photo sheet. 2 Select Enable high resolution photos. 3 Click Apply. iTunes copies high-image versions in the Photo folder, 39 of the 64 Photos can be viewed by hand or as a slide show. View the photo on iPod nano In order to see the photo on iPod nano: 1 On iPod nano select Photos > Photo Library. You can also choose a photo album to see only the photos in the album. For the 40 of the 64Additional features and accessories 4 4 With iPod nano is possible much more than playing songs. Not just limiting yourself to music. iPod nano is much more. Read this section to learn more about the features of the iPod nano, including using it as a 41-part, 64-part external unit. If you want to create copies of files, drag them to iPod nano or iPod nano. If you are using iPod nano mainly as a drive, you might want to prevent iTunes from running automatically while you are connecting iPod nano to your computer. To cover 42 of the 64 Hours for other time zones Add a clock for other time zones (if available) on the iPod nano screen: 1 Select Add ->Clock. 2 Select New Hours. 3 Choose region and city. The hours you added will appear in the list. The clock that added to the last 43 of the 64Thuse timing function can use the timing function during training to track the total time and, if the stage runs, the time of that distance. You can play music while using the timing feature. To use the timing feature: 1Strong 44 off screen of 64Str0 iPod nano can set the code to you don't want to use your iPod nano without your permission. If you have locked an iPod nano that is not connected to your computer, you need to enter code to open it and use it. Watch iPod nano software update and recovery on page 56. Synchronization of contact information, calendars and iPod task lists nanoStrage 46 of 64 When you click the iTunes Apply button, iPod nano updates your calendar information. To synchronize contacts and calendars with Mac and iSync, use the Mac OS X version earlier than 10.4.1 Connect the iPod nano to your computer. 2 Open iSync and select Devices > Add Page 47 out of 64To download contact information manually: 1 Connect the iPod nano and open your favorite email or contact program. You can download contacts with Palma Desktop, Microsoft Outlook, Microsoft Entourage, Eudora, etc. 2 Remove contacts from the program address book on 48 of 64 voice note screens on your iPod nano and upload them to your computer. You can customize your iPod nano to record low quality mono (22.05 kHz) to save space or high quality stereo (44.1 kHz) to improve sound quality. To record a voice note: 1 Suite ConnectStr 49 64 q USB power adapter iPod Power Adapter Kit Nike q iPod Sport Kit Kit World Travel Adapter Kit Accessories for third-party manufacturers, such as speakers, headphones, covers, microphones, stereo adapters Cars, power adapters and more To use headphones: mStrage 50 of 64Sovie and troubleshooting 5 Most problems that arise when using iPod nano can be solved in a short period of time with the tips given in this chapter. Five steps to fix a problem yourself: Restart, retry, restart, reinstall, Page 51 of 64Best recommendations Most of the problems that occur when working with iPod nano can be fixed by restarting it. First of all, make sure the iPod nano is charged. To reboot iPod nano: 1 Turn off the Hold switch (put it in the HOLD position and return it to page 52 of 64. You can change or remove by selecting Settings > Maximum Volume Limit on page 29. If iPod nano recovery does not fix the problem, iPod nano may be in need of repair. You can request service on the websiteStrivet 54 of the 64Friend iPod nano settings, as a repeat of the song, it will also be rebooted. Note: If you have added or removed items from the main iPod nano menu (see Add or remove items from the main menu on page 10), the Settings menu may be elsewhere. If you are 55 years old, you can connect iPod nano to FireWire (IEEE 1394) to load, but not transfer music and other audio files. 6-pin FireWire 400 (IEEE 1394) When working on a Macintosh computer, it is recommended that you use iPhoto 4.0.3 or newer to upload photos and albums to page 56 of 64En refresh and recovery of iPod nano software, you can use iTunes to update or restore iPod nano software. We recommend updating iPod nano to use the latest software. You can also restore software 57 of the 64Security and Care 6 This chapter contains important information about the security and care of Apple iPod devices. ± read all the security and operation information below before starting to use your iPod to avoid injury and injury. Keep the iPod Security Guide and 58th of Apple's 64 Service Providers. More information about batteries can be found on the www.apple.com/batteries website. Use the iPod USB power adapter (sold separately) If you are using the usb iPod power adapter (sold separately on the 64Use of headphones WebsiteTer 59 Use headphones is not recommended while driving and is prohibited by law in some countries. While driving, be careful and be careful. Stop using the iPod nano if you think the device is 60 of 64Kran iPod nano at temperature from -20o C to 45oC (from -4o F to 113oF). Because the temperature inside the parked car goes beyond those limits, with part 15 of the FCC's rules. The operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device