Upgrade To Premium Minnesotans are the largest supplier of sugar beets, sweet corn, green peas, and turkeys to the United States, so commercial truckers are needed for the state to continue the supply chain for the nation. Truckers in Minnesota can also depend on transportation between the state's many big cities and rural areas, making many job prospects different. To get your commercial driver's license, you'll first need to get your student's permission by passing a written knowledge test based on the Minnesota Commercial Driver's Manual 2020. How to prepare The Minnesota CDL exam, in addition to the separate exams you could do for further approvals, has hundreds of questions that could be asked, so it's important to focus and study hard. Adding license approvals can open the door to more job opportunities; approvals include school bus driving, passenger transport, tanker, Hazmat, multi-trailer, compressed air brakes and combined vehicle. To prepare for the test, you'll need to read the Minnesota Commercial Driver's Manual, sit with pen and paper, and take notes as it goes through the entire manual. The exam will be multiple choice and the questions will be directly from the manual, so if you study hard you can know all the answers. After reading, look at your notes and if you notice areas that are still unclear or cloudy, go back and reread those sections. Stay focused, as what you learn will not only help you pass the test, but also help you stay safe and protect your load and others with whom you will share the way. Final steps This time you feel confident in what you've learned, keep it cool in your mind by reading the notes and manual once again, then head to the DVS to take the test. Stay calm and make sure you've studied hard and are on track for a new career. Home > Minnesota > Get a FREE Minnesota CDL MN Manual If you're not a MINNESOTA resident please?