cannot cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including 63 of the 64 information about Apple's recycling and the environment that bought the iPod contains a battery. Recycle your iPod in accordance with local laws and environmental requirements. Apple is aware of its responsibilities and tries to minimize the impact of its production page 64 of the 64Page 2Head InstructionTrament 1 of the 64iPod nano Operating Instructions Page 2 of 64Continuing Chapter 1 iPod nano: iPod nano Highlights: Brief Familiarity Using iPod Nano Controls Using iPod Nano Connection menu and disabling iPod nano Chapter 2 16 16 17 21 22 26 33 34 Music Features What is iTunes? Import Music to Computer Page 3 of 64Head 6 57 57 59 Security and Attention Important Security Information Important Information about Operation Chapter 7 61 Additional Information, Service and Support Content 3 Page 4 of 64iPod nano: highlights 1 Congratulations on purchasing iPod nano. Read this section for more information iPod nano, your controls, and more. Place music, photos and other files on your computer, and then upload them to iPod nano. Page 5 of 64iPod nano: Briefly familiarize yourself with the iPod nano controls: Change the Hold Button Next Menu Button/ Peter Button Previous/Rewind Button Home/Pause Click Wheel Serial Number (on the back) Dock Port Link 6 of table 64lined below contains information about the actions of the iPod nano controls. To press any button. Appear the iPod nano Click and hold Start/Pause (). Turn on the rear light, click any button or Click Wheel. Turn off the iPod nano controls (on 7 of 64To the following Fast The Song Forward or Back Click and hold down the Next/Fast Forward () or Anterior/Fast Back () button. Add a song to the On-The-Go playlist, select a song, and then hold down the center button until 8 of 64 To remove the previous lyrics, choose the back arrow button or Previous/Rewind. 3 Select the Ready Menu item to see the list you can search for. The songs in the list found appear without icons. Other items contain an icon indicating 9 of the 64Thirty iPod nano if you are carrying an iPod nano in your pocket and want to avoid accidentally turning it on or activating its controls, turning them off using the Hold switch. m Move the Wait to HOLD switch (before the orange plate appears). The pause icon (1) appears when the song is suspended. The lock icon lock appears when the Hold switch (at the top of the iPod nano) is installed on 64Trading 11 and disabling the iPod nano iPod nano must be connected to your computer to synchronize music, photos, files, and battery charging. When you're done, turn off your iPod nano. iPod nano Connection To connect iPod nano to your computer: m Connect the iPod CableStrive 12 Dock Connector of 64The iPod nano does not disconnect when the Message Do Not Disconnect appears. It can damage files on iPod nano. If you see such a message, you should remove the iPod nano before disconnecting it. When the main menu appears You can disconnect the iPod nano. Page 13 of the 64Htman iPod nano battery contains a built-in pre battery that cannot be replaced by the user. If you're using an iPod nano for the first time, let it charge for about three hours or until the battery icon is 14 of 64 To recharge the battery using the iPod's USB power adapter: 1 Connect the connector to the power adapter (they can already be connected). 2 Connect the iPod docking station connector - USB 2.0 to the power adapter, and the other end of the cable - to the iPod nano. 3The5 of the 64If iPod nano is connected to a power supply, the battery icon changes to point out the battery charging process or that the battery is fully charged. Battery charge (lightning arrow) The battery is fully charged (fork plug) You can disconnect and use iPodStrion 16 from 64Syl 2 With the iPod nano you'll always be accompanied by your favorite music, wherever you are. After reading this section, you will learn about downloading and listening to music on iPod nano. You can import songs, audiobooks and podcasts (radio-style programs) into your computer, and page 17 of 64iTunes also has a number of other features. You can create CDs on your own that are played on standard CD players (if your computer is equipped with a write drive); Listen to the internet radio; Watch videos and TV shows create song ratings for your own taste, as well as 18 of the 64 Songs Acquisition download podcasts using the iTunes Store, as long as you have internet access, you can purchase and download songs, albums and audiobooks online using the iTunes Store. You can also subscribe to podcasts - radio style programs - and page 19 of 64To buy a song, album or audiobook: 1 Click the iTunes store on the Sources tab and select the item you want to buy. With a double-click on a song or other object, you can listen to a snippet of the selected item. 2 Click Buy a song, Buy an albumPage 20 of 64 Regarding importing audio-CD music to iTunes Follow these instructions in order to import from your iTunes CDs. Import audio-CD music into iTunes: 1 Inserts a CD into your computer and opens iTunes. If you have an iTunes connection, 21 of 64Thos add the lyrics to the song, you can add the lyrics to iTunes in text format. This way you will see the letter on your iPod nano while you play it. To add the lyrics to iTunes: 1 Select a song, and then select File > Info. 2 Click Lyrics from the song. 3Trad 22 of 64 Download music and podcasts on iPod nano Once the music is downloaded and organized into iTunes, you can easily download it on iPod nano. MENU In order to determine how the music will be downloaded to the iPod nano, you need to connect the iPod nano to your computer, and then 23 of the 64 pages are removed from the iPod nano and replaced with songs and items on your computer. If you don't agree, you can download songs to iPod nano manually, and none of the songs on iPod nano will be deleted. iTunes features the iPod nano 24 sync feature of 64Xronize music from its selected playlist on iPod nano Setting iTunes to synchronize selected playlists on iPod nano is of interest if your background doesn't fit into iPod nano. Only the music from the playlists you select will be synchronized on iPod nano. If you manually remove a song or other iPod nano item, it won't be removed from iTunes. To create a new playlist on iPod nano: 1 In iTunes, select the iPod nano in the Fonts tab and click Add (z) or select File > New Playlist. 2 Enter the title Page 26 of music 64Voil After downloading in iPod nano music or other audio files, you can start listening. With Click Wheel and the center button, you can search for a song, audiobook, or podcast. Note: You can see menu objects for podcasts or audiobooks, if you can change the volume with Click Wheel. You can press the center button a few times if you have the now Performed tag on the screen to get more information and options, such as song rating and Page 28 of the 64 Creation of On-The-Go playlists on iPod nano You can create the so-called On-The-Go playlists on iPod nano when iPod nano is not connected to your computer. To create an On-The-Go: 1 Select a song, then press and hold the center button until Songs not A 29 of 64 Rating Songs You can create a rating for any of the songs (1 to 5 stars) to indicate how much you like it. You can use song ratings to automatically create smart playlists on iTunes. To create a song rating: 1 Start playing the song. 2 When 30 of the 64 people appeared on the page, a maximum volume limit was established. Note: The volume of songs and other audio materials may vary depending on how audio is recorded and encoded. Watch Tune Songs with the same volume level on page 31 to get a 31-part 64Trads melody on songs with the same iTunes volume level can automatically change the volume of songs so that they are played at relatively the same volume level. You can customize your iPod nano to use iTunes volume settings. To view 32 of the 64 album covers on iPod nano, iTunes is set to display the album cover on iPod nano for iPod. If you have a cover, you'll see it on your iPod nano while playing the album music. To configure iTunes to display versions of the iPod nano album: 1 Open Page 33 of 642 Select release to play. On the Now screen there is information about the transmission, release and date, as well as the expired and remaining time. Click the center button to see more information about the podcast. If the podcast is covered, you can also watch it. Tap and hold the center button until the speed menu appears, and then with Click Wheel, select Faster or Slower. SpeedTrad 35 configuration of 64Photos 3 You can import digital photos into your computer and upload them to the iPod nano. You can see your photos on iPod nano individually or as a slideshow. In this chapter, you'll learn how to import and view photos. Import photo Digitalter 36 of 64Ys can be imported as part of the iLife package on www.apple.com/iife website. iPhoto can already be installed in the Program folder on your Mac. If you don't have iPhoto, you can import the photo using the Image Capture program. To import photos to page 37 of 64, to synchronize photos from your Mac or Windows PC to iPod nano using the photo processing program: 1 Open iTunes, select iPod nano on the Fonts tab and click on the photo sheet. 2 Select Sync Photo From: On Mac Select iPhoto on Page 38 of 64 To upload high-resolution photos to iPod nano: 1 Unlock iTunes, select iPod nano in the Fonts tab and click on the Photo sheet. 2 Select Enable high resolution photos. 3 Click Apply. iTunes copies high resolution versions of the photo to the photo folder on page 39 of 64View photos You can see photos on the iPod nano manually or as a slide show. View the photo on iPod nano In order to see the photo on iPod nano: 1 On iPod nano select Photos > Photo Library. You can also choose a photo album to see only the photos in the album. For the 40 of the 64Additional features and accessories 4 4 With iPod nano is possible much more than playing songs. Not just limiting yourself to music. iPod nano is much more. Read this section to learn more about the features of the iPod nano, including using it as a 41-part, 64-part external unit. If you want to create copies of files, drag them to iPod nano or iPod nano. If you are using iPod nano mainly as a drive, you might want to prevent iTunes from running automatically while you are connecting iPod nano to your computer. To cover 42 of the 64 Hours for other time zones Add a clock for other time zones (if available) on the iPod nano screen: 1 Select Add-ons > Hours. 2 Select New Hours. 3 Choose region and city. The hours you added will appear in the list. The clock that added to the last 43 of the 64Thuse timing function can use the timing function during training to track the total time and, if the stage runs, the time of that distance. You can play music while using the timing feature. To use timing: 1Strage 44 of 64 How you can close the iPod nano screen, you can set the code so no one can use your iPod nano without your permission. If you have locked an iPod nano that is not connected to your computer, you need to enter the code to open it and use it. Click 45 out of 64Indreave: If you forget your current code, you can delete it and enter the new code just by restoring the iPod software. Watch iPod nano software update and recovery on page 56. Synchronization of contact information, calendars and iPod task lists nanoStrage 46 of 64 When you click the iTunes Apply button, iPod nano updates your calendar information. To synchronize contacts and calendars with Mac and iSync, use the Mac OS X version earlier than 10.4.1 Connect the iPod nano to your computer. 2 Open iSync and select Devices > Add Page 47 out of 64To download contact information manually: 1 Connect the iPod nano and open your favorite email or contact program. You can download contacts with Palma Desktop, Microsoft Outlook, Microsoft Entourage, Eudora, etc. 2 Remove contacts from the program address book on 48 of 64 voice note screens on your iPod nano and upload them to your computer. You can customize your iPod nano to record low quality mono (22.05 kHz) to save space or high quality stereo (44.1 kHz) to improve sound quality. To record a voice note: 1 Suite ConnectStr 49 64 q iPod USB Power Adapter Power Kit Nike q iPod Sport Kit World Travel Adapter Kit Accessories for third-party manufacturers, such as speakers, headphones, covers, microphones, car stereo adapters, power adapters and much more To use headphones: mStrage 50 of 64Sovie and troubleshooting 5 Most problems that arise when using iPod nano can be solved with the advice given in this chapter. Five steps to fix a problem yourself: Restart, retry, restart, reinstall, Page 51 of 64Best recommendations Most of the problems that occur when working with iPod nano can be fixed by restarting it. First of all, make sure the iPod nano is charged. To reboot iPod nano: 1 Turn off the Hold switch (put it in the HOLD position and return it to page 52 of 64. You can change or remove by selecting Settings > Maximum Volume Limit on page 29. If iPod nano recovery does not fix the problem, iPod nano may be in need of repair. You can request service on the websiteStrivet 54 of the 64Friend iPod nano settings, as a repeat of the song, it will also be rebooted. Note: If you have added or removed items from the main iPod nano menu (see Add or remove items from the main menu on page 10), the Settings menu may be elsewhere. If you are 55 out of 64Inath: You can connect the iPod nano to the FireWire port (IEEE 1394) to load, but not transfer music and other audio files. 6-pin FireWire 400 (IEEE 1394) When working on a Macintosh computer, it is recommended that you use iPhoto 4.0.3 or newer to upload photos and albums to page 56 of 64En refresh and recovery of iPod nano software, you can use iTunes to update or restore iPod nano software. We recommend updating iPod nano to use the latest software. You can also restore software 57 of the 64Security and Care 6 This chapter contains important information about the security and care of Apple iPod devices. ± read all the security and operation information below before starting to use your iPod to avoid injury and injury. Keep the iPod Security Guide and 58th of Apple's 64 Service Providers. More information about batteries, visit the www.apple.com/batteries website. Use the iPod USB power adapter (sold separately) If you are using the usb iPod power adapter (sold separately on the 64Use of headphones WebsiteTer 59 Use headphones is not recommended while driving and is prohibited by law in some countries. While driving, be careful and be careful. Stop using the iPod nano if you think the device is 60 of 64Kran iPod nano at temperature from -20o C to 45oC (from -4o F to 113oF). you will find information about using the iPod nano to help you on your computer screen and on the Internet. La taula proporciona més informació sobre el programari de iPod i la informació sobre la pàgina 62 de 64Normativa informació de compliment de la declaració de la FCC Compliment Aquest dispositiu complex amb la part 15 de les regles de la FCC. The operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device cannot cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including 63 of the 64 information about Apple's recycling and the environment that bought the iPod contains a battery. Recycle your iPod in accordance with local laws and environmental requirements. Apple is aware of its responsibilities and is trying to minimize the impact of its manufacturing operations.

maa saraswati chalisa pdf download , konpeki no kantai download , west michigan coating llc , android auto clicker apk no root , interrogative pronouns worksheet grade 2 , sinhala adara wadan photos , normal_5f9c9211ed0d7.pdf , normal_5f9a3f2923c17.pdf , normal_5f8a49551392a.pdf , 23397887394.pdf , black and decker brew and go manual .